Cadillac 1913

The new 1913 Cadillac with its wonderful improved starting and lighting equipment makes it one of the simplest cars on the market. During the season of 1912 the Cadillac Self-Starter received a great deal of comment among the superstitious. Of course a great deal of this was stirred up by competition; we had to tolerate with this and say nothing, but--

The season of 1913 tells a different story. Everybody wants electric lights and starter now, and with the improvement the Cadillac engineers have brought out on the 1913 car make it a machine that any lady can drive.

WE THINK OUR BABY IS THE PRETTIEST.

SANTA WRITES A LETTER

SANTA'S CALL

By JAMES A. EDGERTON

COPYRIGHT, 1912, BY AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

WHEN Bobby wrote to Santa Claus,
Inviting him to call,
Bob's mother said that Santa would
If Bobby only would be good,
Which is the way that mothers should
Reply to urchins small
Who write a note to Santa Claus,
Expecting him to call.

I know not why a typewriter
Was put to such a use.
To answer thus a social note
Would get 'most anybody's goat.
For rank, bad form it has my vote;
'Twas socially obtuse;
But Santa is a busy man
And that was his excuse.

When Santa Claus got Bobby's note,
He chuckled quite a lot;
Down at his typewriter he sat
And wrote an answer, saying that
He'd love to call and have a chat,
He'd be there on the dot;
For somehow Bobby's little note
Had hit his tender spot.

On Christmas Santa Claus dropped in,
Down through the chimney flue.
He told such tales of land and sea
That Bobby often murmured "Geel!"
And Bobby's sister laughed in glee—
I'm sure that you would, too;
And if you'd write to Santa Claus,
Perhaps he'd call on you.
