Corn is a little backward this season on account of the cold weather encountered during the early part of June and as a consequence there was not much corn to be found "knee high by the Fourth of July." But most farmers have good stands and with favorable weather now the prospects will be good for a bountiful crop this fall.

CUT IT OUT!

Heroic treatment for a corn, which has no right to be on the human toe, is to open your handy old corn razor and cut it out.

There are bad habits and practices which people ought to cut out, though no razor is needed for the amputating process. For instance, it is a bad practice to get in the habit of buying things through Mail Order concerns when you can buy to better advantage—the mutual advantage of yourself and your neighbor—at the stores in your own town.

If you have acquired this habit take the Razor of Resolution, hone it on the hone of Mutual Interests, strop it on the strop of Town Improvement and—
