CONRAD-HAHN.

Pretty Home Wedding Took Place Sunday Evening.

Sunday evening at 5:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, occurred the marriage of Miss Edith Conrad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Conrad, to Mr. Edward Hahn, the oldest son of Mrs. Leonard Hahn, Rev. O. J. Kisteman, of the German Lutheran Church, performing the ceremony.

The bride was attired in a beautiful white dress and wore a long white veil and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Ada Hahn, sister of the groom. Mrs. Oliver Snyder, of Bremen, Ind., matron of honor, was also attired in white and carried a bouquet of beautiful pink roses.

The groom was attended by his brother, Harry, as best man and Mr. Oliver Snyder as groomsman.

The room was beautifully decorated with roses, peonies and asparagus and the ceremony took place in the bay window under a beautiful mass of flowers. As the bridal couple marched in the room Miss Lydia Simantle sang, "I Love You Truly."

Immediately after the ceremony congratulations were extended by all present and a delicious wedding dinner was served.

The newly married couple left on the Hummer in the evening for a honeymoon trip to Indianapolis, Ind., and will be at home on East Franklin street after two weeks.

Edward Hahn is a prominent young grocery merchant of Dwight and has been in business for himself only for a short while.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Conrad, of this city, and lately of Indiana.

Those from out of town who attended the wedding were Misses Bertha and Jessie Schroeder and Mr. Louis Schroeder, of Streator.

The following was clipped from an Urbana paper:

"The engagement of Miss Birdie Busch, one of this city's most popular young women, and Mr. Fred J. Foersterling, of Peoria, was announced in a unique manner at a party given Tuesday afternoon by the bride-elect's sister, Mrs. W. E. Baker, of Danville, at the home of their mother, Mrs. Carrie Busch, 411 West Main street.

"The wedding is to take place on the evening of June 19 at the bride's home in Peoria, where the groom is employed by the Gas and Electric Co. He is a graduate of the University of Illinois with the class of 1911.

"Twenty-four guests were present at Mrs. Baker's announcement party, which was held on the lawn amid beautiful decorations of palms and roses. At 6 o'clock a dinner was served in six courses, during which time the announcement of the approaching wedding was made by means of souvenirs representing the proverbial "cat in the bag." The announcement was written in verse."
