The members of the K. of G. society had transacted their business Thursday evening when they were pleasantly surprised by their wives calling on them with well filled baskets. After passing a few hours pleasantly with games etc., the ladies made a break for their baskets of delicacies and served their contents to all present, which was relished and enjoyed by all. After this the party broke up after spending a delightful evening.

Married at the church of the Immaculate Conception in Emington at 9 o'clock a.m. Wednesday Nov. 28, by Rev. Grobush, Mr. Redmond Kiley to Miss Lizzie McDermott, Mr. Sill Kiley, acting as best man and Miss Lena Newhoff as bridesmaid. The bride was dressed in dark blue silk trimmed with white fish and white lace and hat to match; the bridesmaid was dressed in golden brown crepe trimmed with changeable satin and hat to match. It was a quiet wedding only the immediate relatives of bride and groom being present. After congratulations they departed to the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. McDermott where a sumptuous dinner was served. The groom is a young man who has lived in this neighborhood all his life. The bride is a young lady of this vicinity who is loved and esteemed by all; their many friends wish them joy and happiness during all the days of their lives.
