

DO YOU WANT A FARM?

DO YOU WANT A HOME?

Iowa! Iowa! Iowa!

Do You want a Good Farm Cheap?

We can sell you one in Iowa. We have Land in CENTRAL and NORTHWESTERN IOWA and in MINNESOTA. It will pay you to call on us before you buy.

Do You Want to Trade Your High Priced Land here for Land There?

See us if you do.

Romberger & Smith.

DO YOU WANT SOME INSURANCE?

DO YOU WANT TO BORROW 5 PER CENT MONEY?

DWIGHT,

ILLINOIS

SEPTEMBER—1900.

Calendar table for September 1900 with days of the week and dates.

Markets.

Dwight poultry market, furnished by Christensen & Brown, telephone 101. Spring chickens 8 cts. Hens 6 " Ducks 6 1/2 "

Fred Knudten was in Chicago Monday on business.

Everett Lewis was in Chicago on business, Monday.

Matt Farley, of Emington, was in Dwight over Sunday.

Miss Cora Higgins is visiting friends and relatives in Odell.

Mrs. F. E. Fenn was a Chicago visitor Tuesday of this week.

Dr. S. S. Smith and wife, of Reddick, were visiting in town Tuesday.

Knudten Bros. building looks fine with its new coat of paint and coping.

Miss Jessie Sherwood, of Hebron, Ind., is visiting Miss Stella Short this week.

Mr. Armstrong, of Seymour's drug store, is visiting in Pontiac a few days this week.

S. G. Gage and children, of Trinidad, Colorado, have been visiting the Fox family this week.

The Misses Hader and Tinsman, of Gardner, visited in Dwight Tuesday and attended the ball games.

Miss Britt, of Sedalia, Mo., assistant principal, returned last week and was a guest of Dr. and Mrs. Hamilton.

Miss Allie Bennett, of Fairbury, returned Saturday and will resume the primary work at the west side school.

Miss Florence Wright, of Lexington spent part of Tuesday, visiting friends. She was on her way to Bowling Green, Ohio.

Miss Lois Franklin left for El Paso Saturday, where she is engaged this year as assistant principal in the High School.

Charlie Adams was in Indiana on business this week.

Dr. E. R. Weat was in Marva, Ill., the first of the week.

John Mentzer, of Chicago, is baking for P. D. Weicker now.

Don't forget the excursion to St. Joe, Mich., on the 3-1 Sept. 15.

Miss Duffy, of Ocono, Wis., visited with Miss Lura Baker, Sunday.

Miss Louise Hagerty, of Peoria, is visiting relatives here this week.

Miss Lizzie Coughlin and Mrs. Burke of Pontiac, visited here Labor Day.

Quite an addition is being built on the rear of Reeder & Chester's store.

Advertised letters: Will Gebhardt, Miss Fannie Stewart, Mr. Nelson Roat.

Miss Lou Jensen, of Chicago, spent several days this week visiting friends and relatives.

We are indebted to Mr. Conant for some fine Michigan peaches from Dr. Ketcham's orchards.

Miss Julia Throckmorton, of Lafayette, Ind., was the guest of her sister Mrs. Frank Miller, this week.

Mrs. Arthur Marshall was a sufferer for several days, the effects of a fall from a broken board in the sidewalk.

For sale—A good second-hand single buggy and harness at a bargain for cash or on time. Inquire at this office.

Everyone attend the excursion to St. Joe, Mich., via the 3-1 on Saturday Sept. 15. A good time will be the result.

Miss Lou Miller returned to her home in Chicago, after a couple of weeks, visit with her sisters, Mesdames Reeb and Lower.

Charles Queedens, of Oklahoma, is visiting friends and relatives here this week. He says Oklahoma is booming and warm politically.

Mrs. B. F. Doughty, of St. Louis, and Misses Louise and Dora Kistingler, of Ransom, Ill., visited Mr. and Mrs. Knudten this week and last.

Mrs. Eldredge and granddaughter, Esther Mohr, was in town Wednesday visiting old friends. They were on their way to Normal, their home.

Miss Susie Leach, after a delightful nine week's visit with friends and relatives in Wisconsin, returned home Thursday evening accompanied by her uncle Wm. O' Allison.

Mrs. Gertrude Plank, of Wooster, Ohio, arrived in town last week and is a guest of Miss Fannie Connor. She will be High School assistant and instructor in music during the coming school year.

Mrs. Cronin was a Chicago visitor the first of the week.

R. J. Reid, was in Chicago on business the last of the week.

Mrs. Thole is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Simmons in South Bend, Ind.

Mrs. E. W. Evans, of N. Y., has been visiting her parents here this week.

Republican rally at Streator, September 11. Excursion rates by C. & A.

Dwight C. Morgan and family moved their home this week to Kansas City.

Mrs. Alexander McKay, of Pontiac, visited Dwight friends the first of this week.

Miss Mattie Johnson was a Pontiac visitor the last of the week and took in the circus.

Chas. Queedens, the barber, left for Joliet Thursday morning, where he will follow his profession.

Miss Grace Pagels left for Chicago the first of the week where she will visit for several weeks.

100 yd. dash before the games. Talk about ball, you surely will if you see Monday and Tuesday's games

M. W. Walsh, of Campus, was a Dwight visitor Labor Day and attended the ball games. He had company, of course.

Monday and Tuesday. Dwight tries the stick again next week and she will have to play hard. Everybody ought to see the games.

The Tuesday Night Literary club will hold their first meeting of the year Tuesday evening at 7:15 at the home of Miss Bessie Baker.

Mrs. Weldon and daughter Ada V. Weldon spent last week in Chicago and attended while there the Reunion of the 127th Ill. Regt. of which the late Thos. Weldon was a member.

John Smith was kicked by a horse Wednesday afternoon and an injured eye and arm is the result. A horse sled gets the best of John, and he will soon recover from his injuries.

Dr. E. R. Weat received some black bass from his brother in Chicago the last of last week. They were beauties and were caught during an outing on Eagle river, Wis. It is unnecessary to say the doctor and his friends had a fish dinner.

Following are the respective line-ups for the games next week: Ottawa—Fox, c.; Dunn, p.; McCarthy, 1 b.; Hunter, c. l.; Milan, r. f.; Philmore, s. s.; McMullen, l. f.; McCheske, 2d b.; Creed 3rd b. Dwight—Johnston, 3rd b.; Keeley, p.; Toney, r. f.; Smith, 2nd b.; McCarter, s. s.; Ketcham, 1 b.; Reeb, c.; Reel, l. f.; Brown, c. l.

Miss Agnes Buck returned from her trip to New York Thursday.

Roger Blaine, of St. Louis, was visiting Dwight friends the last of last week.

Henry Gantzer sold his 13 1/2 acres west of Dwight through Romberger & Smith.

Mrs. C. W. Purdon, of Detroit, Mich., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Simmons.

Rev. Harris purchased the O. C. Jensen property this week through Romberger & Smith.

Henry Seigert purchased the Joe Baker house on the east side through Romberger & Smith.

A nice lot of kegs and stone jugs of all sizes for molasses, cider or wine on hands.—Dr. W. L. Rabe.

Mrs. Lizzie Adams sold 160 acres in Kossuth county, Iowa, through Romberger & Smith this week.

Bert Losee, of Tuscola, Ill., who is an old "Hello" boy here, was visiting friends and relatives this week.

Dr. Cook, of Wilmington, visited Mrs. C. H. Barr Sunday, returning to Wilmington, his home, Monday.

Don't fail to attend the ball games and see the 100 yd. dash. Keeley, Johnston and other fast men will compete.

Mrs. Charles Adams and Miss Ella Baker are entertaining their cousins, Misses Mabel and Bessie Bonnell, of Chicago.

Mrs. J. H. White and daughter visited with Dwight friends and relatives the last of last week, returning to her home Sunday.

Ottawa Stars and Dwight, two big games Monday and Tuesday Sept. 10 and 11. Another chance to holler. Be there and holler first.

The band concert in the Keeley park last Saturday night was very entertaining. It gave residents a better chance to hear and the program introduced several new selections.

The sportsmen were all out after chickens Saturday, the first day the law was up for killing. They all succeeded very well. The editor is indebted to Robt. Orr for two fine prairie chickens.

Rev. Harris delivered two very strong sermons Sunday last. His remarks are decidedly practical and earnest, and they bear a convincing eloquence. His evening sermon on "Life" was full of instructive and deep argument, and the congregation was large and very attentive. Rev. Harris is a very interesting talker and his remarks are convincing.

Chas. D. McWilliams, is home from a pleasant visit to eastern summer resorts.

Ollie Crandall, of Streator, was at home visiting friends and relatives over Sunday.

Thos. E. Fullerton, of Ottawa, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. John P. McWilliams several days this week.

People who advertise and expect returns from the same should place their advertising in a paper of known circulation.

Will Leach was over from Peoria and visited friends and relatives Thursday and Friday of this week. He is looking well and says his parish is getting along nicely.

The swellest and the jolliest time of the season Monday and Tuesday. You should indulge. The race track and baseball. Ottawa stars will play Dwight.

Mr. Clark, the horseman, left this week with his fine string of horses for Des Moines Iowa, Indianapolis, Ind., and the Springfield fair the last week in this month.

Do you want good peaches? Order a bushel of Conant they are warranted to suit you from top to bottom and his price is right. Country orders solicited. Telephone No. 89.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm Herriek, superintendent of Morgan & Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Meyer, of Chicago, were the guests of C. M. Baker last week. While here they purchased fine teams of Mr. Clark.

Mr. Richard Yates was tendered a banquet at the Plumb House, in Streator, Thursday from 4 to 5 o'clock, and about 200 sat down to the tables. The reception was very creditable indeed, and one of the enjoyable kind that Streator republicans know how to give.

R. J. Strong, wife and child of Blue Rapids, Kansas, are guests of Frank Chester and family and Mrs. Strong this week. It is their first visit here for some time. Mr. Strong says times are good in Kansas, hundreds of thousands of dollars mortgages have been paid off and the safe is safely republican.

The old awning in front of the post office with the name of J. C. Lewis, jeweler, fell down the other day and came near injuring several by-standers. J. C. Lewis all right, but the old awning was an eye sore to the public and will be replaced by a decent one in the spring. It is quite probable that the window in the front door of the post office may be replaced by one bearing "Postoffice" instead of an advertisement, sometime.

Constipation is cured by Hood's Pills. 25c.

Three unfurnished rooms to rent. Inquire at this office.

For dyspepsia, constipation, etc., use Dr. Kay's Renovator. 25c and $1.

Invigorate and renovate system with Dr. Kay's Renovator. It has no equal.

Dyspepsia, constipation, liver and kidneys cured by Dr. Kay's Renovators.

A new sidewalk has been laid up to the crossing near Merritt Bros. elevator.

Weeds are pretty high in some parts of town. "Cut 'em down, cut 'em down."

Did you notice that work commenced on the streets after a recent issue of the STAR and HERALD.

City marshal, street commissioner, Patterson, has laid a new walk between the postoffice and the station.

If you intend to build it won't cost much to write to Frank A. Fox, Joliet, Ill., who will furnish drawings and figures free.

The most delicate and effective pills made are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They are unequalled for all liver and bowel troubles. Never gripe. A. K. Beltzhoover.

Your best friend can give you no better advice than this: "For impure blood, humors, scrofula, salt rheum, dyspepsia, weak nerves, tired feeling, rheumatism, malaria, catarrh, take Hood's Sarsaparilla and be cured."

You buy coal the whole year. We have the best hard and soft coal on the market, Brazil Block for domestic use Streator coal for threshing, the cheapest and most lasting. Clarke City coal the well known winner. Patronize Merritt Bros. & Co. 3-1 elevator, Dwight. a18

Notice

Anyone having a book account against me, and does not notify me within 30 days, I will not be willing to pay for it.

G. B. KRUG, Dwight, Ill

Confirmation at St. Paul's Church.

Confirmation at St. Paul's Church. A large audience assembled at St. Paul's church at 10 a. m. Tuesday morning to witness the confirmation of about 100 children. The ceremony was conducted by bishop Spaulding assisted by Father Griffy. Bishop Spaulding questioned each one individually before the confirming ceremony, and spoke for a half hour exhorting them to be temperate and honest. The Bishop's speech made a very favorable impression on the congregation present.