Brass Beds That Can Be Relied Upon

We fully appreciate the difficulties the prospective buyer of a brass bed finds in obtaining a truthful and correct answer to the question—

Which is the Best Make of Brass Bed on the Market?

We have been dealing with this question for years; we have investigated many makes of brass beds at the furniture markets and through the many years we have been selling them and we feel qualified to give an opinion on the subject.

This season we offer you brass beds finished with the Damarda Lacquer that is absolutely guaranteed. Every brass bed that we sell is warranted not to tarnish.

You Can Wash Them With Soap and Water

like a common iron bed and the finish is in no way injured. With every brass bed bought from us there goes an insurance policy guaranteeing the bed against tarnishing. No insurance company would do this unless they knew that the beds would stand the test.

As a result, we are prepared to state that there is no make of brass beds superior to those finished in Damarda Lacquer. They must give entire satisfaction at all times—you have, as protection your insurance policy.

You pay the price that suits your purse best. We have 75 different patterns with a price range of

$8.50 to $75.00

We refund railroad fare one way on purchase of $10; round trip on purchase of $20.
