Beware of the real estate agent
Be wary when you chat with him,
Be witching is his tongue
Bewildering are his arguments, and
Bewailing will you be when you get away from him.
I am not a real estate agent.
I am the "man himself!"
When you run across me in Cardiff, you are "Up again the real thing."
And you will find out I have houses and lots, and lots of houses for sale or rent. I have also got lots without houses for sale, and if you live in Cardiff it will pay you to commit to memory the following lines entitled:

THE DAIRY MAN'S DITTY.
(Air, The Pretty Little Factory Girl.)
List to my muse
All you who use
The sweet lactial fluid,
In my simple way
I'll time my lay
Please do not think me rude.
True as you're born
I'm up each morn,
At four o'clock or sooner
My only light
To guide me right
Is Heavenly called Lunar.
(CHORUS.)
Then list to me and you'll agree
The milkman's way is hard if
He'll attention pay to his contemporary.
Where they meet on (Feebery's) scales in Cardiff.

My morning's milk is pure and sweet.
You'll never find it stale sir,
You get it right fresh from the cow,
Before it leaves the pail sir.
I buy no chalk, I'm ("too stingy")
Nor water use
But wouldn't you think it hard if
I said I knew a milkman who
Does this very thing in C-A-R-D—Chicago.
Then list to me and you'll agree
To get pure milk is hard if
You are not wise and patronize F. E. Ahern of Cardiff

Yes, I am too stingy to buy chalk and my windmill is broke and everybody knows I am too lazy to pump water by hand for five cents per quart. So if you will leave your order at the dairy of F. E. Ahern it will receive prompt and careful attention. Thanking you for past patronage and favors and soliciting a continuance of the same.
I remain most faithfully your friend.

F. E. AHERN,
Real Estate Insurance and Loans.
