

DO YOU WANT A FARM?

DO YOU WANT A HOME?

Iowa! Iowa! Iowa!

Do You Want a Good Farm Cheap?

We can sell you one in Iowa. We have Land in CENTRAL and NORTHWESTERN IOWA and in MINNESOTA. It will pay you to call on us before you buy.

Do You Want to Trade Your High Priced Land here for Land There?

See us if you do.

Romberger & Smith.

DO YOU WANT SOME INSURANCE?

DO YOU WANT TO BOR-ROW 5 PER CENT
MONEY?

DWIGHT,

ILLINOIS

Dwight.

Archie Ahern visited his sisters in Joliet this week.

Ted McCarty spent the 4th with his people in Dwight.

Miss Emma Miller returned to Chicago Sunday evening.

Mrs. Charles M. Clay, who has been quite sick, is better now.

Wm. Fowle is visiting friends near Gardner for a few days.

Miss Susie Leach is visiting friends and relatives in Wisconsin.

Miss Helen Ahern, of Joliet, is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. L. Smith.

Master Leslie Short is spending a few days with friends near Gardner.

C. E. Fenn, of the Odell Outlook, spent Sunday with his people in Dwight.

Mrs. A. Applegate, of Blackstone, visited Lee Reeder and family this week.

Mrs. DeBere, of Iowa, and Mrs. Martin, of Odell, visited the Reeder family this week.

Miss Mayme Fifield visited friends in Chicago, Joliet and Coal City during the past week.

Misses Clare and Addie Baker attended the Epworth League convention at Peoria this week.

Ollie Crandall left Friday for Streator where he has accepted a position in a hotel as night clerk.

Miss Nellie Mills returned Saturday from a very pleasant two weeks outing at White Lake, Michigan.

Miss Florence Wright returned from Huntley last Friday evening after spending a week's visit with friends there.

Harry Buren, who recently returned from Janesville, Wis., where he was learning telegraphy has accepted a position on the 3-1 at Dwight.

Rev. Wright and family left Wednesday for their new home in Lexington, where he has engaged in the newspaper business. He has the best wishes of all the people of this community.

Rev. S. A. Harris, of Milburn, Ill., who preached at the Congregational church Sunday morning and spoke to the Spanish-American veterans in the evening, left a very favorable impression with the members of the church and those who heard him. It is said he preached a particularly fine sermon in the morning in a most eloquent manner. He will occupy the pulpit tomorrow, and everyone is invited to hear him.

George Lawler is braking on the branch with W. Martin.

Mrs. C. A. Cooke and children were Chicago visitors last week.

Dwight Collins now has a good position at the hay press factory.

W. H. Ketcham was in Marvin, Kansas, this week on business.

Mrs. Seeds and niece, of Chicago, are visiting Mrs. George Goodman.

The transfer wagon has been varnished and looks much improved.

Miss Bowers, of Indianapolis, is visiting Miss Ella Chester this week.

John Davis and Pete Powell, of Chicago, were Dwight visitors Sunday.

Miss Addie Brown is visiting friends and relatives in Chicago this week.

Doc Hagerty has been ill for several days and was obliged to stop work.

Mrs. S. Smith and mother, of Reddick, were Dwight visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Keese and daughter, Mayme, of Kankakee, visited Mrs. A. C. Barnum this week.

Nick Loffmark has returned from a visit with his parents at Muskegon, Mich.

Mrs. Curtis Clover and children, of South Bend, Indiana, are visiting Mrs. Clover's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Buffham.

Owing to the rain of Saturday last the band concert in the evening was not largely attended. The boys did well, however.

Miss Mary O'Malley, who is with a prominent hospital at Oakland, Maryland, is spending her vacation here with relatives.

Clarence Rabe, of Chicago, is at home visiting friends and relatives. He has been away several years and is now in the insurance business.

According to an exchange oil has been struck at Hersher, Ill., in paying quantities, and Chicago parties are forming a syndicate to work it.

Thayer McDowell left for Davenport, Iowa, Sunday night, to fill a position with a coffee house. He was popular the short while he was here, and has many well wishers and friends.

There are prospects for a cheap excursion to St. Joe, Mich., on a week day sometime early in August, over the 3-1 railroad, under the auspices of the Dwight camp, Sons of Veterans. Every member of the camp should be present at the special meeting tonight to make the final arrangements. An excursion to St. Joe, would undoubtedly prove very popular and he well patronized. Wait for the S. of V. excursion and all take a ride.

Mrs. Cupples is very ill at this writing.

Ray Seymour is at home visiting his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Crocker visited in Union Hill Sunday last.

A beautiful Aeolian is being built at J. R. Oughton's residence.

J. D. Emple was in Gardner on business Monday of this week.

Max Miller and Miss Sadie Miller were Chicago visitors Sunday.

Misses Maggie and Emma Kime took in the excursion to South Bend Wednesday.

Miss Justine Sangman, of Chicago, is visiting Miss Mary Rosendal this week.

Mrs. Howlett and son, of Syracuse, N. Y., are visiting friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Everett Lewis and the children visited at Donnell's Grove this week. Everett Lewis joined them Sunday.

Miss Addie Fenn is giving music lessons in the country. Anyone wishing lessons would do well to call on her.

Everybody ought to be refreshed by a drink of our soda and phosphates and made comfortable by our ice cream. — P. D. Weleker.

Mrs. C. L. Romberger and Emma are visiting in South Haven, Mich. Mrs. J. E. Blaine and daughter, of St. Louis, are also at the same place.

It is reported that Peter Seaman, who went to Klondyke with Wm. Moesis a few years ago was accidentally shot last February, but nothing is positively learned.

Miss Mattie Groll, of Chicago, visited here two weeks. Misses Emma and Mattie visited Pauline at Winchester the first of the week. Miss Mattie returning to Dwight Thursday.

Frank E. Ford is spending a three months' vacation visiting some of the most noted places in Austria, Switzerland and France, and expects to return to Vienna in September and resume his studies.

The STAR and HERALD acknowledge the receipt of complimentary tickets to a big M. W. A. picnic at Theller's Park, Joliet, Thursday July 26, all day and evening. All neighbors are invited.

Dr. and Mrs. R. Broughton returned home Saturday night from a six weeks trip East. They spent much of their time with their son, William, who has a fine position in one of the departments at Washington. Dr. and Mrs. Broughton's health is splendid and they enjoyed their trip and visit greatly.

Miss Jessie Davis is visiting relatives in Chicago this week.

The wall in the rear of the Hagerty block is being repaired.

Attention is called to Christeen & Brown's ad in this issue.

WANTED—Girl for general household. Apply at this office.

J. McWilliams, of Odell, was in town visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Nellie McComb, of Streator, visited Dwight friends this week.

Refreshing drinks at all times at the ice cream parlors of P. D. Weleker.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoobler, of Chicago, visited F. M. Davis and family last week.

James Broughton left Monday for Salt Lake City, where he has accepted a position.

Misses Nellie McComb and Emma Hughes were South Bend visitors Wednesday.

John Lowe and family moved to St. Charles, Ill., the first of the week. They have many well wishers.

Advertised Letters—Mrs. Will H. Wyman, Mr. C. B. Tooley, W. W. Mayberry, A. M. Crawford, Mr. V. A. Gage.

"See it go." the pure "Big Joe," the flour that sells. We have just received a car load of it and it is selling fast, try a sack, Nelson Bros.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society meets today at the home of Mrs. L. Martin. All ladies are most cordially invited to be present.

Methodism has about given up one of its ancient customs in making it no longer strictly obligatory that kneeling should be the proper attitude in prayer and public worship.

Mrs. William Bartholic and children left Friday of this week for Paw Paw lake, Mich., where they will spend several weeks. Mr. Bartholic accompanied them as far as Chicago.

Chas. Vickery gave a tea party last Saturday evening in honor of his guests Misses Couch and Rogers, of Omaha, Neb. A large number of young people were invited and a very pleasant evening was reported by all.

Rev. Wm. Woolley has been invited to exchange conferences with the promise of a church in a town of seven thousand population where the church pays a salary of $1,200 and in addition furnishes a good parsonage. But because of his large and pleasant acquaintance in Central Illinois Conference, where he has spent all his Ministerial life, he prefers to remain in his old conference.

Romberger & Smith.

Frank Reeb and the boys drove to Odell Sunday.

John Thompson, of Manhattan visited his father this week.

Miss Clare Baker is visiting friends in Peoria this week.

Mrs. W. E. Fenn was a streator visitor the first of the week.

F. B. Chester was in Streator and Peoria this week on business.

Miss Lizzie Doherty is spending her vacation in Bloomington and Chenoa.

Misses Lou Jones and Ella Bowers, of Gardner, were in town Thursday calling on friends.

There were 244 tickets sold for the South Bend excursion Wednesday, and it was an all around 'good time from start to finish.

Col. F. L. Smith, John McWilliams and G. W. Dustin, of Dwight, attended the congressional convention at Streator Wednesday.

Mesdames Holway and Kavanaugh, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. O'Leary, of Verona, and Mrs. Bradshaw, of Odell, visited Mrs. Saltzer this week.

F. W. Scutt and son, Harold, of Hollis, Long Island, spent Friday with the family of Frank Brubaker. Mr. Scutt is a nephew of Mrs. Brubaker.

W. W. Walker, of Union, made the STAR and HERALD office a call Wednesday while enroute to the congressional convention at Streator.

No more saw edge collars. V. S. Wright & Co. have just added a new machine to their ironing department. The very latest machine for ironing the edges of collars and cuffs and shaping lay down collars.

Col. Frank L. Smith has let the contract for his new house in Dwight, Nelson Road, of Pontiac, being the successful bidder, it being $5,000, exclusive of plumbing, heating and painting. It will be one of the finest residences in Dwight.

C. & A. Excursions.

Modern Woodman picnic at Joliet July 26. $1.50 round trip, return limit July 27.

St. Paul, Minnesota, $13.75 round trip, July 15, 16 and 17. Return limit July 21, can be extended at St. Paul to August 21.

Denver, Colorado Springs, Manitou and Pueblo, one fare plus $2.00 the round trip, July 23 and 24, return limit August 24.

Grand excursion to Joliet and Lockport, Saturday July 21, $1.20 round trip. Tickets good going and returning on special train only.

No Excess Fares on the Nickel Place Road.

Our trains are composed of the best equipment, consisting of three vestibuled sleeping car trains in both directions between Chicago, Buffalo, New York and Boston, with unexcelled dining car service, to which are added assurances of safety, speed and comfort, forming a peerless trio of advantages.

Train No. 2, leaving Chicago at 10:35 a. m., with through cars for Boston, New York and intermediate points.

Train No. 4, leaving Chicago at 2:30 p. m., with through cars for Buffalo, New York and intermediate points on the Lackawanna road; also on the West shore road, making direct connections at Buffalo with the New York Central and Lehigh Valley roads; also makes direct connections at Brocton for Chautauqua lake points.

Train No. 6, leaving Chicago at 10:30 p. m., with through cars for Buffalo, New York and intermediate points; also at Brocton for Chautauqua lake points.

Individual club meals ranging in price from 35 cents to $1, served on all our dining cars. Rates always lowest. Write, wire, 'phone or call on nearest agent or Mr. J. Y. Calahan, general agent, 111 Adams St., Chicago, Ill. 114

It stands alone, it towers above. There's no other, its nature's wonder, a warning poultice to the heart of mankind. Such is Rocky Mountain Tea. 35c.

35c, 35c, not 25c, not 50c, 35c, the price of Rocky Mountain Tea the world over. None genuine, unless made by the Madison Medicine Co. Jy

Notice.

I am now prepared to take orders for all kinds of fruit and ornamental trees and grapevines for fall delivery. Also all kinds of palms, ferns and Holland bulbs for the house and garden. No orders taken later than October 1st! Thankful for past favors, I am yours to serve you, A. BOWER. 31

If wives have any compassion for the sorrows of cross, crabbed husbands, give them Rocky Mountain Tea. 'Twill remove any misunderstanding in the family. Jy

Your best friend can give you no better advice than this: "For impure blood, humors, scrofula, salt rheum, dyspepsia, weak nerves, tired feeling, rheumatism, malaria, catarrh, take Hood's Sarsaparilla and be cured." Jy

Try them every evening and be cool and comfortable.—P. D. Weleker.

Constipation is cured by Hood's Pills 25c.