"The Big Store of Big Values"

Streator - Illinois

Furs and Fur Coats of a Quality that Endures

Buying Furs is a considerable investment and, in some stores, more or less of a speculation. They belong to that small number of things in which value and perfection count above every thing else and few articles of personal adornment are more expressive of one's individuality.

When one takes these matters into consideration, also the fact that only an expert Fur buyer is competent to judge Furs, the question of selecting your Furs, is simply a question of deciding on a place like this where reputation for integrity and maximum value giving is always maintained.

Generous Values in Furs

Natural mink sets	$75, $150, $250
Genuine black martin sets	125.00
Natural opossum sets	25.
