John Young, of Pontiac, visited Dwight friends Sunday. E. Feehers, of Campus, was a Dwight visitor the first of the week. A new sidewalk has been laid in front of C. R. Smith's livery stable. Rev. Wright, editor of the Lexington Unit was in town Wednesday. Henry Crandall visited the Corn Carnival in Peoria the first of the week. Miss Flavia Reel was a Campus visitor last week and attended the rally. Lost—A nose glass in black case. Finder please return to Mrs. C. A. Cooke. Mrs. Childers, who has been visiting her father, returned to her home Tuesday. Miss Martha Eubrick, of Wilmington visited her father and brother, this week. A new sidewalk has been laid from Christensen & Brown's store to the street corner. The Methodist supper Thursday night was well attended and a success in every respect. See the political table in this issue. Fill it out and see what kind of a prognosticator you are. Suitable reward paid for return of a black overcoat lost east of Dwight, to postoffice or printing office. Look out for the "gussing table" in this issue. Try it to get the STAR AND HERALD for a year free. Mrs. Croker, was called to Chicago, last week, Saturday because of the sudden death, of her brother.

Send in your guesses on the results of election. Mrs. Geo. Martin and Wm. Martin returned Tuesday. Daniel Reel, of Gardner, visited his parents this week. Robert Gorman, of Campus, was in Dwight this week. Miss Lou Pearce, is in Chicago visiting friends, this week. Mrs. Moff, sister of Mrs. Weese, visited at Joliet, this week. Mrs. Sammons and son, Duane, visited in Joliet, this week. Will Davis was in town, for a short while the first of the week. Miss Sadie Miller returned Saturday from a visit with friends in Athens. Miss Florence Trumbull has returned from a two weeks visit with relatives in South Bend. Advertiser Letters: Mr. Ed M. Hoffman, A. P. Coary, Mrs. Annis Jackson, John L. Weimer. Lost—East side of Dwight Oct. 3, a red plush purse. Finder please return to this office and receive reward.—Wm. Cuttill, Odell, Ill. The Rathbone Sisters gave a very fine dancing party Wednesday evening at the Mazon. There was a good attendance, good music, and everyone present enjoyed the occasion greatly. Mrs. Eliza Rhinehart, visited her son, Martin, last week. She is a bright, active, old lady, despite her eighty-two years, and it was a delightful visit for all those concerned. He has not visited here for several years. At family worship in the Congregational church next Sunday morning the pastor will discuss "The New Expression of God's Thought." At the evening service, "Christ and the Good Young Man," will be the theme. Rev. S. A. Harris attended the Central Association of Congregational Churches at Odell this week. This is Mr. Harris' first meeting with this association and they were mutually pleased. Rev. Editor F. F. Wright was also present. An Iroquois county farmer lost a cow in a very peculiar manner one night last week. The animal got out of the barn and into the summer kitchen where she found and swallowed an old umbrella and a cake of yeast. The yeast fermented in the poor beast's stomach raised the umbrella and she died in horrible agony from expansion. The anti-expansionists of that county consider this example a knockout blow to expansion and think Bryan will win now.

Miss Edith Welch, visited in Washington, Sunday. Mr. O. C. Bennett, of Chicago, visited friends Sunday. Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Barr were in Chicago Wednesday. P. L. Evans, was in Pontiac, Saturday of last week. John Doher and Max Miller spent Sunday in Chicago. T. Stanley, was a Pontiac visitor, the first of the week. Girl wanted for general work at the Pennsylvania House. Lessons given in all kinds of art needle work.—M. S. A. Boyk. Burdette Barrett, of Gardner, visited Dwight friends this week. Dr. E. R. Weart, was in South Bend, visiting the Gregory family, Sunday. Stella Short attended the Corn Carnival at Peoria last Monday and Tuesday. P. D. Weicker's new sign is a beauty and has attracted considerable attention. Frank Stevens and wife, of Kansas, are visiting old friends, in Dwight this week. Dr. M. Golding can be found at the Pennsylvania House for a few days next week. Mrs. Kate G. Holtz, of Oregon, Mo., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. M. Thompson and other relatives. The towns between Dwight and Streator, attended the rally at Streator Monday, generously. About forty of the Danish Lutheran congregation, of Chicago and Dwight, were here Monday morning, returning from a district meeting, at Clay Creek, Ill. Rich, Warm, Healthy blood is given by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and thus it protects the system from colds, fevers, pneumonia and other diseases that quickly overcome a weak and debilitated system. The turnout to Streator Monday was very good, many going on the morning train on the 3-1 and others accompanying the marching club on the C & A evening train. Over 200 tickets were sold in Dwight. Capt. Eugene May and wife, of New Orleans, La., were visitors at the Dwight stock farm on Monday of this week. He owns the famous Dr. K. that was raised by Mr. J. R. Oughton and schooled by J. M. Clark. Mr. May is very proud of his horse and was anxious to meet both Mr. Oughton and Clark. He is the leading druggist in New Orleans and a genial fellow.

The favorite cathartic is Hood's Pills. Walter Hennessy was in Streator this week. Miss Pauline Fox was in Odell Wednesday. Boy wanted at this office. Steady to right boy. Mr. Riecke, of Reddick, was a Dwight visitor Tuesday. Ralph Harris was in Chicago, the first of the week. J. W. Simmons, of Lacon, visited in Dwight Tuesday. Cooke was in Chicago on business the first of the week. Miss Emma Barr and Dr. E. R. Weart spent Sunday in South Bend. Our advertising columns are full of interest to every reader of this paper. Let them over. R. H. Gould went to Chicago Thursday at 4:15 accompanied by some of the members of his family and Dr. Reynolds, where he had an operation performed for gall stones. The operation was successful and Mr. Gould is doing nicely and will be home in ten days or two weeks. REAL ESTATE IS GOING. Romberger & Smith sold 1250 acres on their last trip to Iowa. Mr. Bosworth, south west of Odell, sold his eighty through Romberger & Smith. Mr. Wheatland, of Nevada Township, sold his farm of 100 acres through Romberger & Smith. Chas. P. Hoey sold his farm of eighty acres through Romberger & Smith. Geo. Bush purchased 160 acres in Clay County, Ia., through Romberger & Smith. M. R. Keeley purchased 960 acres last week in Clay County, Ia., through Romberger & Smith. John Baker handled 190 acres in Hancock County the past week for Romberger & Smith. Geo. Van Vleet sold his farm of eighty acres in Goodfarm Township for $101 an acre through Romberger & Smith. Romberger & Smith made three trips to Iowa this fall and sold 4108 acres. They have bargains left. M. R. Keeley disposed of 160 acres of Illinois land this week through Romberger & Smith.

Railroad News. Robert Airey is on 90 and 91 again. Ralph Weston of 92 and 93 is taking a vacation. A new time card is to go into effect tomorrow. Will's E. Gray, Supt. of the J. & A. was in town Thursday. Charles Honish has returned to his engine after a two week vacation. George Goodman is taking a two weeks visit in Chicago and other points. Sam Wilkinson very nearly had a serious accident at Peoria Tuesday evening. His engine was on the table at the round house and while he was carrying a pail of hot water up into the engine cab he slipped and fell from the cab to the brick under the table, the fall shoving his arm into the water. He was severely shaken up and was lucky considering the way he fell to have sustained no worse injury. His arm pains him both from the falling and the hot water. Married. Miss Catherine Sands and James Hanlon, both of this place were married in Joliet Wednesday, Oct. 10, at the home of the brides relatives. The bride and groom are well known in Dwight and are both given many best wishes by their many friends. The marriage service occurred at 1 p. m. Rev. Father Namee, of St. Mary's church officiating. Mr. John Hanlon accompanied the groom as best man and a dainty supper was served at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Anna Geegan. Teachers Institute. A teachers meeting was held at Dwight, last Saturday. The attendance was not large, but the meeting was very good. Mrs. Marden gave a talk on Drawing and showed some of the work done by the pupils of the public school, this talk was very much appreciated by the teachers present. Mrs. Vaughan of Pontiac, gave a talk on Music. The new text books, were discussed in an informal way by the teachers present, and some short talks were made on school decoration. The Arion Lady Quartet, Tuesday evening, Oct. 9, the Arion Lady Quartet, entertained a good audience at the Congregational church, and with the apple use which follows them on all their engagements; their mellows voices and the harmony of their singing together with bright and pianissimo renditions made the entertainment a real treat.

BURIED IN ONE GRAVE. Closing Scene of the Tragedy Which Wiped Out the Family of Capt. Corrigan. Cleveland, O., Oct. 10.—The bodies of the wife, three daughters, granddaughter and niece of Capt. James Corrigan were lowered together into one large grave in Lakeview cemetery, Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Dr. Sprecher, of the Euclid Avenue Presbyterian church, conducted the services. On July 7, the schooner yacht Idler, owned by Capt. Corrigan, Jane Corrigan and Ida Corrigan, Jane Corrigan and Mrs. Rieley, her daughter, and baby Rieley, were drowned. The last of the bodies was recovered only a few days ago. Miss Mabelle Hall, a niece of Capt. Corrigan, and a beloved inmate of his home, died within the last week and she was buried with the victims of the wreck. SPECIAL SESSION MEETS. Michigan Legislature Called to Order at Lansing—Message of Gov. Pingree. Lansing, Mich., Oct. 11.—Michigan's legislature called in extra session by Gov. Pingree to enact a constitutional amendment providing for the repeal of the special charters granted to the Michigan Central and all other railroads operating in the state. Wednesday night listened to the reading of the governor's message on the subject. He strongly urged the repeal of the charters, declaring that they were illegally granted in the first instance, and arguing that in the event of damages being sought every year of delay would add to such damages. He declared that the people generally demanded the repeal and that both political party platforms favored it. BETRAYED HIS TRUST. Bank Clerk Robs an Elizabethport, N. J., Institution of $108,000.—He Is a Fugitive. New York, Oct. 10.—Charged with having stolen from the Elizabethport Banking company of Elizabethport, N. J., nearly $108,000, William Schreiber, utility clerk, 26 years old, has disappeared. Frederick Heidritter, president of the banking company, and its counsel, ex-Judge H. P. Gilhooly, came to this city to make efforts to recover $20,000 worth of diamonds and other valuables which the clerk is said to have lavished upon a young woman living here. Although the young man had been abstracting money from the bank for several years, his employees say that he accomplished his thefts so cleverly as even to deceive a state bank examiner.
