

Iowa Land.

Illinois Land.

ROMBERGER & SMITH.

Indiana Land.

Minnesota Land.

DWIGHT,

ILLINOIS

VICTORY

MCKINLEY.

Dwight.

Old papers for sale at this office.
S. T. K. Prime was in Dwight Tuesday.
Mr. Morris was a Chicago visitor Monday.
The quail hunters were out in force this week.
I want several fresh cows. Address G. L. Taylor.
H. P. Parker, of Chicago, was home Tuesday to vote.
Elmer Fenn, of Bloomington, came up and voted Tuesday.
Chas. Terry and Oscar Payton, were Chicago visitor Sundays.
Vote early next Tuesday. Polls open at 7 a. m. and close sharp at 5.
C. L. Romberger and Major C. J. Judd went to Chicago Tuesday p. m.
Ladies combs, hair pins, etc. to close out at cost. Children school hats closing at 15cts. each.—Mrs. C. A. Cooke.
Walter Scott and his tilters who are working on James Brown's farms in Indiana, came home to vote Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Emery, are now moved into their new home on Mazon Avenue, Mrs. Emery having arrived here Tuesday.
James Forbes, foreman of THE STAR AND HERALD office, went to his home in Michigan City, Ind., to visit relatives and cast his vote.
Frank Kneeland and Build Seymour went to Champaign to resume school work after doing their duty to their country Tuesday.
Last week Friday, William Geis got a large silver in his right hand in such a way as to tear one of the muscles and the swelling and pain was considerable.
In the account of the Quedens-Graham wedding last week, Rev. Wootenruss and not Father O'Brien, should have been reported as officiating.

Wm. Chester spent Sunday in Chicago.
Mrs. Gertie Kaylor went to Chicago Tuesday.
Mike Holleran visited in Chicago Sunday.
Mr. Cass, of Bloomington, visited here Sunday.
Mr. Farley was in Manteno, the first of the week.
Miss Nellie McWilliams went to Chicago Tuesday.
Misses Ella and Addie Fenn, spent Sunday in Chicago.
Mr. S. Bloom was in Chicago on business the first of the week.
Iva Martin who has been visiting in Chicago, returned Sunday.
Henry Crandall and Roy Wheatley, were Chicago visitors Sunday.
Dr. H. E. Lehr, visited his mother in Springfield, the first of this week.
Mrs. M. L. Merritt and son, returned from their visit last week, Friday.
Mrs. Cavanaugh, of Chicago, visited Mrs. Saltzer, a few days this week.
Rev. and Mrs. Bowers, were Lexington visitors last Saturday and Sunday.
For Sale—A good business centrally located, for sale at a bargain.—H. & A.
Mrs. Jno. Young, of Pontiac, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zed Johnson.
Mrs. Dr. Barr and daughter, Lella, were Chicago visitors the first of the week.
Miss Mary Gilbert reader and violinist will be at the M. E. church, Nov. 29, and 30.
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Harrington, of Springfield, Ill., visited with his family here Sunday.
Miss Louise McWilliams returned from an extended trip in the East, Monday evening.
Mr. Weber was in town, the first of the week, looking up friends and acquaintances.
Mrs. Edward Reeb returned Sunday, from a very pleasant visit of two weeks with her sisters, in Chicago.
If you put a cross in the first ring on the left of your ticket next Tuesday you'll make no mistake.
Walking hats formerly selling for $1.50 closing for $1.25, those formerly $1.25 for $1.—Mrs. E. Fenn.
Died of acute paralysis, Thursday Nov. 1, 1900, Harold, only son of Wm. and Susan Nichols, aged 5 years, 1 mo. and 11 days. Funeral services held in the M. E. church, at Campus by the Rev. Mr. DeFua Gardie, interment in Round Grove cemetery.

F. A. Thole went to Chicago Wednesday.
Miss Lou Jones, of Gardner, was in town Wednesday.
G. E. Conaway, of Nevada, was in town Wednesday.
W. G. Short was in Kankakee on business Tuesday.
Edward Reeb was in Streator on business this week.
Mrs. Chas. Adams has returned from a weeks visit in the city.
Mrs. Chas. Waters is spending a couple weeks in Joliet.
Nick Loffmark, after a serious illness, is able to be out again.
Mrs. C. M. Baker left Thursday for a visit in Chicago and Missouri.
John Morrison, of Bloomington, called on friends Tuesday evening.
Mr. Adam Pooley, of Braidwood, visited friends and relatives here last week.
Miss Clara Griffith, of Chicago, is visiting friends and relatives in town a few days this week.
Flagler & Potter, have gotten the contract to put in a 20th century furnace at Springfield.
Mr. John Stewart has the foundation of his house in, and is beginning to build the superstructure.
The office of the Livingston Hotel, is being improved, and the entire interior of it remodeled in an up-to-date manner.
We have a fine farm of 212 acres one mile from Dwight for sale on easy payments or will trade you for land around Dwight.—Romberger & Smith.
Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Davis, entertained Rev. Morgan and wife, Col. Fox and wife, P. E. Miller and wife, John Stewart and wife, at a very pleasant dinner party Tuesday.
Lost—A ladies silver stick pin of three bangles, on one side of bangles the initials H. M. M. and on the other side the date 1893. Finder will please return to Hattie M. Morris.
Account Thanksgiving Day Holiday Indiana Illinois & Iowa will sell tickets at fare of one and one third one way rate for the round trip between all stations. Tickets on sale Nov. 28 and 29, good returning including Nov. 30, 1900.—S. W. McCune, Agent.
Rev. A. N. Hitchcock occupied the pulpit at the Congregational church last Sunday as secretary of the Foreign Board of Missions, his two sermons were concerning the missionary work. The collection taken for the missionary fund amounted to $228.2. At the Saturday meeting $15 was collected.

Misses Steichen visited in the country Sunday.
Mr. Lambert and family moved to Fairbury this week.
Agnes Reinmiller is now improving rapidly. She spent her summer in the country.
A. Whitaker purchased 160 acres in Indiana this week through Romberger & Smith.
Miss Sarah Buren has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. McCormick, the past two weeks.
Advertised Letters: Martin Nally, W. E. Huffman, Herman Gackley, Mrs. Herman Myers.
Joseph Ribody sold his farm in Union township this week through Romberger & Smith.
Miss Raney, teacher of District No. 3, Round Grove, stopped in Dwight a few hours Thursday on her return to Lostant.
We have a beautiful residence in Dwight, cost $8,000 that we will sell for $3,500. Come quick and see us about it.—Romberger & Smith.
P. D. Weicker has added a brand new show case and lunch counter in his bakery and they are beauties. Phil is continually branching out and offering the public better opportunities to enjoy themselves.
Low rate excursion to St. Louis, Saturday, Nov. 17, $2.50, round trip. Tickets good going only on special train leaving Dwight, 6:20 a. m. arriving St. Louis, 1:30 p. m. Saturday, returning good only on special train leaving St. Louis 7 p. m. Sunday, Nov. 18.
Miss Cora Adams entertained a few of her friends at cards Thursday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. At the conclusion of the game, light refreshments were served. Those present were Mesdames Chas. Adams, Everett Lewis, Edward Reeb, F. A. Thole, Bert Adams, Chas. Myers, Crandall and Chas. Lee.
Oklahoma is red-hot on the trail of Kansas in the race for the freak story prize. The latest offering tells of Mr. Smith's cow eating two bushels of apples, and when Mrs. Smith churned she got seven pounds and a quarter of apple butter.
Wm. H. Bradbury died Nov. 3, Saturday, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. W. Grant, Los Vegas, N. M., of bright's disease. The funeral was held at Topeka, his home, Tuesday Nov. 6. Mr. Bradbury is an old and respected citizen of Dwight, and the STAR AND HERALD will publish an extended obituary next week. He was a soldier during the war in the 129th Ill. volunteers.

Mike Kime is home after an extended business trip to Indiana.
Everyone will be pleased to know that Rev. Woolley is getting along nicely in his new home in Milford. The Milford Herald has the following to say of him: "Rev. Woolley is busily engaged in making pastoral calls, and getting acquainted. His people are very much pleased with his sociabilities and excellent sermons." Mrs. Woolley's health is about the same, and accompanied by Walter Woolley she will soon go to California for the winter.
The editor is indebted to David McWilliams for a handsomely bound volume of the proceedings of the convention which organized the republican party, held May 29, 1856, in Bloomington. The work was recently published by The McLane County Historical Society and contains much valuable information. Recently the historical society celebrated the anniversary and quite a number of the original members of the convention were present, and the work also contains the proceedings of that meeting, which are very interesting indeed.
Odell Blowout.
The republican rally at Odell last Saturday night was a big one. There were 315 tickets sold from Dwight. Hon. Ed. O'Connell, of Bloomington, was the speaker.
Rathbone Sister's Supper.
The supper at Kepplinger's Hall Tuesday night, given by the Rathbone Sisters was a big success, the tables being patronized generally throughout the evening.
Killed at Tool House.
Geo. Warner, of Joliet, brakeman on train 90 and 91 of the C. & A. branch was killed about 2:40 a. m. yesterday near Bagnell's tool house, but as to how his death occurred no one is positive. He had exchanged runs with another brakeman and expected to go to Joliet. His remains were taken to the station and cared for, and sent to his home in Joliet.
The McIlraths.
At the Congregational Church Tuesday night the McIlraths gave a descriptive, illustrated lecture which was so realistic that the audience almost felt they were in Chios, the forbidden land and all the other places touched upon by these expert travelers. The illustrations were of a very high order and the lecture was a sparkling, fluent account of their journeys through the forbidden land.

DEFEAT.

BRYAN.

Unfortunate Accident.

Wednesday at 2 p. m. Charles Ubrick engineer at Spencer's Hay Press factory in the southern part of town, was caught by the hand by one of the belts and carried over the shaft, his arms catching in such a way as to inflict deep flesh wounds, the right foot also sustained flesh wounds. The injured man was carried to his home by the factory hands, they having started with him before the doctor arrived, a rig had also been telephoned for, for the purpose of taking him to his home, but the prompt action of the factory hands made its use unnecessary. Mr. Ubrick did not lose consciousness during or after the accident. Martha Ubrick came down from Wilmington Wednesday evening, and is with her injured father.

Kepplinger Case.

Wednesday the 7th at 1 p. m. a jury trial, to acquit or convict Geo. Kepplinger of the selling of intoxicating liquor or to ascertain as to the effects of the beverage known as Bishop's beer, was held at the town house before Justice Wilkinson, W. H. Ketcham prosecuting and Anderson, a lawyer from Chicago, defending said Kepplinger. The jury failed to agree and after an afternoon and night session was discharged Thursday morning, four being for acquittal and two against it. The charge was preferred by the village of Dwight.
A representative of the Bishop beer explained the process of its manufacture to the jury during Wednesday's trial. A new jury will continue the case Monday.

Great Luck of An Editor.

"For two years all efforts to cure Eczema in the palms of my hands failed," writes Editor H. N. Lester, of Syracuse, Kan., "then I was wholly cured by Bucklen's Arnica Salve." It's the world's best for Eruptions, Sores and all skin diseases. Only 25c. A. K. Beltz-boover's, Dwight. W. P. Cleary, Odell. C. V. Green, Braceville.