"The Big Store of Big Values"

Streator - Illinois

Serge Suits, $13.75

This is a big value and only the fact that we are heavy buyers made it possible for us to secure such a price concession. Everything in this suit is reliable from the serge to the braid that trims the reverses. The jacket is made in the popular cut-away effect and adds the last style touch needed to make this suit come up to the requirements of the woman who likes neat fashionable clothes.

Chinchilla Coats, $10 and $15

Chinchilla is the material most used for coats that must stand hard wear and still retain their stylish appearance. The tailoring in the coats at the above prices is high class and the lines graceful. All in all a very good looking coat and no better value on the market.

Children's Chinchilla Coats, $2.98 and $5.00
