Miss Hassel, who is working in Chicago, came home Saturday evening to attend the funeral of her father, Victor Hassel, which was held Sunday.

The social held on Radford's lawn Saturday evening was a decided success. Ice cream and cake were served and games of various kinds were indulged in.

The village has given Mr. Dyer permission to use a vacant street for the switch at the new shaft. Everything is ready now to begin, and the work will go on at once.

It is a pleasant surprise to some of our town people when they call up Joliet over the long distance telephone to recognize the voice of one of our former young ladies. Miss Bessie Mathias has a position in the central telephone office there.

Campus.

A. Lockwood was a Dwight visitor Wednesday.

M. Maguire's house is nearly ready for occupancy.

Oats are blown down badly in some parts of the country.

Mary Caffrey was in Chicago the first of the week.

The school house is being sided and otherwise improved.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. H. Skow, Tuesday, a baby boy.

Lieut. Fred Brown, of Cornell, is a member of the Ninth Regiment which was a part of the allied forces which were in such a deadly battle at Tien Tsin and which distinguished itself so brilliantly.—Leader.

C. E. Fenn, of the Odell Outlook, was in Pontiac this week, on business connected with that paper. The Outlook is fast becoming one of the substantial newspapers of the county and the people of Odell appreciate it.

The arrangements for the republican campaign were never in better shape. The men who have always been republicans and who have always been successful in carrying elections are at the helm, and the result in Livingston county will be a grand republican victory. The campaign will be opened here sometime in August or in September by a grand blowout with some of the ablest speakers in the state present.
