Anyone having a vehicle of any kind should not be molested with that awful rattle, but should take it to JOHN SMITH, the old reliable Plow Smith, inventor and manufacturer of Smith's Ball Bearing Sharpener, J. J. SMITH on East Mazon Ave. Street and have the tires set and he will stop the noise, and he says if he dishes one wheel he will replace four new ones. That's a good bargain. A splendid opportunity for a days outing is offered to the people of this vicinity under the arrangements made by Dwight Camp Sons of Veterans to run a train from Streator to St. Joe, Michigan, Wednesday, August 15, for the small sum of $1.50 for the round trip.

St. Joseph is a beautiful city situated on Lake Michigan. Has many handsome summer resort hotels, so also has Benton Harbor, two miles away, which can be visited by electric line.

Arrangements have been made so those who desire can visit parks on the lake front or enjoy rides on the lake by steamer or small boats.

The train will be composed of five day cars and a baggage car in which lunch baskets will be taken care of if properly labeled.

The stay at these summer resorts will be not less than six hours and probably seven, and those who desire can come back the next morning.

This is the first cheap excursion to these handsome places on a week day and undoubtedly will be taken advantage of by several hundred people.

In Dwight an opportunity will be offered to secure tickets the day before at the STAR AND HERALD office, of James Seabert, or Boyer's livery barn.

Everyone who desires a day off sight seeing should fix on the 15th and go on this pleasant excursion.

The train will leave stations as follows:

Streator at 6 a. m. and other stations same as the schedule time of the Sunday train.

AMUSEMENTS AT ST. JOE.

The park extends along the lake on the bluffs and is shady and comfortably seated. There are bath houses where suits can be procured for bathing, boat houses and a band concert is given nearly every afternoon, and there is a dancing pavilion. Lunch can be secured and meals at all prices. From the park is a beautiful view of the lake.

Pleasure lake steamers leave the docks at 3 p. m. every afternoon for an hours cruise, all for 10 cents.

Pleasure river steamers go up the river through the fruit country for several miles for 25 cents.

Electric cars run to Benton Harbor or to the Springs, 10 cents round trip.

H. A. KENYON,

An Honored Citizen of Dwight, Passes Away in Chicago.

The death of Homer A. Kenyon took place in Chicago, Tuesday morning, after an illness of many months. Indeed, for over a year he has been falling of what seemed a giving out of the organic machinery, which had been worked too hard. Mr. Kenyon was a soldier during the war, and there his nervous system necessarily received shocks from which, while apparently not noticeable, no man ever fully recovers. Since the war he has always been an incessant worker. He was postmaster for seventeen years, and it was during that time he thought out and systematized that great and useful business known as the Kenyon News and Postal Subscription Company, now located in Chicago, the details of which were complicated for years. No sooner had he arranged his Chicago business satisfactorily than he came to Dwight at the earnest request of The Leslie E. Keeley Co., and accepted a position as manager, and commenced the work of systematizing that immense business, and after about four years his health began to fail, but his natural courage prevailed and he refused to relinquish his work until it was positively necessary, and then it was too late. His courage, that of a soldier, remained with him until the end came. His mind was clear and he was reconciled, and passed away with his faithful family about him full of faith and hope for the future. Homer Kenyon was an able and good man, honorable, liberal and just, and this whole community mourns with his family and relatives.

Thus a brave soldier, an excellent citizen, a kind neighbor and a warm, considerate friend to everybody and everything good, has passed to the beyond and the community mourns.

BIOGRAPHICAL.

H. A. Kenyon was born in Rochester, N. Y., October 23, 1839, and moved with his parents to Dwight, Ill., in 1857, and has been prominently identified with its best interests since that time. While at Rochester he received the benefit of a high school education, but acquired his vast business knowledge in actual business and from contact with his fellowman.

In 1892 he enlisted in Co. B, 129th Ill. Vol. Inf., and served with credit until the end of the war, being first sergeant of his company. He was elected second lieutenant of the company but refused the honor. He was with his company at the battles of Resaca, Dallas, Kennesaw Mountain, siege of Atlanta, Savannah and Columbia.

After the fall of Atlanta he was connected with the inspector general's department, and served with ex-President Harrison, who at that time commanded the first brigade of the third division, twentieth army corps. Returning to Dwight at the close of the war he engaged in contracting and building until 1869, when he was appointed postmaster by President Grant, which office he conducted to the satisfaction of the government and his fellowmen for over 17 1/2 years. While in the postoffice he originated the idea of a subscription news agency, which was moved to Chicago in 1890, and soon absorbed several smaller agencies. This business has, for the past five years, been conducted by his son, Mr. E. L. Kenyon, and will be continued as before. He is said to have placed over 8,000,000 subscriptions for the different magazines and newspapers in the last thirty years.

Mr. Kenyon was also the editor and proprietor of the Western Postal Review, a publication devoted to the interests of postmasters and the relations of the public to the postoffice service, and for which he built up a circulation of over 12,000 copies monthly. He retired from this field, however, when the postoffice department began the publication of the Official Postal Guide.

In March, 1894, he was called from Chicago by The Leslie E. Keeley Co. to assume active control of their vast business interests, which, in addition to the general business at Dwight, embraces commercial and supervising relations with all the branch institutes, one or more of which are in every state in the Union, the Dominion of Canada and Great Britain. The position required a man of careful business methods, a wide acquaintance, and one thoroughly in sympathy with the great work. Mr. Kenyon was such a man, and from 1894 until late in the fall of 1899 he was manager of all their businesses.

For the past two years his health has not been of the best, and he has taken treatment and consulted with some of the best specialists and physicians in the country; tried travel, numerous health resorts, but to no avail, as the doctors themselves could not agree as to his exact ailment, which was probably contracted while in the army, but which, owing to a fine physique and indomitable will, were kept down until his age worked against him.

Several weeks ago the doctors here told him that they could do nothing for him, and then, on the advice of a friend, he made arrangements to enter the Zion congregation at Chicago, of which Dr. John Alexander Dowie is the head, in the hope that the teachings received there might prove of some benefit. In company with his wife he took up his abode at Zion, corner Twelfth street and Michigan avenue, Chicago, June 7th, but as far as relief from pains was concerned received no benefit, gradually grew worse and passed away at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday morning.

He was one of the incorporators of Oak Lawn cemetery here, and always took a pride in it, often saying that it was one of the things he had done in life, of which he was very proud. At his request the remains were brought here and laid to rest in the cemetery he had laid out and done so much toward keeping up.

The funeral occurred at 1:30 p. m. Thursday, from the house, Elder Sixth of Chicago, assisted by Rev. Woolley, conducting the exercises. A large number followed the remains to their last resting place.

The New Minister.

Whenever a new minister comes to a city and takes a charge, everyone is interested in him and his family. Everyone knows he is to be a prominent part of the community for a year or more and that his efforts will be productive of good. Such was the case when Rev. Wright and his family came, and everyone is glad he came and the best wishes for himself and family went with him when he decided to leave the ministry, and leave Dwight.

For the past two Sundays the pulpit of the Congregational church has been occupied by a very able minister, Rev. Sheldon A. Harris. He has been in the ministry for twenty-eight years and has only had four charges, which of itself speaks volumes for him. For the past seven years he has been located at Millburn, Lake county, and was for several years in Byron.

At a business meeting of the church membership Tuesday night it was decided by a practically unanimous vote to engage the services of Rev. Harris for a year, and he has accepted the offer, and will move here in about a month. His family consists of his wife, two sons and two daughters, one son and a daughter married and a son seventeen and a daughter, Miss Florence, (by the way, about the age of Miss Florence Wright), the latter two of whom will move here with the family. The older son is a minister and resides in Iowa.

Mr. Harris is 48 years of age, is energetic and practical, a good talker and thinker, and has certainly made a favorable impression. The STAR AND HERALD takes pleasure in welcoming Rev. Harris and his family to their new home in Dwight.

Rev. Wright will preach here next Sunday, and the pulpit will be supplied until the permanent arrival of the new pastor.
