PROMINENT BUSINESS MAN DEAD.

Mr. Geo. Kern Passed Away Last Monday.

Mr. Geo. L. Kern, one of the popular business men of Dwight and who had been associated in the commercial life of Dwight for many years, passed away quite suddenly early Monday morning, Feb. 12. Although he had been in poor health for some time, he was able to attend to business and his condition was not considered alarming until last Sunday when he was taken very ill and passed away early Monday morning.

He was born Dec. 31, 1860, at Ottawa, Ill., and died Feb. 12, 1912, aged 51 years, 1 month and 11 days. He had been a resident of Dwight for the last forty-nine years and had many friends in this community.

He was educated and confirmed in the German Evangelical Lutheran church at the age of fourteen, and was a constant member of this church since that time.

On Jan. 28, 1883, he was united in marriage to Miss Catharine Munster, of Ransom. To this union were born three sons, George M. N., Dr. Henry W., and Arthur P. Kern, who with the widow survive the deceased. Mr. Kern also leaves an aged mother, Mrs. Sophia Kern, and three brothers and five sisters, all of whom were present at the funeral except one sister, Mrs. Seigert, who owing to sickness was unable to be present.

The funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at his late residence on Delaware street, Rev. W. Kisteman and Rev. F. F. Farrington officiating. The remains were then laid to rest in Oaklawn cemetery.

The Knights of Pythias, of which society Mr. Kern was an honored member, had charge of the burial services, and there were seventy-four in line out of a membership of eighty-seven. The pall bearers were charter members of the lodge, Messrs. Jas. Reeder, Ames Orr, T. J. Graham, Frank Reeb, Edw. Reeb and B. O. Goodman.

Among those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Kern, of Henry; Mr. George Kestinger, of Ransom; Mr. and Mrs. Custer, of Streator; Mr. Boyenmeister, of Ottawa; Mr. and Mrs. Stahtaue, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knudten, of Milwaukee; Dr. Nicholas Kern and wife, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. H. Bloom, of Clinton; Mrs. Annie Tyler, of Terre Haute, Ind., and Mrs. Teckla De Wold, of Chicago.

Wrestling Match.

Thursday evening at Mazon Hall before a large crowd of enthusiastic wrestling fans was held two of the best wrestling matches that have ever been given in Dwight.

The first match was between "The Swede from Sibley" and "Cyclone Nelson, and the second was between Tommy Burns and Forberg.

This is the second time that Nelson and the Swede have met. The last match being held at the Opera House and ended in a draw after two hours of wrestling. Nelson was handicapped in the last match on account of the Swede not working as he should, but this match the Swede was more active and Nelson had more of an opportunity to throw him.

During the first bout both Nelson and the Swede worked hard and both were determined to win, but Nelson being a little the better man threw his opponent with a crutch hold and half-Nelson after wrestling for sixty-four minutes.

There was some dispute about this fall, some saying the Swede was not down, but the referee claimed "that the Swede's both shoulders were on the mat when he saw him," and it was in his place to call it a fall.

A ten minute rest was then had, and the second bout was started which was exciting as well as hard fought. And after thirty minutes had passed Nelson threw his man with a scissor on the head, and a body hold. This was a clean and exciting match and from all appearances Nelson is the best man and worked the hardest of the two.

The second match was then started and was a quick and lively bout all the way through, but Burns being the quickest of the two threw his man within twenty-six minutes with a crutch hold and a half-Nelson.

A few minutes rest was had and the second bout was started which resulted in Burns throwing Forberg in twenty-eight minutes with a scissor on the head and a body hold.

Partial Law.

Stephen Swift, at a dinner in Denver, was urging votes for women "Give women votes," he said, "and the law will be better administered. Two poor laborers were talking one day. 'All men are equal, in the eyes of the law,' said the first, who was a conservative. 'Well,' the second, a radical, replied, 'it may well be that we're all equal in the eyes of the law, but I know mighty well that we're not in the hands of the law.'"

Stencil Letters Used by Ancients.

Movable characters were known to the ancients; they were used in teaching children to read. The ancients had also stencil letters, which they used to secure a regular style of penmanship. They even made use of plates, thus opened, containing an entire page; it was placed on the papyrus to guide the pens of children; "an excellent means," saith Quintilian, "to learn them not to exceed the desired proportions." The Emperor Justinian (A. D. 518) could neither read nor write, an unexampled thing in one of such high rank. When it was necessary for him to sign his name, he had a sheet of gold, through which were cut the letters of his name. "Then," said Procopius, "placing this tablet on the paper, one conducted the hand of the prince, holding the stylus dipped in purple on the type of the different letters, and took away in writing furnished with his signature." The same thing is reported of King Theodoris and of Charlemagne.—Charles Winslow Hall in National Magazine.

Admiral Charles Henry Davis, U. S. N., retired, began studying art at sixty-three, and within four years has become one of the foremost American water color landscape artists. He now has thirty-two pictures on exhibition at the Corcoran art gallery in Washington, and says he has only started on his art career. Raus mit Oser!—Nashville Tennessean.

TWO DWIGHT COUPLE MARRIED.

Miss Nellie Beiswanger Becomes Bride of Edw. Sachrison; Miss Lillie Miller Married to Frank Beiswanger.

Wednesday of this week marked the date of the marriage of four of Dwight's popular young people, two of them being from one family. The contracting parties were Miss Nellie Beiswanger and Mr. Edw. E. Sachrison, Miss Lillie Miller and Frank Beiswanger. The ceremonies were not performed at the same place, but immediately after the marriage rites the two couples repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Beiswanger, on West Mazon avenue, where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served to the relatives of the two couples. The four young people are well known in Dwight and have many friends who extend best wishes and congratulations on this important occasion in their lives.

Miss Nellie Beiswanger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Beiswanger, was united in marriage to Mr. Edward E. Sachrison Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the Congregational parsonage, Rev. Farrington performing the ceremony.

The bride wore a handsome gown of cream messaline with a large white hat. She was attended by her sister, Miss Cora Beiswanger, and the groom by his brother, Mr. Harold Sachrison. They left Thursday for their farm north of town where they will make their home.

Miss Lillie Miller and Mr. Frank Beiswanger were married at the residence of Rev. Kisteman, pastor of the German Lutheran church, at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning. Miss Miller wore a very pretty gown of white voile trimmed with fringe. The couple were attended by Miss Mildred Miller and Mr. William Miller, sister and brother of the bride.

They will go to housekeeping at once in a cottage on East Seminolet street.

Chicago Theaters.

Olympic.
It is said that before the announcement of Eva Tangany's return to the Majestic, Chicago, was a day old the demand at the box office for tickets became so urgent that most of the desirable seats for the week were sold before night fall. Thus it became evident that one week would not do at all, and arrangements were at once perfected to prolong Miss Tangany's stay for another week. Aside from Miss Tangany there will be a very strong bill of specialties by notable artists. Edgar Atchinson Ely & Co. will play "Billy's Tombstones;" Cesar Rivoli, a quick change artist and impersonator; The Six Brown Bros. have a comedy musical act, while the Cadets de Gasconne, operatic singers; the Kitamura Japs, acrobats; Paul Barnes, monologist, and Houton & Wooton, whose specialty is football on horseback, will all contribute to a bill which seems quite complete in its entertaining qualities.

Majestic.
Telephone operators from the various Chicago telephone exchanges are flocking in great numbers to the Olympic Theatre to see "The Woman." The principal object of their admiration is Wanda Kelly, the telephone operator, who is the central figure in the Belasco play, which is on the eve of its third month's run at the Olympic Theatre. "The Woman" grips with heart interest and is alive to the spirit of modern life. Those who have seen it once go to see it again and again. It is a clever exposition of political methods and what is more, one of the cleverest analyses of the character of the American woman in the lower and higher walks of life. Miss Gladys Hanson plays the part of Grace Robertson, "The Woman;" Marjorie Wood the telephone operator, Wanda Kelly. Other members of the cast are James Seeley, Oscar Eagle, Starr Walker, Howell Hansel, Hardee Kirkland, Homer Granville, Peter Raymond, Kalman Matus and Frank Austin.

How a "Hoosier" Cabinet Saves Miles of Steps

Your table is the center of all your kitchen work. Everything you take to your stove, to your sink, to your dining room, first goes onto your table. Everything you bring from your pantry, refrigerator, cupboard, cellar, goes onto your table.

If you must walk from place to place to collect these things and put them back again, your kitchen is not ideal. It tires you.

Your ideal kitchen saves these steps by combining in the Hoosier Cabinet a pantry and cupboard around a big table covered with pure aluminum. The Hoosier Cabinet puts everything at your fingers' ends. You can sit down at work. Your table is not cluttered. Spices, sugar, dishes, flour, utensils—everything has its place. You get through quickly.
