

DWIGHT NOTES

Mrs. Frank Davis entertained seven ladies at Finch Thursday evening. Everybody had a nice time as they usually do, when entertained at the Davis home.

Mrs. Stenger, living on West Seminoles street, had the misfortune to fall and badly sprain her ankle one day last week. The sprain is very painful, but she is getting along as well as can be expected.

Mr. Ed Darmon entertained a number of gentlemen at "Finch" Thursday evening. At 10 o'clock a delicious two-course luncheon was served.

Local drivers are much interested in the fight against the auto law inaugurated by the car owners of Freeport. It is contended that the law is unconstitutional and that the money should not be paid to the state, where it has been allowed to remain idle for some time in the past, and also that it has not been properly distributed.

For Sale—6-room bungalow with bath, furnace, electric lights and modern conveniences. Will take lot in trade. Inquire of Andrew Nelson or call 266-W.

All interested in the organization of a Gun Club are invited to attend a meeting in the lobby of the Bank of Dwight at seven o'clock Monday evening, January 29th.—By Committee.

Revival meetings will commence at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning, Feb. 4, 1912. Meetings will be held each evening during the week at 7:30. You are urged to attend.

Mr. Henry Hager entertained the Senior high school class, of which he is a member, and Miss Scott, one of the teachers, at his home Thursday evening, at a four-course six o'clock dinner.

The Schults Case. After working nearly nine days and examining about 125 talenmen a jury was finally selected to try William Schults, indicted for the murder of his neighbor, Charles Raube, at the home of the latter, six miles east of Pontiac in Owego township on the evening of July 19, 1911.

Mortgage Loans. FRANK L. SMITH makes a specialty of the investment of funds in carefully selected mortgage loans on farm and city property. In no section of the United States are there richer farming lands, or are values more rapidly increasing than in this section.

Vaudeville at Opera House. On account of the people appreciating the good vaudeville at the Opera House by attending in such large numbers, Mr. Dieter will put on two acts the first half of the week instead of one for the same admission, 5 and 10 cents.

Smart Business. The people of a country town not far from Edinburgh received a shock recently, says a London weekly. One day they were startled by a lavish display on the boardings of posters bearing in large letters the announcement, "He is coming."

Dialects in China. There are as many different dialects spoken in China as there are in the whole of Europe.
