Mr. J. R. Oughton, accompanied by Dr. James H. Oughton, leaves the last of the week for Richmond, Virginia, where he will later be joined by Mrs. Oughton. Work on their winter home, Mt. Bernard, in the vicinity of Richmond, is progressing nicely. Mr. Oughton reports having spent an ideal November there.

New Year's Eve was certainly celebrated here in grand style. The sound of whistles, the ringing of bells, and other harmonious shrieks let everyone know that the New Year had arrived. The old fire whistle which had been placed on the hay press factory for the occasion, was also heard again after being silent for several years.

Making money is one of the satisfactions in life. Doing business that pleases your customers is another. When you do both at once you have solved the great problem of commerce. We have a kitchen cabinet, the construction of which has no rival, and telling you its good points would be a pleasure. May we have the chance? The West Side Furniture Co.—Home of the Hastings Cabinet.—Adv.

Mrs. Clara Evans, of Garfield, Wash., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Hill and other relatives for the past few weeks, left Monday morning for Chicago on her way to Iowa, where she will visit other relatives for a few weeks before returning to her home in Garfield. Mrs. Hill has not seen her sister for twenty-one years. She tells of the wonderful climate and the country. They raise so much garden truck and get so little price for it, they seldom harvest it all. The kind of potatoes we are using here, they would not pick up. The apple crop is so plentiful this year that they can be had for the picking up where one don't have trees of their own.

Dr. Brown, a specialist from the Cleveland Institute of Medicine and Surgery, of Cleveland, Ohio, will be at the Grand Central Hotel in this city Thursday, January 23.—Adv.

The bowling contest at Peter Beier's was ended Wednesday night. The $5 gold piece for the best three ten-pin scores was won by Mike Maloy, with an average of 197 1-3. The $2.50 for the best three scores of five-pins was won by Hans Seaman, with an average of 72 2-3.

The dance given by the Knights of Columbus New Year's Eve was a grand success both socially and financially. There were one hundred and forty-six tickets sold and all present enjoyed the pleasure of tripping the light fantastic up to the last minute of the old year and also broke in a few hours on the new.

Wm. Morris made an adjustment of his fire loss through the Frank L. Smith agency. This is one of the quickest adjustments ever made here, and was particularly pleasing to Mr. Morris as he was not certain that he had any household insurance, which the Frank L. Smith agency had renewed for him without letting it expire.—Adv.
