Frank L. Smiths Win Joke Game from Peoria Independents, 13 to 3.

The Frank L. Smiths pined on account of their poor work at Washburn Saturday and determined to show the fans that they were still entitled to the name that they have defended in numerous diamond battles this season.

The Independents were certainly a great disappointment to the fans here. Following is the score by innings and the line-up:

Score table for Frank L. Smiths vs Peoria Independents.

Two base hits—F. Flood (2), Cone and Kramer. Three base hit—Burns. Home runs—Kern, F. Flood and Burns. Struck out—By Flood, 9; Gorman, 4; by Warner, 1.

Paderni celebrated his return to the Smiths by batting .1000, five singles.

for any one in Dwight will believe they have any intentions of meeting the F. L. Smiths. Brees is undoubtedly a good pitcher but it takes eight men besides a pitcher to beat the Smiths and if he ever does come to Dwight we hope he will have some help.
