JENKINS-ERFTT.

Popular Young Couple Married in this City Wednesday Evening.

One of the prettiest church weddings ever solemnized in this city took place in the Methodist Episcopal Church Wednesday evening at seven o'clock, when Miss Hazel Jenkins, of this city, was united in marriage to Mr. Frederick Erfft, of Chicago, Rev. George H. McClung performing the ceremony.

Miss Edith Bartholic and Mr. L. F. Kime, violinist, played Lohengrin's wedding march as the young couple marched up the aisle and while the ceremony was being performed played softly and sweetly, "All that I ask is Love."

The bride was dressed in a beautiful gown of white crepe meteor trimmed in lace, and carried bridal roses with streamers knotted with lilies of the valley. Her attendants were Miss Loretta Erfft, sister of the groom, and Miss Pearl Meier as bridesmaids, and Miss Alice Jenkins, sister of the bride, as maid of honor. They were dressed in pink satin with pale pink carnations and maline bows in hair. The flower girls were the Misses Florence and Grace Bergman, who were dressed in white China silk and carried lilies of the valley and carnations. The groom was attended by Albert Worby, Archibald Spencer and Howard Deliere.

The church was handsomely and artistically decorated in green, pink and white.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple and wedding party departed for the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Jenkins, on Waupansie street, where a three-course dinner was served at 8:30 o'clock. About fifty guests were present who participated in this elaborate banquet.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Jenkins, of this city, and is a very popular and charming young lady. For the past year she has been employed in the millinery department at Miller Bros. & Sons store.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Erfft, of Pontiac, and was employed in this city for some time by the Central Union Telephone Co. at which time he became acquainted with the bride. He is at present employed in Chicago as signal maintainer, where he and his bride will make their future home.

The following from out of town were present at the wedding: Dr. and Mrs. Middleton, Pontiac; Dr. and Mrs. Young, Pontiac; Mr. and Mrs. Erfft and daughters, Pontiac; Mrs. D. Schlosser, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Upham, Mokenca; Miss Lella Jenkins, Algona, Ia.; Miss Alta Leach, Mr. Hutton, Mr. Ritton, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. L. Parker, Mrs. J. Wiley, all of Kankakee, Ill.

CHANGE SYSTEM.

Central Union Telephone Company Have Completed New System.

The Central Union Telephone Company, who for the past few months have been erecting a new exchange building and preparing for a new system in this city, moved into their new building and made the change last Thursday evening.

The work of changing from the old to the new exchange in all lines was accomplished in the short time of one minute and forty-five seconds and at 9:30 everything was in full operation. Although the new system has been in operation since last Thursday it was not fully completed until this week as from four to five days were spent in changing all telephones in town.

The Company have spent a nice large sum of money installing this new system and are only to be congratulated by the people of this city on their new work. The system is now not only better, but affords lots quicker service than in the past.

The Company invite the presence of anyone in looking over their new exchange building and will be willing to answer all questions in regard to same.

High Price for Land.

The Woosly farm, two miles north of Eureka, was sold last week for $72,000. H. K. Schertz bought 120 acres for $212.50 an acre and Nathan and C. A. Fehr the other 120 at $287.50.

MARRIED.

Mr. Carl F. Jennings, of East St. Louis, Wins Bride in This City.

Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lilla Reed, on West South street in this city, was solemnized the marriage of Mr. Carl F. Jennings, of East St. Louis, to Miss Carrie Reed, Rev. George H. McClung, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, officiating.

Following the ceremony a very delicious wedding dinner was served.

The bride and groom departed on the 1:18 train for East St. Louis, where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Jennings is the only daughter of Mrs. Lilla Reed, of this city, and has lived here practically all her life. She is a graduate of the Dwight high school and for a short time taught school in this vicinity.

Mr. Jennings is a prominent young man of East St. Louis, and is employed by Swift & Company as live stock accountant.

Mr. and Mrs. Jennings were both given a hearty reception and a shower of rice by their many friends upon their departure from this city.

ORWIG-KLEIN.

Quiet Wedding Takes Place at Bonfield, Illinois.

On Thursday, December 19, at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. Allen Orwig, occurred the marriage of Miss Ora May Orwig, of Bonfield, Ill., to Mr. Norman Alvin Klein, of near Dwight. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William Albright.

The marriage was a private affair, taking place in the presence of Mr. Orwig's family only.

The happy couple departed on the evening train, amid showers of rice, for Dwight, where they will reside on the groom's father's farm, southeast of this city.
