The Sons of Veterans did not make a financial success of their excursion on account of the rain, and have decided to run another on the same date next year. They return their sincere thanks to all who patronized the excursion or assisted in any way.

Wamego people hardly ever get left. A lady from here recently accompanied a friend to her home at Dwight, Ill. They made a mistake and took a train which did not stop at Keeley headquarters and were informed by the conductor that they would have to get off and await an accommodation train. The Wamego lady informed Mr. Conductor that such a course would be impossible. The lady in her charge was a confirmed morphine fiend and should the effect of the drug die off there was no telling what the result would be as several strong men were required to manage her patient when she had her "spells." The conductor didn't know what to do in a case like that so he telegraphed ahead for orders. At the next stop he received orders to stop at Dwight. The ladies left the train smiling but had no further use for the Keeley Institute.—Agriculturist.

Watermelon Party.

Wallace Wright very pleasantly entertained about a dozen of his young friends at the home of Miss Cora Adams between 2 and 6 last Saturday afternoon.

The watermelons were ice cold, large size and good, clear through. The guests enjoyed themselves thoroughly and played games during the afternoon, serving two courses of watermelon.

The following attended: Francis Trunnell, Emma Romberger, Lillian Fisk, Helen Beltzhoover, Olga Adams, Louise Baker, Jean Forsyth, Harry Adams, Harold Barr, Clifford Wright, Arthur Kern, Wallace Wright.

The guests had a delightful time and regret that the host is obliged to return to his Kenwood home so soon.

Had a Close Call.

N. A. Porter had a narrow escape on the Chicago & Alton track Thursday morning. He was going to work with a sythe over his shoulder, and on looking around saw the hummer coming. He stepped off of the track, but evidently did not get far enough away as he was picked up unconscious a few minutes later, and nobody knew how it happened. The supposition is that the engine struck his sythe while passing. Dr. Welsh attended the unfortunate man, who at last reports, complained of a pain in his side, and he received bruises about his head and neck. Had the train been running as fast as it does sometimes while going through here, the result might have been more serious.

Found On The Track.

A man by the name of W. E. Clark, from Mayesville, Missouri, was run over by a freight Sunday about midnight and the right foot cut off.

He was on his way to Lincoln to the hospital and had sat down by the track to rest, in which position he fell asleep, inauspiciously leaving his right foot on the rail.

He had reached a point about two miles south of Dwight. He was brought to Dwight immediately on the company hand car and his injuries attended by the company physician.

In the Marblehead Neck correspondence of the Boston Herald of August 19, we find the following regarding one of our popular merchants: Mr. Edward McWilliams, who is a guest at the Nanepashmet Hotel, left this week on his cruising knockabout, Louise, for a ten days cruise to Bar Harbor and the Maine coast. He will have as his guest, Mr. W. Ware.

The Great Show.

Not only have the newspapers of New York city recently and again emphasized the fact, but it is generally known throughout the breadth of the whole land, as well, that the Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' great consolidated shows, which are to exhibit at Pontiac, on Friday, Sept. 7, far surpasses any other similar organization in the number of wild beasts, amphibia, elephants, horses, performing animals, riders, aerialists, acrobats, clowns, leapers, charioteers, jockeys, great artists and glorious acts, and in quantity and quality of entertainment furnished for the ordinary price of admission. Among the most notable new prodigies introduced will be found Hassan Ali, the Egyptian giant, said to be the tallest man on earth, and for the past two years a big feature with the Barnum and Bailey show in London and Great Britain. The number of principal male and female bareback riders has been increased to nineteen; that of the clowns to twenty-five, and in the aerial and acrobatic departments the additions are proportionately large and brilliant. The grand double street parade has been made still more richly and uniquely attractive, and in every direction still greater effort has been made and greater outlay incurred to more than meet the popular demand for cheap, wholesome, stirring and hilarious entertainment.

Death of Clarence Louis Rabe.

The funeral services of Clarence Louis, only son of Clarence Parke and My Rabe, were held at the home on Ashland avenue, Chicago, August 22, Rev. Gale, of the Sacramento Ave. M. E. church, and M. By, Evangelist, officiating. The song service was rendered by Mrs. Baker and daughter, of the Marshall Ave. M. E. church. Six little flower girls, Misses Doratha Simmons, Doratha Alt, Magdalene Hopkins, Katie Shalk, Minnie Urbick and Lots Wood bore garlands of flowers to Mt. Greenwood, where by the side of a little brother who passed away a year ago, he was laid to rest.

A Narrow Escape.

About 2:30 Tuesday afternoon Dr. S. H. Potter was driving over the railroad crossing by the water tank when the right line broke near the horses head, and for a few minutes it looked as though a serious runaway would result. Doctor was very promptly at the bit however, and though an engine was coming toward them he restrained the horse, and getting over the crossing drove on his way rejoicing.
