

Iowa! Iowa! Iowa!

Do You Want to Buy?

Sept. 4th, First Excursion, Sold 1628 Acres.
Sept. 18th, Second " " " 1200 "
Oct. 2nd, Third " " " 1280 "
Total - - - - 4108 "

We have Bargains left.

ILLINOIS! ILLINOIS!

August 2, to date, 2311 Acres.

We have some rare Bargains here in the vicinity of Dwight in 80, 160, 240 acre tracts.

IOWA, - 4108
ILLINOIS, 2311
Total - 6419

ROMBERGER & SMITH,

DWIGHT,

ILLINOIS

OCTOBER—1900.

Sun.	Mon.	Tue.	Wed.	Thur.	Fri.	Sat.
...	1	2	3	4	5	6
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
28	29	30	31

Dwight.

Old papers for sale at this office.

Oscar Mulford visited in Streator, Sunday.

Everett Lewis was a Chicago visitor, Sunday.

Lois Franklin visited at home over Sunday.

A new partition was put in Kern's market this week.

Mr. J. B. Parsons was in town between trains last week.

Miss Jennie Thole, visited friends in Chicago Saturday.

John Thompson was in Pontiac, on business Wednesday.

Lost—Red kid glove. Finder please leave at this office.

Charley Cook, of Union Hill, was a Dwight visitor this week.

Clarence Finch and wife, of Varona, was in town Wednesday.

H. K. Marlow, of Pontiac, is assisting at the local telephone office.

Mr. Hodgman has started his new house in Reurfrew addition.

Herschel Hagerty now wears a star making him railroad police.

See, hear, and enjoy McIlraths, Congregational church, Nov. 6.

Mr. Lambert returned from Fairbury, the first of the week.

Grace O'Connor, of Chicago, is visiting her uncle, George Mullen.

Mr. Graves, of Pontiac, was in town, Tuesday on telephone business.

Mr. Groll of the U. S. express Co. was a Chicago visitor, Sunday.

Miss Emma Barr, spent Saturday and Sunday, of last week in Chicago.

M. J. Dunn has completed his new house, and is now occupying it.

Mrs. Will Ketcham, went to Chicago Tuesday, to remain for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weston, were Streator visitors, Saturday and Sunday.

The McIlraths—see, hear and enjoy them. Congregational church, Nov. 6.

Miss Mattie Johnson has taken Mables place at the telephone office, and Weicker is also one of the operators.

Chas. Patterson is getting along nicely, and makes frequent trips up town, and expects to get along without the crutch soon.

Dr. J. W. Calvert, of Pekin, has purchased my practice and will continue homeopathic practice from my late residence.

There will be services at the M. E. church, in Reddick, next Sunday at 2:30, in German. All invited. Rev. G. Wickenfus, of Dwight, will preach.

John Uselding, was a Dwight visitor, Monday for a short while. He has been in Wisconsin, recently, and reports everything booming up there.

Mr. Carter, of Forrest, was a Dwight visitor last Saturday. He is the democratic candidate for circuit clerk, but not in it for a minute with Ras Hoobler.

A. A. Boyer is now superintendent, of the local telephone system. He has already made arrangements to receive election news the night of election, and will furnish them to the committees.

Gorden Bros. bargain sale which appeared in this page add, last week, still continues and you should take advantage of it while it lasts. Don't fail to attend it for the next 30 days.

Extensive improvements are being made in the sanitary conditions of the Livingston Hotel, and the office will be thoroughly renovated and steel ceiling put in and general improvements made.

A young couple in Streator by the name of Graves and Marble were married last week. The names would indicate a dismal, cemetery like proposition but they are probably just as happy as anyone.

The front of the McWilliams store, will present a very neat appearance when the painting is completed. The brick is to be stenciled, and the girders bronzed, and the front otherwise improved.

Earnest Seymour came home Saturday night at 11:30, and Roy arrived at 2:30 Sunday, and Eugene came from North Dakota as quickly as possible, but to late for the funeral of their father.

Dr. Bergman, has sold his business, to Dr. Calvert, of Pekin, Ill., and will remove to Joliet, which he hopes to make his home. He leaves a community with which he had become identified and of which he had become a part.

Thomas Gibbons, of Chicago, visited the Gibbons family this week.

Miss Florence Battise, of Carlinville, visited Mrs. Lee, Sunday.

Wm. Roeder, was in Chicago, on business, the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Baker, of Chicago, were Dwight visitors, Saturday.

Mrs. C. W. Beecher, of university Place, Neb., is visiting Mrs. Chas. Drew.

Mr. Graham, began painting the buildings, on Mr. Judd's farm the last of the week.

Mrs. M. L. Merritt, and son, left for a two weeks visit in Lostant, Wednesday.

Reeder & Chester, have added a new scale to their store, and is a fine one.

For Sale—A very fine Polan-China stock hog, 8 months old.—A. B. Conant.

The only real treat of the season, the McIlraths, Congregational church, Nov. 6.

The Isaac Baker property on East street is painted and looks much improved.

Mrs. Chas. Myers (nee Addie Barr) spent several days in Chicago, this week.

A. J. Diefenbach and Ed. Reeb the granite man, were Herscher visitors Thursday.

Night watchman Perry was sick several days this week and was obliged to lay off.

M. L. Clark and family, of Grand Ridge, Ill., visited Chas. Drew and wife, Sunday.

Major C. J. Judd, and J. R. Oughton, returned Monday from a fishing trip to Wisconsin.

Mrs. Myron Wood, was taken sick Friday of last week, but is better at this writing.

Mrs. Evans and Meyers, returned to the former's home, Monday on account of her illness.

Mrs. J. W. Dace, of Winchester, Ill., is visiting friends and relatives here this week.

Mr. Len I. Emerick, (2) Mr. L. A. Wright, J. W. Watkins, N. Hornicle, M. L. Bremer, (p. c.).

Chas. and West Drew, were at Manhattan, last week Saturday attending the wedding of a friend.

A new plumbing is being done in the treatment hall, up to date system being put in, in every respect.

Ladies combs, hair pins, etc. to close out at cost. Children school hats closing at 15cts. each.—Mrs. C. A. Cooke.

Passenger trains No's. 9 and 10 will not be run hereafter on the 3-1 road Sundays.

The badges of the McKinley girls, of the Dwight schools are very evident and numerous. They are proud of the color, and the man it represents.

Dr. J. B. Baker, of Pontiac, candidate for coroner on the democratic ticket, was in Dwight Saturday. Doc would make a good coroner, and is all right, but unfortunately he's on the wrong side.

Committeemen J. R. Oughton, and Col. F. L. Smith, attended a meeting of the republican county central committee Tuesday. Reports from the different sections of the county indicate an increased majority for 1896, when the county gave McKinley a plurality of 1371.

Dr. H. C. Neff, the famous specialist on chronic diseases will not be able to visit Dwight, Friday, but will be in Streator on that day, at the Plumb house, where all may consult him free of charge, Dr. Niff has enough confidence in his ability, to let you pay when cured.

The members of the Grand Army and their wives, will attend the M. E. church Sunday evening and hear Comrade Morgan, the new minister. The old soldiers will meet at their hall at 7 p. m. and the soldiers wives are requested to meet with them and march to the church.

Mr. W. A. Judd, of Dixon, Ill., is a guest of his cousin, Curtis J. Judd. Mr. Judd represents one of the prosperous residents of Dixon, arriving from Mass., when the transportation lines consisted of the Erie canal lakes—Illinois canal to Peru, and wagon to Dixon with less than three hundred inhabitants.

Last week, Friday night, the Oriental degree was given to about a dozen candidates at the Odd Fellows hall, and judging from all reports the proceedings were very interesting. The Oriental degree can be conferred on the members of any secret organization, and several of those initiated last Friday night, were from Streator camps.

Senator R. B. Fort, of Lacon, was in Dwight yesterday afternoon and saw quite a number of our people. He is a candidate for re-election and the prospects are excellent for his carrying the district by a larger majority than in 1896, when he had over 1,500. He is a son of the late Congressman Fort, makes a good record and is fully entitled to every republican vote in the district. Mr. Mallory, of Lacon, was in Dwight Friday night.

Horse Sale.
J. M. Clark has advertised a big sale of the rough-bred horses, to take place Nov. 15, which includes some of the best horses in the country.
For further particulars see ad. on second page.

Hear! Hear!
Vividly illustrated lecture of China and their bicycle tour of the world, by the McIlraths, at the Congregational Church Nov. 6. These entertainments have been honored all over the world, they will not give you worn-out descriptions, but their lecture and illustrations will be about the latest that is of interest to you. Take it in.

Real Estate Is Going.
Mr. Alonzo Hawkins, purchased 500 acres, near Herscher, Ills., through Romberger & Smith.
John Peterson purchased the 80 acres formerly owned by Mr. Hoeg of Romberger & Smith.
Romberger & Smith, sold 320 acres in Iowa to Livingston county parties this week.
We have on our lists several 160 acres tracts in this county. Terms and prices to suit.—Romberger & Smith.
Wm. Jolleran, purchased 80 acres north west of Odell this week, through the Romberger & Smith agency.

Obituary.
Mrs. Charlotte Dinmore was born near Buffalo, New York, May 8th 1833. Died Oct. 6th, 1900 at her home in Greensburg, Kansas. Aged 67 years, 5 months and 1 day. On Dec. 25, 1850 she was married to Wm. C. Dinmore, who survives her. Of this union were born ten children, five of whom are now living, one son is at Cape Nome, Alaska; a son and a daughter in Texas; a daughter in Minnesota; while Hattie the youngest child has remained at home caring for her father and mother.
Mrs. Dinmore was always a good wife, mother and neighbor; honest, industrious and economical. For years she had been an almost constant sufferer and death was a welcome release. She said when on her death-bed, "Years ago I gave my heart to God and am ready to go." She was conscious to the last and repeatedly gave expression to her faith and trust. Truly she could say with the Psalmist, "Though I walk through the valley and the shadow of death I will fear no evil for Thou art with me.—The Kiowa County Signal, Greensburg, Kansas.
The deceased is a sister of Mrs. Emple, of Dwight.

Election Ball.
Nov. 6, at the Mazon Hall a big dance will be given and everybody can dance to the election returns. Smith's orchestra will play.

For Thanksgiving Day.
A rate of one fare and a third for the round trip has been authorized to points within 150 miles, on the Nickel Plate road, Chicago Passenger Station, Van Buren and Pacific Ave., on the Loop. City Ticket Office 111 Adams St.

Notice.
As I expect to leave Dwight in a few days, I would appreciate a settlement of all accounts as early as possible.
I have household goods, and furniture for sale, hard coal heating stoves, and gasoline stove.
DR. N. BERGMAN.

Dunn-Dowling.
Married at the Catholic church Wednesday, Oct. 24, by Rev. M. P. O'Brien, Mr. Edward J. Dowling, of Chenoa, and Miss Mary A. Dunn, of Dwight. The bridesmaid was Miss Lizzie Neville, and the groomsmen, Mr. John Dunn, brother of the bride.
The bride is a well-known popular young lady of this place, and the groom is a popular young man of our neighboring city, Chenoa.
Mr. and Mrs. Dowling received the congratulations of all, and will take up their residence at Chenoa.

Johnson-Young.
Miss Mable J. Johnson of Dwight and Mr. John L. Young of Pontiac, were united in marriage Wednesday, at 1 p. m., at the home of the bride's parents, by the Rev. E. F. Wright, of Lexington, former pastor of the congregational church here.
It was a very quiet wedding, only immediate relatives and a few special friends being present. The bride was attired in a light gray, tailor-made traveling suit and the groom wore the conventional black. Immediately after the ceremony a splendid dinner was served. They were the recipients of many beautiful gifts.
The bride is a very popular and well known young lady and will be greatly missed by her many friends. The groom is a prosperous business man in Pontiac.
The couple left on the 2 o'clock train, amid showers of rice, for Chicago and from there will go to Cincinnati for a short wedding trip, after which they will go to housekeeping in Pontiac.