RESOLUTIONS.

The M. W. A., of Reddick, of which Mr. Devan is a member, met and formed the following resolutions: RESOLVED, That we extend to her parents our heartfelt sympathy in the sad hour of affliction, and be it further Therefore be it, Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from our midst, a beloved daughter, Maud, who departed this life on January 1, 1900.

RESOLVED, That as a token of respect to the memory of their daughter, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, also a copy be sent to her parents and to the leading papers of our county. Whereas, While we are neighbors and members of the M. W. A., we sincerely mourn her loss as a daughter, we bow with humble submission to the will of God, who in His infinite wisdom and mercy does all things for the best.

Livingston county has lost her reputation for salubrious climate, we have been having weather the past fortnight that would be inviting to every disease ever heard of, but "Yellow Jack" and had a little leaning that way. Hot cold, wet, dry, mixed all dished up at any time and all times. A round robin has been circulated, calling for something different, Query, What?

Croup, the greatest enemy of childhood, succumbs at once to the soothing influence of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. Bronchial affections lose their danger when this great remedy is at hand. No home should be without it. C. V. Green, Braceville; A. K. Beltzhoover, Dwight.

Campus.

Charles Diehl is in town. Ross Diehl moved to Joliet this week. Wm. Bloksom is working for Walsh Bros. The club dance the 26th, was largely attended. J. C. King's little boy who has been very ill, is improving. Dr. Bearman was elected County physician by popular vote. Henry Meyers was in Dwight the first of the week on business. Henry Meyers has returned from Iowa and expects to remain here. Mamer's ice house is nearly full and he has rented J. D. Brophy's ware house for ice. Mr. Kenney, of Bonfield, who has been visiting the Maguire's returned to his home Tuesday. Marriage license was issued by the county clerk to John Murphy and Margaret Dixon both of this place. A shaft will be sunk on John Gahan's place near town during the next few days. The machinery is expected every day. The windows were put into Walsh's store at Cardiff this week. The plastering will be done soon and with good weather the building will be ready for occupancy very soon. Drilling is now being done by the Devlin Coal Company on John Gahan's eighty acres, which they have bonded and on which they have a ninety days option. Work must be begun within the next week. The company will buy the land outright if prospect is good, for $125 an acre. The agents, Mr. Duggan and Mr. Hines have looked into the matter thoroughly. There is not the least doubt about the prospects. Numerous prospects have been made and the big vein has been found where the new company is drilling. The lower vein of the Cardiff shaft has also been found there. There are big prospects for Campus and vicinity, because of these new operations, and which will bring another mine adjoining but not in the center of the town.

Death of Robert Bowes.

From Odell Outlook. Robert Bowes passed away at his home on Tuesday evening January 16, without having gained consciousness after the accident of Monday morning the 15th.

Robert Bowes was the oldest son of ten children of Duncan and Hannah Bowes. He was born near Ottawa, LaSalle County, Ill., on Dec. 16, 1855, when he was eight years old his parents moved to Union Township, Livingston County, where he grew to manhood. He was united in marriage on Dec. 22, 1881, to Mary E. Deyo, and to their union were born six children, all of whom survive, George D., Robert M., Florence M., Mark W., Jessie F. and Charles E. who with their mother mourn the loss of a husband and father. The funeral services were held Thursday at 2:30 p. m. at the M. E. church conducted by the pastor, Rev. D. F. Wilson and the interment was in charge of the I. O. O. F.

The Odell Lodge bore the body from the residence to the church and from there to the Odell cemetery. The ritual of the Order was used in the burial service which was conducted in the church because of the inclemency of the weather, by Rev. A. P. Solandt, Chaplain of the lodge. The whole community sympathize most truly with Mrs. Bowes and her family.

The Donaldson's will be in their new house Friday. John Murphy moved into the north-east end of town this week. The engineers are on an eight hour shift. They began it Monday. Tom Brennan, of Cullom, is rapidly getting his place ready for business. Lumber is being hauled for the livery barn east of Braughan's meat shop. Richard Longe moved into the house vacated by Superintendent Parker last Wednesday. Miss Murphy, of Braceville, and Miss Weatherell, of Ladd, are now at the Hotel Cardiff. It is hard work hauling during these muddy days and delivery wagons very frequently get stuck in the road. The ballot for the most popular physician resulted 45 to 21, favor of Dr. Bearman, which makes him company physician. An addition has been built on the end of the depot platform and a sm all depot is likely to be built very soon. Side tracks will be put in. There will be Sunday School every Sunday and church every other Sunday in Cardiff. Rev. Brothers officiating. The first service was last Sunday. Mr. Snyder's little girl hurt her wrist on a broken china cup upon which she fell while playing in the yard. The wrist was badly cut but fortunately it missed all the large wrist veins. One stitch was taken, and she is doing nicely. To Cure A Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature is on each box, 25c.

Scholl-Grimes.

Miss Louise Scholl and W. B. Grimes, of Odell, were united in marriage by Rev. Clendenning, at the Methodist parsonage, 44th and Union streets, Chicago, Sunday afternoon, January 21, 1900, and returned home on the 11:45 train Monday night. Mr. and Mrs. Grimes are well and favorably known in Odell and vicinity and the announcement is quite a surprise as the matter was kept secret until Monday evening when the report got out. Their many friends unite in congratulations and wish them a long and happy married life.
