The Odell band came up to Dwight Monday evening on the B., P. & J. and played several selections on our streets for the purpose of trying to induce some of our citizens to go to Pontiac to attend the Bull Moose rally. The music was appreciated by a large number, but as far as taking anyone back with them their work proved almost a failure.
The following was received at this office: "Dwight, Ill., September 4, 1912. Mr. W. G. Dustin, Dwight, Ill.—My Dear Sir:—Through your paper as an advertising medium and by personal effort we are glad to state that the attendance of the C. E. society meetings during July and August increased 420 per cent over the previous months. We believe part of this success was due to your paper, in which you have so kindly advertised these meetings. Allow us to thank you for your kindness in behalf of the Kingdom of God.—Very sincerely, Lillian C. Kime, Augusta Schumm, F. F. Farrington, Look Out Committee."
