E. Bute, auctioneer.

Love and Vaughan's, "A Wise Member" company played at the Opera House Thursday evening before a fair sized audience. The cast numbered eight people. The play was called a musical comedy, mostly comedy. The musical numbers were rather old, including those that were sung before tunes came in style, but were heartily applauded by those who remained for the final. This company is playing the large cities such as Streator, Ottawa, La Salle, Pekin and many others and for this reason was booked by Manager Orr.

F. B. Chester and son, Charles, drove to Kinsman Tuesday to attend a hog sale. They stated that the hogs sold on an average of $65.00, being of the blooded stock that were prize winners at the International Live Stock show in Chicago and other large shows. The heaviest hog weighed 1100 pounds. On the return home while passing a team, the horse driven by Charles became frightened at a small pile of straw and jumped to the side of the road sending the cutter into the ditch and throwing Mr. Chester out. Fortunately he received but a few bruises.

You Serve Good Health With Bonano

It agrees with your household—big folks, baby folks and all. A bracing, pure-food fruit drink; warming, palate-tempting, energy-building. It's the drink to do big things on. Puts you on your mettle—gives you stamina, and stick.

It supports nobly—a prop that does not palsy; a stimulant that does not sap. BONANO is not a "near" coffee, but a wholesome table drink in a class of its own, with its own flavor, its own spicy odor, its own full, satisfying "body." Try BONANO a week or two. You will like it better and better every day as you feel your health improve, your nerves get firm, your brain grow clear, your digestion become right—when you learn what it is to work like a giant and sleep like a baby.

BONANO can easily be made to suit each individual taste by boiling it more or less or using a larger or smaller quantity than directions call for. You can easily find the way you like it best.

BONANO is just the appetizing goodness of fully matured, tropic-ripened bananas—the choicest that grow—dried, roasted, granulated—served as a golden brown, aromatic beverage. No adulteration, no artificial coloring or flavor.

Your doctor will tell you that bananas are high in food value, that they are easily and quickly digested by the weakest stomach without over-taxing, that they help in assimilation and digestion and are mildly corrective, that they contain or develop no poisons; and thus BONANO is pure and wholesome and can be given in perfect safety to an unweaned babe.

For Insomnia: Those who are unable to sleep find that a before-retiring cup of BONANO promptly induces restful, refreshing slumber.

BONANO is an economical drink, too. It goes twice as far as coffee. It requires little sugar because of the fruit-sweet it contains. A 25-cent can of BONANO makes 75 cups of the best hot drink you ever tasted.
