ILLINOIS STATE NEWS.

Deaths at Soldiers' Home.

The following deaths at the State soldiers' home in Quincy are officially reported for the month of December:

Stephen Sullivan, company D, Sixty-ninth Pennsylvania infantry; Lemoine Tevis, company F, Thirty-seventh Illinois infantry; John R. Heath, company B, Seventy-eighth Illinois infantry; Daniel Forrest, company F, Thirty-fifth Illinois infantry; Charles Frey, companies D and B Forty-third Illinois infantry; Clifton T. Wharton, company A, Nineteenth Illinois infantry; Henry C. Crabb, company B Third Indiana cavalry; Oliver Jones, company A, Fourteenth Illinois cavalry. The present aggregate membership is 1,977.

State Banks.

State Auditor McCulloch has compiled the business of the state banking department for the last year. On December 12, 1898, there were 142 state banks in operation in Illinois; now there are 151, an increase of nine. Seventeen state banks have been organized since December 12, 1898; five have gone into voluntary liquidation, four have increased their capital stock, none have decreased their capital stock, one has been organized as a national bank and two consolidations have been made.

A Bank Robbed.

The Bank of Tolono, a private institution, of which R. A. Bower is president and S. M. Bower cashier, was entered by burglars at an early hour and $4,500 in cash taken from the safe. Besides this about $500 in stamps and postal funds were taken from a deposit box which Postmaster Campbell had placed in the bank for safekeeping. The safe was ruined.

Lived 103 Years.

Mrs. Johanna Keefe, a pioneer, died in Galena at the age of 103 years. She had been a resident of that city for 85 years and came there when Galena was only a mining camp. Her health remained good up to two months ago, and she was always hale and hearty till the beginning of her last illness.

Confessed to Murder.

At the trial of Henry Brunot and his mother in Pana for the murder of Jane Brunot, whose body was found in an abandoned well April 10 last on the Brunot farm, Brunot confessed the crime, exonerating his mother. Brunot was given a life sentence. Mrs. Brunot was acquitted.

A Fine Gift.

As a gift to the Illinois Children's Home and Aid society Abram Middlesworth, president of the First national bank, gave a deed to his old home, a stately mansion, and ten acres of ground in Shelbyville. The property is worth $10,000.

Keep Coughing

We know of nothing better to tear the lining of your throat and lungs. It is better than wet feet to cause bronchitis and pneumonia. Only keep it up long enough and you will succeed in reducing your weight, losing your appetite, bringing on a slow fever and making everything exactly right for the germs of consumption.

Stop coughing and you will get well.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

cures coughs of every kind. An ordinary cough disappears in a single night. The racking coughs of bronchitis are soon completely mastered. And, if not too far along, the coughs of consumption are completely cured.

Ask your druggist for one of Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Plaster.

It will aid the action of the Cherry Pectoral.

If you have any complaint whatever and desire the best medical advice you can possibly obtain, write us freely. You will receive a prompt reply that may be of great value to you. Address,

THRILLING STORY IS TOLD

Experiences of Lieut. Gilmore and Party During Eight Months in Captivity.

WERE NEAR TO DEATH WHEN RESCUED.

The Lieutenant Praises Aguinaldo and Denounces Tino—Latter Orders Prisoners to Be Shot, But Guard Turns Them Loose—Description of the Rescue.

Manila, Jan. 8.—Lieut. J. C. Gilmore, of the United States gunboat Yorktown, who was captured by the insurgents last April near Baler, on the east coast of Luzon, and rescued a few days ago by Col. Luther R. Hare, of the Thirty-third volunteer infantry, on Sunday in the apartment of his sister, Mrs. Maj. Price, at the Hotel Oriente, in Manila, and told a remarkable story of his eight months in captivity, ending with his dramatic deliverance from a death that seemed inevitable.

Treated Well by Aguinaldo.

Although tanned and ruddy from exposure, he is weak and nervous, showing the results of long hardships. He speaks warmly of Aguinaldo and very bitterly against Gen. Tino, declaring that while in the former's jurisdiction he was treated splendidly, but that after he fell into Tino's hands he suffered everything.

His Story.

Lieut. Gilmore made the following statement to a correspondent:

"The Filipinos abandoned us on the night of December 16. We had reached the Abatut river, near its source, that morning and the Filipinos rafted us over. We then went down the stream, along a rough trail, guarded by a company of Filipinos. That night we were separated from this guard, and another company, armed with muskets, was put in charge of us. I suspected something, and questioned the lieutenant in command. He said: 'I have orders from Gen. Tino to shoot you all, but my conscience forbids. I shall leave you here.' I begged him for two miles to protect us from savages, adding that I would give him letters to the Americans, who would pay him well and keep him from all harm. He refused this, however, saying that he would not dare to comply. Soon afterward he left with his company.

"We had seen some savages in war paint around us, and we prepared to fight them with cobblestones, the only weapons that were available to us.

"The next morning we followed the trail of the Filipino soldiers, feeling that it was better to stick to them than to be murdered by savages, but we could not catch up with them. Then I ordered the men to build rafts in the hope of floating down the river. It was a forlorn hope, but I knew the river must empty into the sea somewhere. I was so weak myself that I did not expect to get out, but I thought some of the men could.

The Rescue.

"On the morning of December 18, while we were working on the rafts, the Americans came toward us yelling. One of my men shouted: 'They are on us.' He was lashing a raft of bamboos. I, however, knew it was the yell of savages, but the yell of Americans. The rescuing troops thought we had Filipino guards, and called to us in English to lie down, so that they could shoot the Filipinos. That was the finest body of officers and men I ever saw."

Lieut. Gilmore could not speak enthusiastically enough about the 140 picked men who had rescued him and his party. The command spent the day in making rafts. Col. Hare thought Lieut. Gilmore too weak to live through the trip, but there was no alternative. They shot many rapids, the men losing all their effects and Lieut. Gilmore some valuable papers. Only 14 out of 47 rafts survived the first night's experiences and 80 men were practically unable to walk when Vigan was reached.

Describing the flight from Benguet when the Americans approached, Lieut. Gilmore said: "The Filipinos, completely terrified, left Benguet on December 7. They hurried the prisoners from town to town, often retracing the trail, not knowing where the Americans would attack. After being almost without food for three days they killed several horses, and we lived on horseflesh for several days. I did not have a full meal from December 7 until I reached Vigan. Indeed, the rescuing party lived largely upon rice without salt. There was one day when I was reduced to chewing grass and bark.

Brutality of Tino.

"While we were in the hands of Gen. Tino's men he issued an order that any person aiding an American by food or money should be treated as a criminal. One citizen of Vigan, Senor Vera, was probably killed for befriending us. We would have starved but for the kindness of some of the presidents of the towns and some of the Filipino colonels, but others treated us brutally. Wherever there was a prison we were kept there. When there was no prison they would lodge us in a convent. We suffered greatly from want of exercise as well as lack of food."

"The Filipino treatment of the Spaniards," said Lieut. Gilmore, "was brutal in the extreme. The insurgents had old grudges to wipe out against them. Many talk about the reconcentrados in Cuba. I have seen Spaniards dying at the rate of two or three per day of starvation in the hospitals at Vigan. I have seen Tagalo officers strike Spaniards in the face with whips and revolvers."

The Rescued Men.

Among the prisoners arriving with Lieut. Gilmore were F. J. Hubert, Edward Burke and J. J. Farley, sailors from the Urdaneta; Von Galen, of the Baltimore; A. H. Gordon and George Sackett, of the Third infantry; Leland Smith and Frank Stone, of the signal corps; Harry Hubert, of the hospital corps; William Bruce and Edward Honeyman, of the Nevada cavalry; Martin Brennan and James Curran, of the Sixteenth infantry; Albert Bishop, of the Third artillery, and John O'Brien and David Brown, civilians.

Eaten by Cannibals.

London, Jan. 10.—The captain and crew of 15 men belonging to the British schooner Nukumania, while trading among the Admiralty islands, were killed by cannibals and eaten.

Has No Assets.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—Leroy Paine, one of the oldest livery stable proprietors in Chicago, has filed a petition in bankruptcy. Liabilities, $189,000; no assets.

An Editor Suicides.

Logansport, Ind., Jan. 8.—J. E. Sutton, editor and proprietor of the Daily Reporter, committed suicide in St. Paul, Minn. Despondency was the cause.

WHAT TO READ.

Some Prominent Chicagoans Express Opinions.

In these enlightened times every person who pretends to keep in touch with the progress of the world must read a first-class daily metropolitan newspaper. They who would select the best should be guided by the opinions of prominent newspaper-men who know. Read the following:

"There is no question as to the position occupied by The Chicago Tribune. Its enterprise has been too often demonstrated. As a local and American news-gathering institution it has no superior and few equals. In the matter of foreign cables, no other paper west of New York can be compared to it. These are the things, of course, that go to make a complete and great newspaper. CARTER H. HARRISON."

Now Mayor of Chicago, formerly publisher Chicago Times.

"The Chicago Tribune is the best newspaper in the world. I consider its make up and facilities for gathering news unequaled, although I do not agree with it politically. "WASHINGTON HESING."

The late Postmaster, Chicago, and publisher Staats Zeitung.

"The Chicago Tribune is beyond question the greatest newspaper in the West, if not in the country."

"MARTIN J. RUSSELL."
