EMINGTON

R. Smith was a county seat caller Tuesday. J. Eich was a Cullom caller Saturday afternoon. P. Nolte called on his parents Tuesday afternoon. H. West was a Campus passenger Monday morning. J. Lower was a Campus passenger Saturday forenoon. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. F. Taylor, Monday evening, a girl baby. Mrs. A. Heffron visited relatives near Dwight last of the week. A. Clover, of Bloomington, was a caller in town last of the week. L. Sullivan entertained relatives from near Odell Saturday and Sunday. The dance at Saunemin Saturday night was the attraction for folks from here. Helps a Judge in Bad Fix. Justice Eli Cherry, of Gillis Mills, Tenn., was plainly worried. A bad sore on his leg had baffled several doctors and long resisted all remedies. "I thought it was a cancer," he wrote. "At last I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and was completely cured." Cures burns, boils, ulcers, cuts, bruises and piles. 25 cents at all druggists. The Demons of the Swamp are mosquitos. As they sting they put deadly malaria germs in the blood. Then follow the icy chills and the fires of fever. The appetite flies and the strength falls; also malaria often paves the way for deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters kill and cast out the malaria germs from the blood; give you a fine appetite and renew your strength. "After long suffering," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "three bottles drove all the malaria from my system, and I've had good health ever since." Best for all stomach, liver and kidney ills. 50 cents at all druggists. Lame back is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles of the back, for which you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment. For sale by all druggists.

ROUND GROVE

Joe Green shelled his corn last week. Jim Seamark is bothered with rheumatism. Wesley Brown shelled corn last Saturday. Mr. Frank Hughs has bought a couple of good cows. Mrs. and Lucy Chapple called at

An Arbor day program was given at the Neville school on Friday afternoon of last week. Mrs. James Williams, Mrs. John Burkhardt and Mrs. Thomas Neville were present and enjoyed the program.

More rain, more grass for the cows. Have you built a cyclone cellar yet? Better get busy if you haven't. Mr. and Mrs. Christie Krug and Miss Ella Pillman were in Morris Saturday. Mrs. Beltz, of Gardner, spent the later part of the week with Mrs. Chas. Rogers. Harry Crane is now able to be out after being laid up two weeks with rheumatism. A few have oats to sow yet, so we are informed, but they had better keep them in the bin. Miss Bertha Smith returned home Saturday after a three weeks' visit with relatives at Chicago. Lois Weber attended a teachers' meeting and made a short visit with home folks Saturday. Miss Weber has been employed as teacher for another year at the Red school with an advance in salary. Mrs. A. J. Burkhardt, Mrs. Chas. Rogers and Mrs. J. W. Smith spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Will Burkhardt, where they made a comforter to present to one of those who suffered from the effects of the cyclone. The directors of the Mason Farmers Elevator Co. completed the selling of their stock for the new elevator to be built on the K. & S. road at Booth Station. The contract has been let and the new elevator will be completed in time for the new oats harvest. The Gardner Choral Union held the audience at the Gleaner Hall last Thursday evening spellbound for two hours. There were twenty-five voices in the group and was said by everybody to have been the best every lig-

Oklahoma, where her health was somewhat improved until a change for the worse came three weeks ago, resulting in death April 19, at the age of 63 years. The body was brought to the home here April 20, by Mr. G. P. Smith, who was with her at the time of her death. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Pearce, of Verona, and interment at Ward cemetery on Wednesday, April 24. Relatives mourn the loss of a willing sister, a devoted wife, and above all, a most kind and loving mother. Friends and neighbors miss a helping hand which was always lent in time of need. The deceased leaves her husband, four sons, three daughters, one sister, one brother and five grandchildren, besides a host of friends. The sons are, Harry, of Montana; Frank, of Kankakee, Ill.; Ray and George, at home. The daughters are, Mrs. Nettie McCowan, of Chicago; Mrs. Nina Sealey, of Joliet; Mrs. Maude Brewer, of Oklahoma City; a sister, Mrs. Barber, of Joliet, and a brother, Mr. Smith, of California. The family has the sympathy extended from the entire neighborhood. Among those present from a distance to attend the funeral was Mr. T. W. Smith, of York, Neb., a brother of Mr. Smith. Card of Thanks. We wish to extend to our many friends our sincere thanks for the kindness shown us in our late bereavement, and for the many beautiful flowers that were sent. GEO. P. SMITH AND FAMILY. What Texans Admire is hearty, vigorous life, according to Hugh Tallman, of San Antonio. "We find," he writes, "that Dr. King's New Life Pills surely put new life and energy into a person. Wife and I believe they are the best made." Excellent for stomach, liver or kidney troubles. 25 cents at all druggists.

Stimulate Children? Ask your doctor how often he prescribes an alcoholic stimulant for children. He will probably say, "Very, very rarely." Ask him how often he prescribes a tonic for them. He will probably answer, "Very, very frequently." Then ask him about Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a strong and safe tonic for the young. Not a drop of alcohol in it. Always keep a box of Ayer's Pills in the bedside, now and then, will ward off a biliousness, indigestion, or sick headache. How many years has your doctor known about them. J. Lowell, Mass.
