

Iowa Land. Illinois Land.
ROMBERGER & SMITH.
Indiana Land. Minnesota Land.

DWIGHT,

ILLINOIS

DECEMBER—1900.

Sun.	Mon.	Tue.	Wed.	Thur.	Fri.	Sat.
....	1
2	3	4	5	6	7	8
9	10	11	12	13	14	15
16	17	18	19	20	21	22
23	24	25	26	27	28	29
30	31

Dwight.

Cut glass at Lewis'.
China novelties at Bloom's.
Holiday slippers at Leach & Reeb's.
Mrs. Ring was in Chicago the first of the week.
Hard coal! Hard coal! at Geo. N. Flagler's.
Dr. Broughton is home from a visit in Chicago.
Major C. J. Judd was a Chicago visitor Saturday.
Thos. E. Barry was in Omaha on business last week.
A large line of slippers for the holidays.—Gordon Bros.
Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Eldredge visited friends in Chicago Sunday.
Get your Christmas tree decorations and novelties at P. D. Weicker's.
Buy your winter supply of coal of us. All kinds of coal at Geo. N. Flagler's.
E. McWilliams was in Chicago the first of the week buying holiday goods.
Handsome dolls at plain doll prices. What more can you ask.—Knutten Bros.
Try our celebrated New York buck-wheat and pure maple sap—Reeder & Chester.
Mrs. W. E. Fenn was in Chicago, Tuesday on business and getting holiday novelties.
Winter Tourist tickets on sale by C. & A. Ry. to all Southern resorts, very low rates.
Get your ebony presents of us. We handle the genuine and novel line.—Roeder & Wright.
Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Gould are home from Streator where they have been visiting their daughter.
We are here to stay and back up the the guarantees on all work and goods sold.—G. H. Follett & Co.

Lewis the jeweler.
All presents engraved free at Lewis'.
Novelties of all descriptions at Lewis'.
Christmas presents at Roeder & Wright's.
All kinds of toys at lowest prices at Bloom's.
Nice line of Holiday ties and mufflers at Gordon Bros.
Roeder & Wright's is the place to buy Christmas goods.
Misses Bertha and Nelle Potter spent the week in Chic go.
Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Flagler were Chicago visitors last week.
Try a sack of Marvel Flour "none better"—Reeder & Chester.
Purchase your hard coal of me. I have all kinds.—John Stewart.
Ladies fine welt and hand turned shoes at Leach & Reeb's for $3.
Books for the little ones at corresponding prices.—Knutten Bros.
St Excursion to Chicago Saturday Dec. 29th. Special train 9:30 only.
Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Drew, of Emington, visited relatives here over Sunday.
For reliable up-to-date holiday watches, jewelry and silverware go to Lewis'.
Pretty things to hang on your Christmas trees and to decorate for the occasion at P. D. Weicker's.
Don't forget us when looking for Holiday goods. Prices right and quality guaranteed.—Follett's.
Eugene Thompson started last Thursday for Buffalo, N. Y., to make his brother, Charles, a visit.
John Gross, of Dixon, who has not been here for several weeks is spending Christmas with relatives here.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Smith returned from Louisiana Wednesday evening after a trip of three weeks.
B. R. Griffith is slowly recovering from the injuries received in the recent accident, and is able to get outdoors.
J. D. Emple and sister, Mrs. A. E. Rudd, of Wichita, Kan., visited at R. G. Thompson's in Highland last week.
Thomas Liggitt and daughter have gone to Chicago to spend Christmas where there will be a reunion of the family.
Mr. and Mrs. Blatchford Collins, of Missoula, Montana, were the guests of R. H. Mills and family and other relatives this week.
Hard coal, Indiana block, lump and cut, Indiana and Lehigh Valley hard coal all sizes always on hand, at lowest prices.—Geo. N. Flagler.

Old papers for sale at this office.
Sterling silver presents at Lewis'.
The biggest line of dolls at Bloom's.
Christmas tree decorations, the prettiest at P. D. Weickers.
Everything in beautiful Christmas decorations.—P. D. Weicker.
Winter supplies of hard coal in any size. Apply to John Stewart.
Holiday buyers will find an up-to-date jewelry stock at Lewis'.
A full line of candies and nuts for the holidays—Reeder & Chester.
If your watch, clock or jewelry needs repairing leave it at Follett's.
See me before buying your tree and holiday decorations.—P. D. Weicker.
For Sale—A good business centrally located, for sale at a bargain.—H. & A. N. L. Throckmorton visited his son, C. P. Throckmorton, a few days this week.
History of Lincoln, cloth bound and the STAR AND HERALD for $1.75 in advance.
Mr. Throckmorton, of the C. & A. was in Cleveland, Ohio, last week visiting his wife.
Miss Huey who has conducted such a successful Kindergarten returned to Moline her home Tuesday.
There is nothing like ebony. It makes the best and most durable of presents. Get the genuine at Lewis'.
Holiday business is excellent and today there will probably be the largest trade in Dwight there ever was in any one day.
O. C. Jensen has just issued a very pretty Equitable Life insurance calendar. He is the local agent in this community.
We want our store crowded and we are going about it the right way. Our "Mr. Price" will escort you here.—Knutten Bros.
While it has not been ideal winter weather, the roads have been fairly good this week and there has been lots of people in town every day.
Everything in Christmas goods at reduced prices next Monday. Come and look over our stock of presents before they are gone.—Gordon Bros.
A new organ is placed in the Danish Lutheran church and will be used for the Christmas services; it is a handsome affair being somewhat of a pipe organ.
From Dec. 8th until Jan. 1th 1901, we will have the greatest clearing sale of all kinds of merchandise ever sold in Dwight. Do not fail to call on us, we have great bargains awaiting for everybody.—Miller Bros.

Fine umbrellas at Lewis'.
For Sale—Genuine French Ebony, at Lewis'.
Silk waists and kid gloves dry cleaned—Miller Bros.
Orders for Christmas promptly filled—P. D. Weicker.
Get them there, the decorations for Christmas.—P. D. Weicker.
Novelties in jewelry and elegant presents at Roeder & Wright's.
Don't compare imitation, Ebony with the Genuine, Lewis sells the genuine.
Go to Leach & Reeb and get a pair of W. L. Douglas & Co. Union made shoes.
J. P. McWilliams is in the "blue grass" region for saddle horses for Chicago parties.
If you have any respect for your feet get a pair of Geo. E. Keith & Co. walk-over shoes at Leach & Reeb's.
The Ladies' Home Journal, The Saturday Evening Post and STAR AND HERALD one whole year for $3.
Major C. J. Judd left for his home in Massachusetts Thursday, where he will spend the holidays with his family.
The public schools were dismissed yesterday until Wednesday morning Jan. 2nd and the pupils will enjoy the holidays.
The best of everything for Christmas and just what you want at Lewis'. We carry one of the largest stocks in the country.
For thorough first class practical watch repairing, go to Everett Lewis, I am here year in and year out to back up guarantees.
Mrs. E. F. Wright, of Lexington, visited friends here this week and attended the Congregational fair Thursday evening.
We make profit on every item here seems funny doesn't it, when you have seen our ridiculously low prices.—Knutten Bros.
Ebony is a rich color, but if our ebony line is rich you can reach the price. Genuine ebony at moderate prices.—Roeder & Wright.
Anyone subscribing for the STAR AND HERALD now we will furnish it free to January 1, and give receipt in full to January 1, 1902.
Select your Christmas presents from Lewis' big stock and you will be sure of getting the best and most appropriate presents at the fairest prices.
Go to Gordon Bros. for Christmas presents and be sure to be suited. There is no doubt about there being a great variety to choose from. You will do well to call.

Watches at Lewis'.
Silverware at Bloom's.
Holiday jewelry at Roeder & Wright's.
For sale—Fifty head of good yearling steers. A. L. Booth, Gardner, Ill.
James Glenn, of Verona, was in town Wednesday visiting friends.
Bert Yates, of So. Dakota, visited his brother, Dr. Yates, last week.
For sale—A hard coal stove in good condition. Inquire of Mrs. E. A. Dunlop.
Wanted—A good girl for general housework. Apply at Pennsylvania House.
There are 1,135 miles of railway in Cuba, 551 miles of which are controlled by British companies.
If you have been waiting to buy celluloid goods at cut price now is your time.—Knutten Bros.
E. F. Emery, Chief Despatcher of the C. & A. visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Emery the first of the week.
The Nulite Arc Illuminators give the greatest light in the world, agency at the Grand Central Hotel.
"Where did you get that exquisite perfume?" "Why, at Beltzhoover's, and it's called Garland of Violets."
The Ancient Mechanical Society of Baltimore celebrated its one hundred and thirty sixth anniversary recently.
The 20th. century light the Nulite Arc Illuminators, 750 candle power are worthy your attention.—A. L. R. Ficke agent.
Following are the Royal Neighbors who went to Pontiac Wednesday evening; Mesdames Mickelson, Orr, Hornberger, West, Hansen, Golesky and Mr. Cook.
This is the season for turkey and "Electric" cutlery, knives, razors and shears. You get the most service for your money in "Electric" cutlery.—Flagler & Potter.
Thunder storms are more frequent in Iowa than in any other part of the world. The average is only about every fourth day. Sumatra has 86 in a year, and Rio Janeiro 61.
We are selling silk umbrellas for $1.48 worth $2.50 and some at $3.50 actually worth $5, as we bought a manufactures line at half price. Nothing will make a more useful Christmas present.—Miller Bros.
The Epworth League will hold a Reception New Years Day in the M. E. church parlors from 2 until 8. During the afternoon a ten cent luncheon will be served, Music from 5 until 9 o'clock. Everyone most cordially invited.

Holiday silverware at Lewis'.
See Lewis' wave crest novelties.
Sterling silver spoons a Lewis'.
New jardiniers and fine pottery at Lewis'.
J. Stewart has begun to plaster his house.
W. G. Short was in Hersher on business last week.
C. C. Adams was in Chicago on business Saturday.
R. H. Mills left for a business trip to Iowa, Tuesday.
Miss Stella Short visited in Joliet and Lockport, Sunday.
Miss Nellie McWilliams returned Saturday night from Chicago.
Subscribe for the STAR AND HERALD and you'll get it for a year.
Mrs. Geo. Lower returned from a two weeks visit in Chicago Sunday.
Saturday Evening Post and STAR AND HERALD one year for $2.25.
You may be able to match our toys but not our price.—Knutten Bros.
Don't go to Lewis for imitation ebony goods. He sells the genuine.
There is quite a graphophone display at Baker's Bazaar. Have you seen it?
Mr. Brooks left for Joliet, Tuesday afternoon to attend his wife, who is very ill.
The STAR AND HERALD clubs with all publications and can save you money.
John Morrison, of Bloomington, spent Sunday with C. M. Baker and family.
Miss Green, of Gardner, was the guest of Miss Winnie Leach the first of the week.
Lewis gives a written guarantee of 20 years with his silverware—buy the best and you are money ahead.
Big dolls, little dolls, undressed dolls, dressed dolls, china dolls, all kinds at one kind of price—the lowest.—Knutten Bros.
Ebony—ebony—ebony at Roeder & Wright's jewelry store, the real, genuine articles for sale at. Roeder & Wright's.
Take a look at Beltzhoover's perfume case, and see the fine variety of choice odors in bulk and fancy glass stoppered bottles, at prices and sizes to suit all pocketbooks.
We have decided to make a great clearing sale on overcoats of all kinds for the next two weeks. Prices reduced on all from 10 to 20 per cent, we have over 600 to sell yet and we are willing to close out at a sacrifice. Come to us as we have the only complete line you will find anywhere.—Miller Bros.