Chicago Extends the Handshake of Welcome to the Grand Army of the Republic.

Public Duties Prevent President McKinley from Attending—Great Parade of Veterans and Grand Army Soldiers—Address of Commander Shaw—Other Proceedings.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—Chicago extended the handshake of welcome Sunday to the Grand Army of the Republic. The city greeted the great vanguard of the veterans, but the vast body of the still numerous though decreasing soldiers of the union is pouring in from all parts of the country.

President McKinley Will Not Be Here during the veterans' thirty-fourth reunion because of pressing public duties in Washington. He sent a message to the veterans of affectionate greeting and congratulations.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Mid lines of cheering thousands, under emblematic arches and fluttering ensigns of stars and stripes, the navy veterans of the '68 marched Monday, with escorts of honor, in their last great martial pageant of the waning century, across the years of which they have embraced so glorious a record.

Chicago, Aug. 29.—The second day of the Grand Army of the Republic encampment opened Tuesday morning with the formation of what is probably the largest parade of civil war veterans... witnessed in three decades.
