RHEUMATISM
This nerve-racking disease is caused from impure blood and uric acid poison. External applications sometimes give temporary relief but won't cure; the sure way to secure permanent results is to thoroughly eradicate from the blood all the impurities. Nothing on earth will drive out the poisons from your system, keep the bowels, kidneys and liver in good condition as SEVEN BARKS, the wonderful remedy that has proved its great merits the past 42 years.
SEVEN BARKS can be had of all druggists, at 50 cents per bottle. Give it a good trial and watch your rheumatism disappear.

evening for Streator, where she will spend some time with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Shepard have been residents of this city for several years past, the former having been an officer at the reformatory. They expect to soon leave for Texas, where they will make their home.
Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Huetson and two daughters arrived in this city Monday for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Earp on West Madison street. This is Mr. Huetson's first visit to this city in twenty-seven years. He formerly resided in this vicinity, but is now located at Minneapolis, Minn., where he represents an eastern safe concern. He finds but few familiar faces and few of the old landmarks in the city.

A HERO OF THE REVOLUTION.
Washington with his army was in the city of New York, just after the battle of Long Island.
By crossing the East River the British might entrap his whole army.
But before winning the battle some of Washington's men must enter the enemy's camp and learn the plans.
"I'll undertake it," said Captain Hale, a brilliant and handsome man, as he walked forward. "I'll do it."
So Captain Hale went and learned the plans, but coming back Captain Hale was captured and soon after hanged.
"I only regret that I have but one life to lose for my country," said Captain Hale's last words.—Loretta Bannon.

A BRAVE BOY.
Jim and his sister Grace were playing in the woods. The shouts of some men had alarmed them. They looked around and they saw a mad dog running towards them. Grace said, "Let us run." Jim said, "Don't, you know that you can't run." Grace said, "Oh, yes." Jim jerked off his coat and wrapped it around his arm.
He held out his arm and the dog seized it. The men came up and killed the animal. Jim was not injured for the dog's teeth could not bite his arm because he wrapped it around so many times.
The men said, "Why didn't you run, you could have escaped easily." Jim said, "I know I could, but my little sister cannot run." The men said, "Why didn't you take her up and run?" Jim said that she was too heavy and then he could not have run. The men said, "What a brave boy you are!"—Walter Moloney.

CHICAGO THEATRES.
Majestic.
Two stellar features of unusual importance, Arnold Daly and Carrie De Mar, are at the top of the list of an exceptional array of entertainers at the Majestic Theatre for the week of March 25. Arnold Daly with a new sketch which will be revealed to the Majestic audiences with a splendid supporting company. Carrie De Mar brings the repertoire of her original songs which have found universal approval. One of her famous songs "Three Days on the Ocean," in which she depicts the hardships of a stormy ocean voyage, together with all the humorous features of sea sickness, is still remembered as one of the sensational hits. Burns & Fulton, one of the cleverest pair of present day dancers, will be one of the novelties, with bits of songs and impersonations. "Fresh from College" is the title of a musical comedy sketch by Conlin, Steel & Carr. Ed. F. Reynolds in "A Morning in Hicksville," is a pleasing entertainment, and Tim Cronin, in monologue, and Herbert's Dog's, complete this unusual bill.

Mrs. H. D. Fisk Passes Away.
Among the many sudden deaths which have occurred in Dwight this winter, none have caused a greater shock to our community than that of Mrs. H. D. Fisk, who passed away about three o'clock Wednesday morning, at her home on West Chippewa street.
Mrs. Fisk had been in feeble health for the past few years, but her condition was not considered very serious, and Tuesday she assisted in the household as usual. Wednesday morning about three o'clock she was taken very ill, and a physician was summoned at once, but before he could reach her she had passed away.

Mrs. Fisk was a woman possessing a beautiful, Christian character. For a number of years she was a valued teacher in our public schools. She was the widow of the late Prof. H. D. Fisk who was one of the most successful superintendents our schools have ever had.
Estella E. Fisk was born in Hillsdale County, Michigan, October 8, 1848, and died March 20, 1912. She was married to Mr. Henry David Fisk in 1878 and to this union were born four children, one son and three daughters, all of whom are living. She also leaves three sisters, Miss Haynes, with whom she was living at the time of her death; Mrs. Sarah L. Meads and Mrs. D. D. Rowley, of Hanover, Mich.
She was a member of the First Congregational church of Dwight.
The funeral services were held Friday morning at 10:30 at her late home, Rev. Farrington officiating, and the body was taken to Chenoa for burial.

Ladies Night.
The first of a series of ladies nights was given at the rooms of the Dwight Commercial Club rooms last Friday evening and proved a very enjoyable occasion.
The object of the club members offering the ladies the privilege of the rooms was to promote a little more sociability and to this end the members of the club were requested to invite their lady friends to come and spend the evening.
Bridge whist and five hundred were enjoyed by those present and a delightful evening spent.
It is proposed to hold these open nights once in two weeks for the present and the next one will be on Friday evening, March 30th, when it is hoped more of the club members will avail themselves of the privilege. All club members are requested to bring their wives, the lady members of their family or some lady friends.

CHICAGO OPERA HOUSE.
Charlotte Walker and "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" are names to conjure with. Presented barely two weeks ago at the Chicago Opera House both star and play won such instant favor with theatregoers that the big theatre has been packed nightly and at matinees to see Eugene Walter's delightful play and the visualization by the splendid company of the primitive mountain folk who were first introduced to lovers of good literature by John Fox, Jr., in the pages of his widely read and charming book. Everyone who has seen Miss Walker's portrayal of June admits that she possesses all the qualities necessary to the realism and naturalness of one of the most interesting book characters ever put upon the stage.
Samuel Leiserowitz, who began his mercantile business in a small frame building in Cullom twenty-three years ago, is making arrangements to close out his business and will retire.

DON'T KNOW THEY HAVE APPENDICITIS.
Many Dwight people who have chronic appendicitis, which is not very painful, have doctored for years for gas on the stomach, sour stomach or constipation. J. A. O'Malley, Drug-gist, states if these people will try simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-Ika, the German appendicitis remedy, they will be surprised at the QUICK benefit. A SINGLE DOSE relieves these troubles INSTANTLY.
