Fred Burkhardt, one of Goodfarm's oldest settlers, died at his home in Goodfarm at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening. Mr. Burkhardt has probably had more of the pioneer's experience than any of the residents here. He helped to turn a wilderness of prairies into the fertile fields they are to-day. He never speculated but made his money by hard work and economy. He was born in Germany. He was 83 years old. He leaves a wife, eight children, twenty-three grandchildren, and six great grandchildren, and a host of friends to mourn his loss.

The land sale here Saturday did not draw out a very large crowd and the land was bid in at $197.25.

R. J. Aherm had to leave his auto in Emington election day on account of the rain. He returned for it Saturday.
Small, which occurred Monday at 3 a. m., at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. B. Waite, of Denver, Col. Only Saturday, November 9, the deceased, arrived at Denver, after leaving her home here to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Paxton, better known as "Grandma" and "Aunt Sarah," had been ill and bedfast for several weeks, with a complication of diseases due to advanced age. The body was brought back, accompanied by the daughter and granddaughter, Miss Edna Waite, to the home of the deceased's son, Jno. Paxton, in Goodfarm township, arriving Thursday morning. The funeral took place at the Goodfarm Chapel, of which Mrs. Paxton had always been a close member, Friday morning, at 10:30. Burial was made at Ward cemetery. The husband and two sons preceded the mother to the land beyond, years ago.
Mrs. Paxton was born in the state of Maine on January 16, 1830, dying at the age of 82 years.
When a young girl she came to the state of Illinois with her parents, where she had always since resided. Deceased leaves to mourn her loss one daughter, Mrs. Zelma Waite, of Denver, Col.; one son, Jno. Paxton, Goodfarm; one sister, Mrs. Susan Gilmore, of Shenandoah, Iowa; two grandsons, Arthur and Charles Paxton; two great granddaughters, and five brothers, namely, Joseph Small, of Gardner, Ill.; Shepard Small, of Mazon, Ill.; Frank Small, of Lockport, Ill.; Nathaniel Small, of Verona, Ill.; Henry Small, of Highland township; besides a host of other relatives and friends.
Rev. J. W. Smith, of Buda, Ill., formerly of the Goodfarm Chapel, delivered the funeral sermon. The family and relatives have the sympathy of the entire neighborhood who will miss a devoted mother, grandmother and great grandmother, and the friends far and near, who will miss a most kind and faithful friend.

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW
What a Heap of Happiness It Would Bring to Dwight Homes.
Hard to do housework with an aching back.
Brings you hours of misery at leisure or at work.
If women only knew the cause—that
Backache pains often come from weak kidneys.
'Twould save much needless woe.
Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.
Many residents of this vicinity endorse them.
Mrs. John Lamontague, 159 Court St., Kankakee, Ill., says: "I have been a sufferer from pains and soreness across my back for a long time. I had headaches and dizzy spells and a tired, worn-out feeling. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and as soon as I used them, my troubles began to disappear. I continued taking this remedy until I was well."
Mrs. Lamontague gave the above testimonial in December, 1908, and when interviewed on April 1, 1912, she said: "I am glad to confirm my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. They made a permanent cure." For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.—Adv.
