Manila, Aug. 9.—The following ticket was nominated by acclamation at the republican state convention Wednesday:

Governor, Robert M. LaFollette, Madison; Lieutenant Governor, Jesse Stone, Watertown; Secretary of State, William H. Froelich, Jackson; State Treasurer, James O. Davidson, Soldiers Grove; Attorney General, Emmet R. Hicks, Oshkosh; State Superintendent, Lorenzo D. Harvey, Milwaukee; Railroad Commissioner, Graham L. Rice, West Superior; Insurance Commissioner, Emil Giljohann, Milwaukee; Chairman of state central committee, Gen. George E. Bryant, Madison.

In part the platform is as follows: "The republicans of Wisconsin in convention assembled heartily endorse the republican platform adopted at Philadelphia, and pledge their enthusiastic support to the republican candidates for president and vice president.

"We endorse the national administration of William McKinley, and the work of our able senators and representatives in congress."

Other planks endorse the present state administration, the establishment of a tax commission by the last legislature, also legislation on the pass and lobby questions. Legislation prohibiting combinations and trusts that destroy competition, restrain trade and create monopolies is advocated, and better highways are favored.

The primary election plank reads as follows: "The great reformation effected in our general elections through the Australian ballot inspired us with confidence to apply the same method in making nominations, so that every voter may exercise his sovereign right of choice by direct vote without the intervention or interference of any political agency. We therefore demand that caucuses and conventions for the nomination of candidates for office be abolished by legislative enactment, and that all candidates for state, legislative, congressional and county officers be nominated at primary elections upon the same day by direct vote under the Australian ballot."

Gen. George E. Bryant, of Madison, was elected chairman of the new state central committee.
