

Corn, yellow	37
" mixed	37
Oats, white,	29
" mixed	28
Butter.	14
Eggs.	20
Hogs.	$3.75@3.85
Chickens.	6½
Veal.	4½
Turkeys.	7½

DWIGHT LOCAL NEWS.

Farms for sale by Baker & Mezger. "Uncle Tom's Cabin" Monday night. C. G. Barr was a Chicago visitor Sunday. Good house to rent. Inquire Will T. Scott. If you want anything try our 25 cent column. Inglis lectures Monday evening, March 4. Watch for Baker & Mezger's new ad. next week. Men's leather-covered mitts 15 cents, at E. T. Miller's. Plain, sweet-spiced and mixed pickles at the Star Grocery.

Fred Mow bray visited his people in Streator over Sunday. Receipt books and blank notes for sale at this office. Auction bill and horse bill printing a specialty at this office. If you have a house for sale or rent try our 25 cent column. Men's and boys' silk plush caps 50 cents, at E. T. Miller's.

Chas. Currier, of Chicago, visited friends here this week. Fresh bread delivered daily to any part of the city. Weicker. Real estate city and farm property for sale by Baker & Mezger.

Girl wanted to do general housework. Inquire of Mrs. J. R. Oughton. If Frank Smith left for Indiana Wednesday on real estate business.

All copy for advertising should be in this office before Thursday noon.

Oysters by the can, bulk or dish at Mrs. J. D. Ketcham's restaurant.

If you want fine home-made sorghum, call on Starrett & Seabert.

Rev. E. F. Wright will preach a sermon on backbiting tomorrow night.

Sauer kraut, apple butter and home made mince meat, at the Star Grocery.

Call on H. T. McLane and see the Disc Sharpener. Just what you want.

Call at this office and see the home books we are offering for premiums.

People know a good live town by the good live advertising in the home newspaper.

Chinese hair tonic, a sure cure for hair falling out and will remove dandruff.—Ed. Reeb.

A good factory made team harness, all complete, with collars for $20, at Leach & Reeb's.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith entertained the Oasis club Tuesday evening in a very handsome manner.

The Home Bakery, in the Frank Ford building, is prepared at all times to serve a nice lunch quickly. Call there.

Mrs. J. D. Ketcham has constantly on hand a choice line of cigars. She invites all smokers to call there and sample her cigars.

Samuel M. Inglis will lecture at the M. E. church next Monday evening, March 4. This is the last lecture of the Illini club course.

I am prepared to do all kinds of grinding, scissors and razors a specialty. First-class work guaranteed, at Wm. Roeder's barber shop.

I am getting up a class in instrumental music. I would like anyone who is thinking of taking lessons to call and see me. Miss Addie Fenn.

The best place to get your watch repaired done at reasonable prices is at Guardener's. Daylight. Also strings for all s—ments for sale.

Go to Miller Bros. for all kinds of rubber goods. Prices reduced on Macintoshes, also all styles of ladies' and children's rubbers.—Miller Bros.

Walter Scott is agent for the very best and clearest ice, and contracts can be made with him at any time. Now is the time to prepare for hot weather.

Prof. J. D. Kyle, a popular and able teacher of bookkeeping, is forming a class in Pontiac. We hope that he may meet with all the success he merits which would be saying very much.

There will be a St. Patrick's Day ball at Keppinger's hall on the evening of March 18. Everybody invited. The general committee is J. J. Cronin, Ed. Christman, Henry Christman and Dennis Heenan.

Bring in your harness to get repaired before you need them, as they can be done cheaper now than in the spring. Mr. Thos. Weldon is still in charge of this department. That is a sufficient guarantee for good work. Leach & Reeb.

A party of about a dozen couples from Dwight captured the home of Mr and Mrs. Austin Gibbons in Nevada one evening the first of the week. They took lots of good things to eat with them, and had a splendid time. Those who know say that Austin and his good wife know just what to do to make everything pleasant, and they always do it. How about the turkey?

Get your insurance of Baker & Mezger.

John Ryder was here from Verona last week.

Incubator for sale cheap. Inquire of Mrs. Comeford.

Harry Seeley was in Joliet on business this week.

Old newspapers for sale—100 for 25¢. Call at this office.

House to rent on Mazon avenue—Mrs. M. L. Walker.

Leach & Reeb's own make ½ name strap for 10 cents.

Bruce Rearick was confined to his home with grip last week.

Girl wanted to do general housework. Inquire at Pennsylvania House.

Mrs. Wm. Taylor visited at her former home in Gardner, last week.

A new real estate, loan and insurance firm in Dwight is Baker & Mezger.

Doc Hause and W. T. Prime were in Bloomington on business Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Wilmott are home from their visit to Kansas and Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wood, of Iowa, are visiting their relatives here this week.

Chinese hair tonic will grow hair on the baldest head. Call on Ed. Reeb for it.

Chas. McClary, of Goodfarm, was very sick the first of the week, but is better.

Miss Jennie Wood arrived home Saturday from a four weeks' visit to Nebraska.

Bicycle for sale—26-inch, cushion tire, wheel nearly new. Inquire of L. A. Naafizer.

A fine line of clothing, shoes and furnishing goods. Latest styles at Gordon Bros.

Walter Scott has the best hard coal in town. He is also agent for genuine Bradwood coal.

Mrs. Bertie Doherty has been very sick this week, but is improving, we are pleased to state.

Money to loan by Baker & Mezger. Office in Baker building, next door south of Star Grocery.

There was a very large crowd in Dwight last Saturday, and our merchants did a good business.

The enterprising merchant keeps himself before the public, and the public knows this and acts accordingly.

Dr. and Mrs. Leslie E. Keeley returned from their Mexican trip yesterday, having enjoyed a splendid visit.

We keep the genuine Lambertville snag proof, rubber boots, also the best in other makes, the celebrated Boston —Miller Bros.

Miss Carrie Young, of Odell, visited the family of Levi Reeder the first of the week, and was present at the memorial services Sunday evening.

James Kelagher, Austin Gibbons and Peter Heinan were in Peoria this week on important business—and it was not a Democratic convention either.

Bruce Rearick has received a handsome line of samples of wall paper at prices ranging from 6 cents to $1 per roll. Give him a call before buying. 2t

Mrs. Col. J. B. Parsons has been confined to her house for the past three weeks from the effects of an injury received from a fall. She is gaining rapidly now.

Miss Markoe's rendition of Topsy is excellent, and is sure to win the warmest applause. She brings the character fully up to Mrs. Stowe's ideal.—Boston Globe. Opera House Monday evening March 4.

The St. Louis limited run into a T.

P. & W. freight train at Chenoa Wednesday, dumping several cars. The air brakes were set, but refused to work on account of the rain. Not much damage was done to the Alto engine.

M. Kennedy, of Nevada, left for Armstrong, Iowa, Wednesday, where he will reside in the future. Mr. Kennedy is a good citizen and his many friends here wish him success. The STAR AND HERALD will carry the news to him.

The 3-I road has been running excursions for business men in Streator and Kankakee to the eastern end of their road. We would suggest that Dwight has some business men who would like to take a look at South Bend and other points on the 3-I.

Mr. Glover, of Nebraska, formerly supervisor from Broughton township, is in this neighborhood in the interests of the afflicted people in his state. He says there has been no real suffering in his immediate neighborhood, but there would have been had not people come from friends in more prosperous states. He says the people will have to be helped until another crop is harvested.

Mr. T. M. Bates, formerly superintendent of the 3-I road, but now connected with a building and loan association in Bloomington, was in the city

last evening, a guest at the Plum house.

He has not entirely discarded railroad talk. When he went to supper he asked the waiter if they had any choice cuts.

Being answered in the affirmative Mr. Bates said: "Gimme a cut rate, then,

and a railroad frog. Serve 'em on a fish-plate." And, say, I want a seat at a time-table." The waiter was now under the doctor's care.—Streator Free Press.

Mrs. Young has been very sick this week.

M. Kern's condition is about the same.

New firm, new business, Dwight is all right.

Will Cook, of Goodfarm, made us a pleasant call Tuesday.

C. M. Baker was in Bloomington on business Wednesday.

How does your account stand with the STAR AND HERALD?

There will be a great campfire in Streator in a couple of weeks.

Starrett & Seabert sell New York table, barrel and lump rock salt.

Tom Jordan, the branch brakeman, is laid up with the grippe this week.

Three-hook Success sweat pads at Leach & Reeb's for 25 cents per pair.

Call at Mrs. J. D. Ketcham's restaurant for lunch. Hot lunches at all hours.

Mrs. J. D. Ketcham always has in stock a nice lot of fresh fruits, nuts, etc., etc.

Fresh white and yellow corn meal, graham and entire wheat flour, at the Star Grocery.

The grippe is a treacherous complication of diseases, and there is lots of it in this community.

John Vickery is moving into his new residence on Mazon avenue from his farm, this week.

Who said "Uncle Tom" was dead? He will be very much in evidence Monday night at the opera house.

John Meier, of Nebraska, son of J. L. Meier, is visiting his relatives and friends here this and last week.

Already there are two announcements in the STAR AND HERALD of people seeking the office of collector.

C. W. Stickney, formerly of the Forest Ramble, late of Sheldon, died Monday. He had many friends in this country.

The Missionary tea at M. E. church Thursday evening was a very pleasant affair. Lots to eat and a good time for 10 cents. Cheap enough.

Only for a few days more will you have a chance to get one of those fine all wool suits made to order for $16.00 by Mr. Bovik—at Miller Bros.

Chas. E. Stevens has purchased the Rhode property in the west end of town from the Equitable Loan and Investment association of Bloomington.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller are to day in Quincy, Ill., attending the funeral of Mrs. Carl Miller's cousin, Mr. Hainsfurther, young man twenty-seven years of age.

The Limited stopped in Dwight Monday and took on Col. Richard P. Morgan and daughter, Miss Mae, who will visit southern points in search of health for the latter. Her many friends wish her a pleasant journey and renewal of health.

Arthur Hornby arrived back from Merry Old England last Monday night, after enjoying a splendid visit with relatives and friends at his old home at Holme, Water End, York. He had a very pleasant trip, only encountering one storm returning.

Johnny Hahn recently purchased two Jersey cows at Pontiac, which he valued very highly. Last Saturday one of the cows died suddenly, with no apparent cause. The animal was opened through curiosity and a needle was found imbedded in the heart. The needle was badly rusted and had caused the death.

Everybody should hear the child wonder, Baby Marie Edwards, 6 years old, at the M. E. church Thursday, March 14. Also C. W. Edwards, a splendid violinist, will be present. This will be one of the most pleasant entertainments ever given in Dwight. Remember the day, March 14, at M. E. church.

The German Lutheran congregation of Goodfarm and Dwight made a liberal donation to the Nebraska sufferers last week, and the action proves them to be liberal and just and believers in the Golden Rule. They sent a car load of grain containing about 650 bushels of ear corn, 65 bushels of oats, besides four large boxes of clothing. We are indebted to C. E. Foersterling for this information.

M. Kennedy, of Nevada, left for Armstrong, Iowa, Wednesday, where he will reside in the future. Mr. Kennedy is a good citizen and his many friends here wish him success. The STAR AND HERALD will carry the news to him.

The 3-I road has been running excursions for business men in Streator and Kankakee to the eastern end of their road. We would suggest that Dwight has some business men who would like to take a look at South Bend and other points on the 3-I.

Mr. Glover, of Nebraska, formerly supervisor from Broughton township, is in this neighborhood in the interests of the afflicted people in his state. He says there has been no real suffering in his immediate neighborhood, but there would have been had not people come from friends in more prosperous states. He says the people will have to be helped until another crop is harvested.

Mr. T. M. Bates, formerly superintendent of the 3-I road, but now connected with a building and loan association in Bloomington, was in the city

last evening, a guest at the Plum house.

He has not entirely discarded railroad talk. When he went to supper he asked the waiter if they had any choice cuts.

Being answered in the affirmative Mr. Bates said: "Gimme a cut rate, then,

and a railroad frog. Serve 'em on a fish-plate." And, say, I want a seat at a time-table." The waiter was now under the doctor's care.—Streator Free Press.

World's Fair Reproduced

200 Handsome Views and Portraits in an Elegantly Bound Volume for $1.50.

The Same Has Been Sold For $2.25, Unbound.

If you are a subscriber to the STAR AND HERALD you can have one for $1.25.

BOTH FOR $2.50.

World's Fair Views, Chicago Weekly Inter Ocean, or Toledo Blade, and your Home Paper for $2.75 if taken now

J. M. Powell,

Is Agent for the

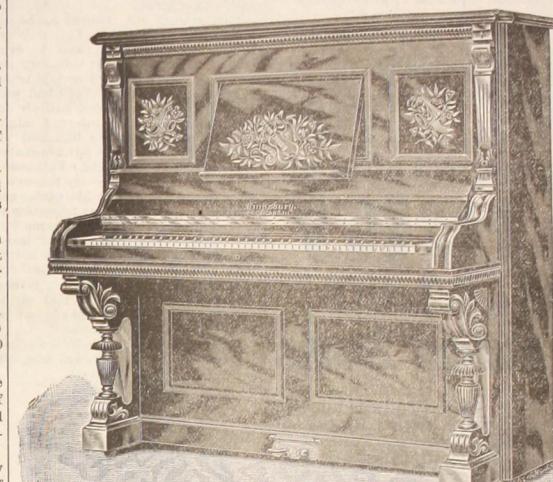

Connover, Schuber,
Kingsbury Pianos,
and Chicago
Cottage Organs.

Pianos and Organs sold on Monthly Payments, and on Easy Terms. I can get you any kind of Instrument that is made at reasonable prices.

I also do repairing of Organs and Sewing Machines, and you can find all kinds of supplies at the Music Store.

Dwight, Ill.

Are You

Listening

To What we Say?

You wish to purchase some

INDIANA LAND!

If so, we invite anyone who wish to invest in or trade for land to call on us before going elsewhere.

GOOD FARMING LAND

Within a day's travel and is as good as western lands that you will travel a week to see, we have whatever you want, if you will only go with us to see it. We have

FARMS OF ALL SIZES

at the lowest possible prices, and do our best to please our customers. If you wish to purchase you will do well to

Call on or Address

Ketcham & Smith,

DWIGHT, ILL.

DR. KILMER'S SWAMP ROOT
THE GREAT KIDNEY LIVER AND BLADDER CURE.
The Spring Tonic
Makes thin, pale, sickly people well and strong.
La Grippe
Cures the bad effects after of this trying epidemic and restores lost vigor and vitality.
Impure Blood
Eczema, scrofula, malarial, pimples, blisters.
General Weakness
Constitution all run down, loss of ambition and appetite, nervousness, tired and sleepless.
At Druggists 50 cents and $1.00 Size.
"Invalid's Guide to Health" free—Consultation free.
DR. KILMER & CO., BINGHAMTON, N. Y.