Gone But Not Forgotten.
Mrs. Clara Meyer Falk died at her home Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, September 4, 1912.
She was born at Kirksville, Iowa, February 13, 1883, around which place the most of her life was spent. In 1900 she moved with her parents to Campus, Ill., and a year later to Cardiff, where she lived until her death.
On September 28, 1908, she was united in marriage to Mr. George Falk, of Cardiff, and to this union one little girl, Alta, was born. Clara M. Falk was beloved by all who knew her. She was stricken with appendicitis, then with cancer, of which her illness lasted about eight months. The last few weeks was spent at home among her friends.
She leaves to mourn her loss a husband, daughter, mother, three brothers, Victor, of Hamilton, Ohio; Frank, of Milo, Mo.; Joe, of Buckingham, Ill., and three sisters, Mary and Margaret, of Hamilton, Ohio, and Mrs. Goldie Roquet, of Cedar Point, Ill.
The remains were taken away Friday to Peru for burial.
