From all over the country the boys of Fred Bennett Camp are receiving encouragement and boosting in their efforts to boom the state encampment of the United Spanish War Veterans, to be held in Pontiac June 14 and 15. Friends in other towns and the members residing there are pushing things along in good shape. From Colonel Frank L. Smith, of Dwight, the boys received a handsome donation toward the heavy expense of the encampment. Colonel Smith has always been a good friend of the order and the boys have a warm spot in their hearts for him.—Pontiac Leader.

SCHOOL NEWS

Quick Meal Gasoline Stoves at Cosgrove & Larsen's. Mrs. Lee Potter and baby are visiting relatives in Bloomington. Remember the Hoosier, there ought to be one in your home. Baker's. Maj. C. J. Judd has gone to Hartland, Wis., on a fishing expedition. Miss Besse Reeder went to Streator Friday morning to visit friends for a few days. Mrs. J. B. Austin and son, George, of Lincoln, Neb., arrived here Friday for a visit with relatives. The Dwight Opera House, which has been managed by John Dieter the past year, was again taken by A. L. Orr, who will resume the management from now on, Mr. Dieter's lease having expired Wednesday, June 5. Drew & McConnell, excavating contractors on the paving in our city, completed their work, with the exception of Prairie avenue, which street could not be closed at the present time, and left for Sullivan, Ill., where they have a similar contract. Miss Hazel Goodman arrived home last Saturday after completing her season's work as milliner at Sterling, Ill. She was accompanied by Miss Maud (Ivens) Boomer and baby, of Chicago, who will visit in Dwight a couple of weeks. Guy Tanner and Thomas Tanner returned Sunday from a month's trip in the east. They report a delightful time sightseeing in Washington and their stay there was made very pleasant by the kindness of our Congressman, Mr. John Sterling. They spent some time in Virginia; visited New York City, Albany, Saratoga Springs and other places of interest in New York and came home by the way of Niagara Falls.

A state warrant has been issued here for the arrest of P. O. Orlinger, who has been working several teams on the paving here, which has been in progress for some time. It seems as though Mr. Orlinger received payment for his work here one day this week and that he at once left town together with his teams, beating his board bill and a number of other bills that he owed here. Sheriff Patterson and our local police are endeavoring to locate him. Mr. L. C. Hood, for some time ticket agent here on the C. I. & S. Ry., has been transferred to Granville, Ill., where he assumes a more responsible position. J. W. Grady, who has been operator here, takes Mr. Hood's position as agent. These changes take effect the first of next week. Mr. Hood has been a popular agent here and his many friends will be sorry to learn of his leaving town but will be glad to know that he is getting a better position. Mr. Grady's friends will also be glad to hear of his well earned promotion. Word was learned here this week that William Jordan, a former Dwight boy and son of Mrs. Jordan, of this city, was injured some time ago in a railroad wreck in Missouri, and is now in a hospital in Kansas City. One of Mr. Jordan's legs was severely mashed and every effort is being done to save it from being amputated. Silver blood vessels and cords have been put in his leg and other means of medical assistance have been used. It is thought that he will have to remain in the hospital for six months more before his complete recovery.

Cruel Monarch.
At the annual prize giving at Woodford House School, Croydon, England, Mr. Ian Malcolm, M. P., addressed the girls, and Mrs. Malcolm gave away the prizes. Mr. Malcolm told the girls that they must be thorough in all that they did, work with understanding, and not mind asking questions, or they would end by being superficial. To illustrate this, he told the story of a little girl who informed her mother she had been learning about King John. Her mother inquired what she had learned, and was told that he was a very cruel man, who rode all over the country in motor cars and ran over people! Her mother was amazed, and inquired what she meant, to which the girl replied: "Well, mother, Miss Jones did say he ground the people down with heavy taxes."

F. L. Smiths Defeat Kinsman Greys.

The F. L. Smiths attended by a large number of fan rooters from here journeyed to Kinsman Sunday in automobiles, where they defeated the Kinsman Greys. The game was fast and exciting but was somewhat one-sided, Dwight getting one run in the third inning and seven runs in the fourth by good hitting and Kinsman's poor fielding. Kinsman scored two runs in the fourth also, but were unable to get any more throughout the rest of the game. Dwight succeeded in getting one more run in the ninth and the game ended with a score of 9 to 2 in favor of the F. L. Smiths. Flood and Foster were the battery for the F. L. Smiths and had the Kinsman Greys guessing at all times. Baker, the new second baseman for the Smiths, played a fast game and did well with the stick, but was hurt in the eighth inning while sliding home. Mickelson took his place for the remainder of the game. The following is the score of the game:

The Morris Reds will be the attraction Sunday, June 9, at West Side Park. This is sure to be a good game as intense rivalry exists between these teams. Morris claims the championship of Grundy county and will endeavor to even up with the boys in Livingston county for the games they lost at the Grundy County Fair at Mazon last fall. The coming attractions are St. Bedes College, June 16, and Cabery Defenders, June 23. The management will endeavor to book some good games this year and expect a liberal patronage from the public to maintain the expenses of keeping the grounds in first-class shape and paying the bills. If the fans want baseball games, come out to the next game and help swell the gate receipts.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Miss Jessie Miller United in Marriage to Mr. Louis Federman, of Cleveland, Ohio. Wednesday evening, June 5th, at six o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, occurred the marriage of Miss Jessie Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Miller, to Mr. Louis Federman, of Cleveland, Ohio. The impressive Jewish ceremony was performed by Rabbi Levy, son-in-law of the eminent Dr. Emil Hirsch, of Chicago. The bride was attended by Mrs. Herman Freiberger, of Cleveland, Ohio, and the best man was Mr. Julius Adler. The house was artistically decorated with peonies, syringas, roses and smilax. The bride was beautiful in an imported lingerie gown over white satin, and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and lilies of the valley. The matron of honor wore her wedding robe of white satin, and carried a leghorn basket filled with pink sweet peas, and tied with satin streamers. The bride entered with her father, and was preceded by little Maxine Fox, of Pontiac, who strewed rose petals as she walked. Mr. Harry Miller acted as Master of Ceremony. Congratulations followed the ceremony, after which the guests partook of a delicious dinner served by Kost, of Chicago. Scatterday's orchestra, of Pontiac, furnished the music. Many relatives from out of town attended, and numerous congratulatory messages were received. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Federman will reside in Cleveland, Ohio. The bride is one of Dwight's most estimable and lovable young ladies and the STAR and HERALD extend to her and her husband best wishes for a happy and prosperous life together.
