

Iowa Land.

Illinois Land.

ROMBERGER & SMITH.

Indiana Land.

Minnesota Land.

DWIGHT,

ILLINOIS

Dwight.

Happy New Years.
Cut glass at Lewis'.
China novelties at Bloom's.
Holiday slippers at Leach & Reeb's.
Hard coal! Hard coal! at Geo. N. Flagler's.
C. H. Lovewell and wife are Dwight visitors this week.
J. J. Miller, of Chicago, was a Dwight visitor this week.
A large line of slippers for the holidays.—Gordon Bros.
Col. F. L. Smith was in Chicago on business this week.
C. L. Romberger spent Xmas at his father's home in Princeton.
Dan McCarter is home from Lake Forrest to spend the holidays.
Buy your winter supply of coal of us. All kinds of coal at Geo. N. Flagler's.
Handsome dolls at plain doll prices. What more can you ask.—Knudten Bros.
Try our celebrated New York buckwheat and pure maple ssp.—Reeder & Chester.
W. T. Prime wife and family, of Chicago, visited in Pontiac and Dwight this week.
We are here to stay and back up the guarantees on all work and goods sold.—G. H. Follett & Co.
The postoffice will be open New Years day from 7 a. m. to 9:30 a. m. and from 1:30 to 2:30 p. m.
Nick Loffmark received a telegram from Raton, New Mexico, last week stating the serious illness of his brother.
Prof. Atwood, who has been suffering from a severe illness which terminated in a slight stroke of paralysis is rapidly improving.
The members of the Dwight Kindergarten Association are requested to meet at the residence of Mrs. Miller next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 to elect officers and transact important business regarding the continuance of the school in the spring. A full attendance is desired.
The following officers were elected at the regular meeting of the Danish Brotherhood Saturday night Dec. 22: E. P., J. P. Jepsen; P., J. M. Peterson; V. P., L. Larsen; Sec., S. P. Steffensen; Treas., S. P. Klitz; Trustee, J. E. Peterson; Conductor, Ed. A. Smith; I. G., Chris A. Jensen; O. G., H. C. Jepsen. Installation first meeting in January.

Lewis the jeweler.
Novelties of all descriptions at Lewis'.
Nice line of Holiday ties and mufflers at Gordon Bros.
Clinton Chisnell visited in Bloomington Christmas.
Xmas was a day of good cheer in Dwight and vicinity.
For sale.—Three Jersey cows, all fresh.—L. Tanner, Jr.
Dr. Weart visited in Chicago and Elgin during the holidays.
Chas. Vickery is home from Chicago visiting relatives.
Frank Powers, of Streator, visited the Fr family this week.
Alvi Barnum and family spent Christmas with Dwight relatives.
Try a sack of Marvel Flour "none better"—Reeder & Chester.
Clinton Ahern, of Ann Arbor, Mich., is spending the holidays here.
Purchase your hard coal of me. I have all kinds.—John Stewart.
Lee Barnum and family spent Christmas with Springfield relatives.
Miss VanAmy, of Streator, spent Christmas with Miss Amy Orr.
Ladies fine welt and hand turned shoes at Leach & Reeb's for $3.
Books for the little ones at corresponding prices.—Knudten Bros.
$1 Excursion to Chicago Saturday Dec. 29th. Special train 9:30 only.
James and John Oughton are home from school to spend the holidays.
Major C. J. Judd is spending the holidays at his home in Massachusetts.
Goldy Hamilton came home from Columbia Mo. to spend the holidays.
Miss Lou Jensen, of Chicago, spent Christmas with friends and relatives here.
Miss Caroline Knudsen, of Chicago, is spending the holidays with her parents.
For reliable up-to-date holiday watches, jewelry and silverware go to Lewis'.
Floyd Barnum and wife, of Coal City, visited friends and relatives here Christmas.
The little ones and Santa Claus came to very satisfactory agreements Tuesday morning.
Don't forget us when looking for Holiday goods. Prices right and quality guaranteed.—Follett's.
Hard coal, Indiana block, lump and nut, Indiana and Lehigh Valley hard coal all sizes always on hand, at lowest prices.—Geo. N. Flagler.

Old papers for sale at this office.
The biggest line of dolls at Bloom's. Lawrence Fay, of Odell, was in town the first of the week.
Roy Wheatley was an Odell visitor the first of the week.
Winter supplies of hard coal in any size. Apply to John Stewart.
Holiday buyers will find an up-to-date jewelry stock at Lewis'.
A full line of candies and nuts for the holidays.—Reeder & Chester.
If your watch, clock or jewelry needs repairing leave it at Follett's.
See me before buying your tree and holiday decorations.—P. D. Welcker.
For Sale—A good business centrally located, for sale at a bargain.—H. & A.
Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Young, of Pontiac, visited friends and relatives this week.
Miss Dickinson, of Chicago, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Davenport during holidays.
Miss Lillian Pierce came home from Iowa Monday, where she has been for several months.
The Nulite arc lamp are a pleasing ornament and a saving of dollars. For prices etc call at Grand Central Hotel.
There is nothing like ebony. It makes the best and most durable of presents. Get the genuine at Lewis'.
We want our store crowded and we are going about it the right way. Our "Mr. Price" will escort you here.—Knudten Bros.
Misses Emma and Lou Miller, of Chicago, arrived in Dwight, Saturday night to spend the holidays with their sisters, Mrs. Ed. Reeb and Mrs. George Lower.
From Dec. 8th until Jan. 1st 1901, we will have the greatest clearing sale of all kinds of merchandise ever sold in Dwight. Do not fail to call on us, we have great bargains awaiting for everybody.—Miller Bros.
The annual meeting for the election of officers, and transaction of other business connected with the Congregational Church, will be held in the church on Wednesday evening Jan. 2nd. All persons interested in its welfare urged to be present.
The traffic department of the C. & A. R. R. sent out a handsome Christmas and New Year's card, containing the portrait of Geo. P. Charlton, Gen. Pass. Agent, and Judd A. W. Warner, Gen. Freight Agent. THE STAR AND HERALD acknowledges the receipt of one and congratulates the departments on having such fine looking and able chiefs.

Fine umbrellas at Lewis'.
Christmas trade in Dwight was very large.
For Sale—Genuine French Ebony, at Lewis'.
Silk waists and kid gloves dry cleaned—Miller Bros.
Burt Orr spent the holidays at home from Ann Arbor.
Miss Louise Barnhart visited in Joliet the first of the week.
Don't compare imitation, Ebony with the Genuine, Lewis sells the genuine.
Harry Seeley, of Sterling, is visiting relatives and friends here a few days.
Lost—A pair of gold rimmed spectacles in case. Please leave at this office Chas. Stanley, of Odell, and Wm. Savage, of Streator, were in town Thursday.
Dave Leach is down from the Art School in Chicago spending the holidays.
Go to Leach & Reeb and get a pair of W. L. Douglas & Co. Union made shoes.
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Finch, of Verona, spent Xmas here with her parents.
Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, of Downers Grove, visited friends here the first of the week.
Miss Maggie Higgins carried off the prize for the best dancing at the Christmas dance at Streator.
Roscoe Gould and wife entertained their son from Pontiac and daughter from Streator, Christmas.
If you have any respect for your feet get a pair of Geo. E. Keith & Co. walk-over shoes at Leach & Reeb's.
The Nulite Arc lamps pay for themselves in a few months and are self cleaning, last a life time guaranteed.
Mate Palmer, editor of the Banner of Gold, spent Christmas with her mother and sister, Mrs. McClure and Mrs. H. A. Kenyon.
For thorough first class practical watch repairing, go to Everett Lewis, I am here year in and year out to back up guarantees.
We make profit on every item here. Seems funny doesn't it, when you have seen our ridiculously low prices.—Knudten Bros.
Ebony is a rich color, but if our ebony line is rich you can reach the price. Genuine ebony at moderate prices.—Roeder & Wright.
Get a good light and not a poor one The 20th century Arc Nulite lamp 750 candle power, all other lights are far in the shade. Please note the great difference.—A. R. Ficke, agent.

Watches at Lewis'.
Silverware at Bloom's.
Holiday jewelry at Roeder & Wright's.
Budd Seymour is home for the holidays.
Charles Allen was a Joliet visitor this week.
Louise Reinmiller spent Christmas at home.
Mrs. Gills and children spent Christmas at home.
Miss Agnes Reinmiller has been quite sick the past week.
For sale—Fifty head of good yearling steers. A. L. Booth, Gardner, Ill.
Roy Seymour is home for the holidays.
Arthur M. Boren, of Cullom, is visiting Jas. Hill and family a part of this week.
Misses Etta and Josie Nelson, of Morris, spent Christmas with Mrs. Frederick Emery.
Miss Ella Fenn entertained her Sunday school class of eleven young men, Thursday evening.
Mrs. Funk, Mr. and Mrs. Gill and children ate goose with Mr. and Mrs. Morphey, Christmas.
If you have been waiting to buy celluloid goods at cut price now is your time.—Knudten Bros.
Wanted—Girl for general work, good wages to right one. Apply to Mrs. Kaylor, next to postoffice.
The Nulite Arc Illuminators give the greatest light in the world, agency at the Grand Central Hotel.
"Where did you get that exquisite perfume?" "Why, at Beltzhoover's, and it's called Garland of Violets."
The theme of the morning sermon at the Congregational church will be "The Grave of a Century." In the evening, the pastor will speak on "This Year Also."
This is the season for turkey and "Electric" cutlery, knives, razors and shears. You get the most service for your money in "Electric" cutlery.—Flagler & Potter.
We are selling silk umbrellas for $1.48 worth $2.50 and some at $3.50 actually worth $5, as we bought a manufacturers line at half price. Nothing will make a more useful Christmas present.—Miller Bros.
The new telephone directory for 1901 was issued from the STAR AND HERALD office this week. It contains the corrected list up to date and places are left for additional names. The STAR AND HERALD will publish new names as furnished by Manager Boyer.

Holiday silverware at Lewis'.
See Lewis' wave crest novelties.
Sterling silver spoons a Lewis'.
New jardiniere and fine pottery at Lewis'.
If you want land anywhere see Romberger & Smith.
Jess Tambling visited friends in town Christmas.
Miss Lois Cutright, of Peoria, is visiting Miss Leila Barr this week.
Miss Jessie Crewes, of Normal, visited Miss Ella Chester this week.
You may be able to match our toys but not our price.—Knudten Bros.
Don't go to Lewis for imitation ebony goods. He sells the genuine.
There is quite a graphophone display at Baker's Bazaar. Have you seen it?
Romberger & Smith sold 476 acres in Wisconsin this week to local parties.
Miss Blanch Wetzler, of Milwaukee, is visiting Miss Jessie Miller this week.
Romberger & Smith sold 335 acres of fine land highly improved land this week.
Miss Etta Calder is home from Normal, having finished her two years course there.
Lewis gives a written guarantee of 20 years with his silverware—buy the best and you are money ahead.
Mrs. J. C. Shearer and Mrs. Sehleman of Francisville, Ind., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Russell this week.
Advertised letters: Mrs. Dora Miller, Mrs. Emma Ryansouther, a very Dankhoff, Miss Charabella Jones, David Archibald.
Ebony—ebony—ebony at Roeder & Wright's jewelry store, the real, genuine articles for sale at Roeder & Wright's.
Big dolls, little dolls, undressed dolls, dressed dolls, china dolls, all kinds at one kind of price—the lowest.—Knudten Bros.
Take a look at Beltzhoover's perfume case, and see the fine variety of choice odors in bulk and fancy glass stoppered bottles, at prices and sizes to suit all pocketbooks.
The Nulite lamps are portable, hang and stand them anywhere Approved by the fire insurance underwriters.
The darkness into light turn. And air instead of money burn.
We have decided to make a great clearing sale on overcoats of all kinds for the next two weeks. Prices reduced on all from 10 to 20 per cent, we have over 600 to sell yet and we are willing to close out at a sacrifice. Come to us as we have the only complete line you will find anywhere.—Miller Bros.