

Iowa Land.

Illinois Land.

ROMBERGER & SMITH.

Indiana Land.

Minnesota Land.

DWIGHT,

ILLINOIS

Dwight.

DECEMBER—1900.

| Sun. | Mon. | Tue. | Wed. | Thur. | Fri. | Sat. |
|------|------|------|------|-------|------|------|
| | | | | | | 1 |
| 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 |
| 9 | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 |
| 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 |
| 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27 | 28 | 29 |
| 30 | 31 | | | | | |

Out glass at Lewis'.
China novelties at Bloom's.
Holiday slippers at Leach & Reeb's.
Fine jewelry at Roeder & Wright's.
A large line of slippers for the holidays.—Gordon Bros.

Get your Christmas tree decorations and novelties at P. D. Weicker's.
For sale—Water color pictures for Christmas gifts.—Mrs. H. A. Kenyon
Handsome dolls at plain doll prices.
What more can you ask.—Knutden Bros.

Try our celebrated New York buckwheat and pure maple sap.—Roeder & Chester.
Winter Tourist tickets on sale by C. & A. Ry. to all Southern resorts, very low rates.
Get your ebony presents of us. We handle the genuine and novel line.—Roeder & Wright.

We are here to stay and back up the guarantees on all work and goods sold.—G. H. Follett & Co.
Pretty things to hang on your Christmas trees and to decorate for the occasion at P. D. Weicker's.

If you want to reach the people and get action for your money advertise your holiday goods in THE STAR AND HERALD.
We have a nobby line of ladies handkerchiefs, also a fine line of useful Christmas presents. Come and look at our stock before you purchase.—Gordon Bros.

From Dec. 8th until Jan. 1st 1901, we will have the greatest clearing sale of all kinds of merchandise ever sold in Dwight. Do not fail to call on us, we have great bargains awaiting for everybody.—Miller Bros.

Lewis the jeweler.
All presents engraved free at Lewis'.
Christmas presents at Roeder & Wright's.

All kinds of toys at lowest prices at Bloom's.
Abe Gordon was in Chicago the first of the week.

Nice line of Holiday ties and mufflers at Gordon Bros.
Roeder & Wright's is the place to buy Christmas goods.

C. L. Romberger was in Chicago on business Thursday.
Lovers of Missions observed Friday as a day of prayer.

Try a sack of Marvel Flour "none better"—Reeder & Chester.
Purchase your hard coal of me. I have all kinds.—John Stewart.

Ladies like welt and hand turned shoes at Leach & Reeb's for $3.
Books for the little ones at corresponding prices.—Knutden Bros.

$1 Excursion to Chicago Saturday Dec. 29th. Special train 9:30 only.
Pastor Harris made his address at the Reformatory at Pontiac this week.

S. Bloom has the whole of "Dewey at Manila" in his show window and it is real water too.
Lost—A pair of gold rimmed eye glasses last Saturday. Finder please leave at this office.

Don't forget us when looking for Holiday goods. Prices right and quality guaranteed.—Follett's.
Ollie Crandall, recently with a large dry goods house in Streator, is at home recovering from a severe illness.

Stanley Hodge, of Pontiac, visited friends Tuesday and attended the Winter Night Club dance at Mazon Hall.
C. M. Baker has made extensive preparations for the holiday trade and his store has been tastily arranged and improved.

Pastor Harris will preach next Sunday morning on "The Energy at the Command of Faith." At the evening service, "The Progeny of Evil," will be the theme.

P. D. Weicker has a very pretty window display. A Christmas tree decorated and in a winter scene with Santa Claus coming in the distance and the presents hanging on the tree, is exhibited therein.
Rev. Wockenfuss left Wednesday night for Milburn, Neb., to conduct the funeral services of his father in law, Rev. Vogt will preach in his place at the German Lutheran Church tomorrow.

Mr. Spencer is with J. Knudsen.
Old papers for sale at this office.
Sterling silver presents at Lewis'.
The biggest line of dolls at Bloom's.
Jewelry, holiday presents at Roeder & Wright's.

Ladies' Home Journal and STAR AND HERALD for $2.20.
Christmas tree decorations, the prettiest at P. D. Weickers.

Everything in beautiful Christmas decorations.—P. D. Weicker.
Winter supplies of hard coal in any size. Apply to John Stewart.

Holiday buyers will find an up-to-date jewelry stock at Lewis'.
A full line of candies and nuts for the holidays.—Reeder & Chester.

If your watch, clock or jewelry needs repairing leave it at Follett's.
See me before buying your tree and holiday decorations.—P. D. Weicker.

For Sale—A good business centrally located, for sale at a bargain.—H. & A.
History of Lincoln, cloth bound and the STAR AND HERALD for $1.75 in advance.

Miss Christine Weicker entertained her friend, Miss Henrietta Zweifel, of Peoria, this week.
A steer coming two years old came to Frank Short's place, owner can have same by paying expenses.

If you have any respect for your feet get a pair of Geo. E. Keith & Co. walk-over shoes at Leach & Reeb's.
There is nothing like ebony. It makes the best and most durable of presents. Get the genuine at Lewis'.

We want our store crowded and we are going about it the right way. Our "Mr. Price" will escort you here.—Knutden Bros.
Up-to-date and in a hurry lunches at my lunch counter. Anything you want in lunches, served quickly and attractively.—P. D. Weicker.

Chris Miller and family returned from Antony, Kansas, Thursday after a very pleasant trip, they report everything prosperous out there.
Look through this paper for clubbing offers. They are reliable and you know you will get the paper for a whole year. There is no guess work about this.

We have a beautiful residence in Dwight, cost $8,000 that we will sell for $3,500. Come quick and see us about it.—Romberger & Smith.
Mr. Armstrong visited in Pontiac, his home, the first of the week and visited his family before their departure for California, Canada, and other points Thursday.

Fine umbrellas at Lewis'.
Silk waists and kid gloves dry cleaned.—Miller Bros.
Orders for Christmas promptly filled.—P. D. Weicker.

Get them there, the decorations for Christmas.—P. D. Weicker.
Arthur Buren visited his aunt, Mrs. Hill, Wednesday and Thursday.

Novelties in jewelry and elegant presents at Roeder & Wright's.
Go to Leach & Reeb and get a pair of W. L. Douglas & Co. Union made shoes.

Advertised letters.—Mrs. T. J. Martin, Mrs. Winner, C. B. Pierson, James Kelly, Miss Emory Lee.
Members of the Masonic Fraternity are requested to be present next Monday at the election of officers.

The Ladies' Home Journal, The Saturday Evening Post and STAR AND HERALD one whole year for $3.
Mrs. J. M. O'Grady and children, of Carthage, Mo. O. are visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rev. A. Bower.

Their will be services at the German Lutheran church to-morrow at 2 o'clock p.m. Rev. Vogt will conduct the services.
The best of everything for Christmas and just what you want at Lewis'. We carry one of the largest stocks in the country.

We make profit on every item here. Seems funny doesn't it, when you have seen our ridiculously low prices.—Knutden Bros.
Ebony is a rich color, but if our ebony line is rich you can reach the price. Genuine ebony at moderate prices.—Roeder & Wright.

Anyone subscribing for the STAR AND HERALD now we will furnish it free to January 1, and give receipt in full to January 1, 1902.
Select your Christmas presents from Lewis' big stock and you will be sure of getting the best and most appropriate presents at the fairest prices.

This is the season for turkey and "Electric" cutlery, knives, razors and shears. You get the most service for your money in "Electric" cutlery.—Flagler & Potter.
E. E. Fenn has a car load of New York apples, which he will sell by the peck, bushel or barrel. Leave orders at room recently occupied by bicycle store on East street.

Holiday rates C. & A. Ry. one and one third fare round trip to all stations in Illinois except East St. Louis. Tickets sold on Dec. 22, 23, 24, 25, 31 and January 1st. Returning good including Jan. 2nd.

Watches at Lewis'.
Silverware at Bloom's.
Holiday jewelry at Roeder & Wright's.
A. L. Ficke was in Chicago on business this week.

Herman Deutsch was in Chicago on business this week.
E. O. Reed has returned from his visit at Georgetown.

If you have been waiting to buy celluloid goods at cut price now is your time.—Knutden Bros.
The Nulite Arc Illuminators give the greatest light in the world, agency at the Grand Central Hotel.

"Where did you get that exquisite perfume?" "Why, at Beltzhoover's, and it's called Garland of Violets."
Get out of the darkness with the Nulite superior to electricity of gas at one tenth the cost. A. R. Ficke sells them.

Large editions of the STAR AND HERALD next week and the week after for the accommodation of our merchants.
Everett B. Lewis purchased a lot on East street in the vacant space between Parvin's and the Kelly restaurant last week.

The 20th. century light the Nulite Arc Illuminators, 75 per cent candle power are worthy your attention.—A. R. Ficke agent.
Nelson Bros. have improved their store throughout, painting it and otherwise greatly adding to its convenience and neat appearance.

Mrs. Kaylor returned from Postville Ia., and the sick bed of her sick father last week and reports that though he is very sick, he does not seem much worse.
Mapor J. R. Oughton, H. F. Adams and Robert Orr returned from Arkansas Thursday, after a very pleasant and successful hunting vacation. They remembered many of their friends with fine fat quails.

In the absence of the Pastor, Rev. Mr. Morgan, who was called away to a dedication of a church, the Rev. A. Bower filled the pulpit morning and night last Sunday, at night they had a delightful Song Service.
We are selling silk umbrellas for $1.48 worth $2.50 and some at $3.50 actually worth $5, as we bought a manufacturers line at half price. Nothing will make a more useful Christmas present.—Miller Bros.

Do not fail to call at our store for the most useful Christmas presents such as silk mufflers, handkerchiefs, suspenders, silk umbrellas, the greatest stock in town to select from at the lowest prices.—Miller Bros.

Holiday silverware at Lewis'.
See Lewis' wave crest novelties.
Sterling silver spoons at Lewis'.
Edward Thole, of Rockham, So. Dak. is visiting his mother.

Don't miss the great great Christmas opportunity at Lewis'.
V. S. Wright was in Chicago this week purchasing holiday goods.
Mrs. Claude Powell, of East St. Louis, is visiting friends and relatives.

Saturday Evening Post and STAR AND HERALD one year for $2.25.
You may be able to match our toys but not our price.—Knutden Bros.
To the ladies.—Get your skirts and jackets dry cleaned at Miller Bros.

J. F. Vickey left Tuesday for southwestern Missouri on land business.
The STAR AND HERALD clubs with all publications and can save you money.
Mr. and Mrs. R. Hilton, of Chicago, were the guests of Mrs. and Miss Adams last week.

I call your careful attention to my trimmed hats, which I am selling at greatly reduced prices. Mrs. W. E. Fenn.
Mr. Thom, wife and baby, of Malvern Hill, returned to Chicago, Tuesday, after a visit with Rev. and Mrs. Harris.
Big dolls, little dolls, undressed dolls, dressed dolls, china dolls, all kinds at one kind of price—the lowest.—Knutden Bros.

Ebony—ebony—ebony at Roeder & Wright's jewelry store, the real, genuine articles for sale at Roeder & Wright's.
Buy your ebony goods of us. We have the ebony that pleases and is genuine. Ebony presents at our store.—Roeder & Wright.

Select a Christmas present which will last and be appreciated. You take no risk if you select an "Electric" knife, razor or shears. The service and quality will please. We have a kind to suit any one, at a price to suit you.—Flagler & Potter.
The Ladies Benevolent society of the Congregational church will hold their annual fair and supper in the church parlors on Thursday Dec. 20. Sale of fancy articles will commence at 2 p. m. Supper will be served from 5 to 10:30 p. m.

MENU.
Creamed Chicken, (served hot.)
Cold Boiled Ham,
Scalloped Potatoes, (served hot)
Cabbage Salad,
Brown Bread,
Pickles,
Baked Beans,
Doughnuts,
Coffee.

All for 25c. Ice cream and cake extra.