At a called meeting of those interested in the reorganization of the Spencer Hay Press Manufacturing Co. at the rooms of the Dwight Commercial Club last Tuesday evening about $2,000 more was subscribed. This came partly from those who had already subscribed and from some who had not previously given anything. There was not very much enthusiasm shown and it would almost look as if the community was indifferent as to the outcome. This is hardly the proper spirit to be shown and it is hoped that some plan may be reached soon whereby the reorganization may be assured and the factory continue on a larger basis than ever before.

It's No Humming Bird

THE merry hum of a Rumely-Olds Engine is music to these boys. Since it came to the farm there's no more need for "elbow grease" on any kind of work. All work looks like play to them now and the Rumely-Olds is the busiest "bee" around the place.

Now instead of having to turn any of the machines for shelling, grinding or for any other purpose they simply belt up the Rumely-Olds and are ready for business. You'll own one some day.

If you can't find time to come in and see us, ask us to come and see you or send you a catalog of Rumely-Olds Engines.

We're here to serve you;
Give us a chance.
