EIGHT LOSE THEIR LIVES.

A Cyclone at Morristown, Minn., Does Great Damage to Property and Kills Citizens.

THE TORNADO CAME WITHOUT WARNING

Brick Building Used as a Saloon Crushed Like an Eggshell--All Those Killed Were in the Structure--Everything Storm Touched Was Completely Wrecked.

Fairbault, Minn., Sept. 25.—The village of Morristown, 12 miles west of here, was visited by a cyclone shortly after five o'clock Monday afternoon. Besides destroying several buildings eight persons were killed. The storm came without warning from a south-westerly direction, passing over to the northeast. The length of its path in the village was less than a half mile, and owing to its peculiar action the distress and damage resulting were not as great as might have been. The storm made jumps of one block, but whenever it came down everything was crumpled by the power of the wind. The barn belonging to Dr. Dargabel on the outskirts of the village was the first structure destroyed. The barn was picked up and carried a block, leaving the floor injured with two horses standing on it. The building was crushed.

Eight Killed.
From here the storm jumped a block to the saloon of Paul Gatzke. Before reaching the Gatzke saloon there is a two-story building, which was left untouched. All the killed and injured in Morristown were in the saloon, having hurriedly taken refuge there when the storm was seen on the outskirts of the village. There were 16 in the structure at the time the storm struck. The building was raised from its foundation and crushed like an egg-shell. Before the building fell three men managed to escape, but the others are found in the lists of dead and injured.
The killed are: Jake Miller, Jake Weaver, Jr.; Frank Pitman, of Waterville; Otto Gatzke, John Rohrer, Jr.; Elmer Brooks, J. S. Waite, Frank Wilder. The injured are: Paul Gatzke, Porter White, Lewis Pitman, Jr.

Other Buildings Wrecked.
Many other buildings in the village were wrecked. Telegraph poles were blown down, and the wires broken, making it impossible to receive details of the catastrophe by telegraph. Whole families are missing, and search is being made in the darkness through the debris for them. It is estimated that 100 buildings were destroyed, and from the country come reports of loss of life and great destruction to property.

Third Disaster This Year.
Morristown is on the Chicago Great Western railroad, in the southern part of this state, and was a thriving village of about 500 inhabitants. This is the third disaster that has visited the town this year. In February the entire business district was destroyed by fire, and among the structures rebuilt was the saloon of Gatzke. The village was visited by another fire in May, which did a damage amounting to $10,000.

May Release Many.
Joliet, Ill., Sept. 27.—The ruling of Judge Haney, of Chicago, who released Joseph Wyman, a Cook county life convict, on a technicality, may have a sensational effect. Warden Murphy, of the state penitentiary, declared that if the ruling was sustained over 700 convicts could secure their freedom. The judge held the Wyman mittimus void because it did not specifically state the crime for which he was convicted. The majority of mittimuses at the penitentiary are of the same form. Fifty-four life convicts are included among those affected.

Business Houses Burned.
Omer, Mich., Sept. 25.—The business portion of this village was practically destroyed by fire early in the day. The hotel, two drug stores, a saloon, furniture, hardware and jewelry stores, a photograph gallery, the post office and eight residences were burned. Losses about $50,000, with light insurance. The town has no fire protection.

Winter in Wyoming.
Evansston, Wyo., Sept. 27.—All the country between Granger and Evansston, Wyo., is covered with about five inches of snow on the level. Cattlemen fear that this early fall of snow means a hard and long winter, and are preparing for a siege.

Return to United States.
New York, Sept. 26.—Irving B. Dudley, United States minister to Peru, and H. B. Guder, United States consul at Panama, were passengers on board the steamer Advance, which arrived here from Colon.
Passed Away.
Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 27.—George F. Drew, the first democratic governor of Florida after the war, died at his home here, aged 73 years. Two hours before his death his wife passed away.

Shortage in the Tea Crop.
San Francisco, Sept. 27.—The shortage in the Japanese tea crop this season is estimated by experts here at 4,400,000 pounds, and prices have already advanced from 10 to 25 per cent.
Post Office Robbed.
Houghton, Mich., Sept. 26.—Burglars blew open the safe of the Hancock post office Monday night, securing about $500 in cash and some registered letters.

Consumption
is, by no means, the dreadful disease it is thought to be—in the beginning.
It can always be stopped—in the beginning. The trouble is: you don't know you've got it; you don't believe it; you won't believe it—till you are forced to. Then it is dangerous.

Don't be afraid; but attend to it quick—you can do it yourself and at home.
