These organizations intend to hold some open meetings during the remaining winter months.

Obituary of David Duncan.

David Duncan was born in Ogdensburg, St. Lawrence county, N. Y., Aug. 19, 1855.

His parents both died when he was about seven years of age. At the age of 17 he went west to Dwight, Illinois.

On March 13, 1879, he was married to Julia F. Potter. They lived near Dwight nearly 15 years, moving to Crab Orchard, Nebraska, where they resided until moving to their present home sixteen miles south of Killam, Alberta, in March 1907.

He died at the home of Chas. Clement of heart failure Jan. 21, 1910, being 54 years, 5 months, and 2 days old.

He had three brothers and two sisters, all having died before him but one sister, Mrs. Wm. Ruthford, who with her family were present at his funeral.

He is survived by his wife and four children, Leslie A., Ethel L., Leo P., and Archie V., all present at his funeral Sunday Jan. 23, 1910.

The service was in charge of J. C. Kirk, a former pastor and friend of the family, and the Masonic Orders of which he had been a member for 21 years also took charge of the service. Interment was at the Killam cemetery. He was also a member of the Modern Woodman of America.

He was a kind and loving husband and father and held in the highest esteem among his friends and neighbors.

Woodman Entertainment.

The entertainment committee of the Modern Woodman Camps has been fortunate in securing Prof. J. Emerson Nye to give one of his original monologue entertainments. He is highly spoken of by the press and pulpit. He will be at the Opera House next Friday evening, the 11th, and every Woodman and his family should attend, and the general public is cordially invited. The admission is only 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children, for this splendid entertainment.

A change of tenors had been made in the church choir. Eight-year-old Jessie, returning from the morning service, was anxious to tell the news. "O, mother!" she exclaimed, "we have a new terror in the choir!"

Is the Value of Horse Flesh on the Decline?

About two weeks ago Howard Boyer bought a fine black team for $500.00. It was said to be a big price for horses, but, last Tuesday Mr. H. F. Boyer sold a 3-year-old colt for $260.00 and about a week previous he sold a 30-month-old colt for $275.00 and neither of the colts were mated. Mr. Boyer says he has bought and sold over $1,500.00 worth of horses in the last 6 months.

Evangelistic Services.

The Evangelistic campaign in the M. E. church opens Sunday morning with Evangelists Hicks and Williams in charge. There will be services every afternoon and evening for three weeks at 3 and 7:30 o'clock. These young men have had great success in other fields and the Methodists are expecting a great revival here. Cottage prayer meetings have been held all this week and Revs. Ebert and Lowther, whose churches are uniting, are fully expecting a great awakening in Dwight.

Everyone who will help in the singing are most earnestly invited to meet for rehearsal Sunday evening. Mr. Williams is a fine chorister and singer.

Hicks is the man who converted the whole town of Abingdon, Ill. The Abingdon revival is one of the most remarkable in modern evangelism. Over 700 were converted and the town was completely transformed.

What Should She Say?

"I tell you, little wife, you can't imagine how lonesome I am when I am separated from you. You are the best little woman in the world, so different from Drigg's nagging and scolding wife. You know that a man must get ahead in the world and be free to give his business his full attention. My little girl isn't of the suspicious, doubting kind, is she? Why, dearest, this very night I ought to go down to the club. Brown of Brown, Kalibo & Co. is in town. They're among our best customers. Ought to know him socially, hadn't I? But unless you insist, my little sweetheart wife, I won't go. It may mean a loss to the firm, but I'll stay with my precious."
