Anna Nelson went to Kankakee last Thursday to see her sister, Mrs. Charlie Palmer, who is at the Emergence Hospital. Eddie Johnson, Maggie Green, Ella Bowers and Charlie Simenson are the four that took the prizes at the Gleaner card party. The Gleaner basket social was a fine success, twenty-six baskets sold for $24. But the beautiful light which Tambling Bros. furnished at the installation was greatly missed. Some of the young folks from here attended the school social at the Darmon school. The program was fine and the baskets were plentiful. Much credit is due Miss McFarlane, the teacher, for getting up such a pleasant affair. It was at a reception, and the lady who had been reading up on health culture mistook Lawyer Williams for his brother, the doctor. "Is it better," she asked confidentially, "to lie on the right side or on the left?" "Madam," replied the lawyer, "if one is on the right side it isn't often necessary to lie at all."

Coughs and Colds You could not please us better than to ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis. Thousands of families always keep it in the house. The approval of their physician and the experience of many years have given them great confidence in this standard cough medicine. Sold for seventy years. Any good doctor will tell you that a medicine like Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cannot do its best work if the bowels are constipated. Ask your doctor if he knows anything better than Ayer's Pills for correcting this sluggishness of the liver. Made by the J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.
