Death of John Korreck.

The above named will be remembered here by all the older residents. He was a man of high character, genial in disposition, and popular with all. He lived near Dwight for eighteen years. We take the following obituary from the Armstrong (Iowa) Journal:

John Korreck was born at Ninekirchen, Germany, March 24, 1845. When a boy eleven years old, he emigrated with his parents to America, and settled at Peru, Illinois. There he continued to reside for six years. On November 18, 1866, he was married to Marie Josephine Trecker, at Richmond, Illinois. He and his wife remained in Richmond for eleven years or until 1876, when they moved to Dwight, Illinois. Dwight was their home until 1895 when they moved to Iowa, locating on a farm near Swea City. In 1910 they retired from the farm, moving to Armstrong where he continued to reside until his death. To Mr. and Mrs. Korreck, ten children were born all of whom are living except the youngest son, Henry, who died March 12, 1911. Of the nine children who with the wife are left to mourn, are six daughters and three sons. The sons are: William of near here, and John and George of this place. The daughters: Mrs. J. E. Scully, of Seneca; Mrs. Bert Turnbaugh, of Swea City; Mrs. Anton Guerdet, of near here, and the Misses Lizzie, Rose and Minnie who live at home. During his illness Mr. Korreck suffered much but through it all he bore up bravely. He was aware that there was no hope of his recovery, but he had traveled the path of the just, and felt no concern regarding the journey to the other side. It was not the writer's privilege to be personally acquainted with Mr. Korreck, but from those who knew him best we hear only words of unstinted praise. A large delegation of sorrowing friends followed the remains of John Korreck to their final resting place last Saturday, a fact that speaks louder than words of mortal man.

Those from afar who attended the funeral were: Wm. Saltz, Joseph Theil and Mrs. Henry Walchembach, all of Leonore, Illinois. Clement Steichen and Dennis Heinen of Dwight, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Trecker, of Carroll, Iowa; C. M. Matern, of Wesley; Stephen Guerdet, of Graettinger; Ed. Flemming, of Sioux Falls, S. D.; Peter Dalhauser and Peter, Chas. and Wm. Kollasch, of Whittemore.

Death of Daniel Heenan.

Hon. D. Heenan, of Streator, the head of the great mercantile house of that city, died Tuesday at his home of pneumonia and paralysis. The deceased was quite prominent in democratic politics and was state central committeeman for years and at one time a penitentiary commissioner. He was a very able business man, and very popular among his many acquaintances. He leaves two sons, and the business will continue without interruption.

His Intentions.

"Young man," said Major Blackbrow, with a lowering glance at Chollic. "I happened to see you last night with your arm about my daughter's waist. May I inquire your intentions, sir?" "Why, sure, major," replied the blooming Chollic. "I intend to put it there every chance I get."—Harper's Weekly.
