FROM MORRIS

MISS ANNA CARNEY AND FREDERICK GABLE MARRIED.—NEW RAILROAD FROM YORKVILLE TO MORRIS COMPLETED.—TWO DIVORCES GRANTED LAST WEEK.—JOHN WILLIAMS PARDONED FROM STATE PRISON

J. J. Hutchings, of Morris, has been appointed public administrator for Grundy county to succeed Frank Hayes, who resigned a week ago.

Miss Catherine Kenny, of Morris, and Mack Cosgrove, of Seneca, went to Joliet Thursday afternoon and were quietly married. They intended to keep the affair a secret but their plans were discovered by their friends.

Thieves broke into a car on the Rock Island switch track and got off at Joliet after stealing several hundred dollars worth of goods. The goods already packed for carrying away were found along the right of way but it is thought the thieves had no chance to come and get it.

E. S. Morahn, of Sheridan, La Salle county, has been appointed Canal Commissioner by Governor Dunne to fill the place left vacant by the expiration of the term of W. L. Sackett, of Morris. The new appointee is a Democrat and it is reported that he is a capable man and well qualified for the position.

The remains of Mrs. Jameson, of Chicago, were brought here Friday morning and interred in the Evergreen cemetery beside her sister, Mrs. G. C. Ridings. Services were conducted by Rev. J. H. MacArthur, in the mausoleum chapel and vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. Ralph Davis and James Penn.

In the circuit court at Morris two divorces were granted by Judge Stough last week. Caroline Sweet was given a divorce from Louis Sweet on the ground of drunkenness; defendant did not appear. John C. How was granted his freedom from his wife, Lillie How, on a charge of desertion. Mrs. How did not appear. They have one daughter.

A case involving the drainage of road and lands in Saratoga was decided in Judge Stough's court Saturday in favor of the road commissioners who brought the suit against one Jacobsen. The latter had plugged up a tile that carried water through his land and the suit was the result. The commissioners were represented by Frank Hayes and the defendant by C. Reardon and J. L. O'Donnell, of Joliet.

The Odd Fellows held a banner session at their hall Friday evening and a team from La Salle performed the initiatory ceremony upon Coroner W. G. Sachse and City Attorney L. E. Simrall. Many visiting members were present in addition to a large crowd of local members and a great time was enjoyed by everyone. A fine supper was served in the dining room of the lodge and after all had eaten the Noble Grand, Harry Lindon, called upon the various members for speeches and songs. Some splendid talks were given and also some fine singing was enjoyed.

The trial of E. Woelfel vs. Dan Hynds began in the circuit court Monday morning and a long time was spent in securing a jury. The trial is about some money that was subscribed to start up an insurance company and which Woelfel claims was not used for the proper purpose or else misrepresentations were indulged in and he asks for the return of the money. Mr. Hynds secured several thousand dollars from local people and this suit when decided will decide the rest. Frank Hayes, J. W. Rusch and J. M. Cleary, of Kansas City, are representing the defendant while the Woelfel case is being taken care of by Attorneys C. F. Hanson and H. B. Smith.

The court house and jail committee for Grundy county met Monday afternoon to open bids for supplying the court house and jail with coal and also for the task of conducting the county farm for the coming year. The elevator company of Mazon received the contract for coal and agreed to furnish Wilmington coal for $2.95 per ton. James Derenzy, the present county farmer, and Harry Melby bid on the county farm, the prices offered being the same, $6.00 per acre for rent and to receive $2.75 per week for caring for the inmates. Melby also bid 80 cents per ton for hauling coal from Mazon and Derenzy $1.00. The latter lowered his price to 90 cents and was given the whole contract.

The Morris High School football team had no trouble winning over the supposedly strong Joliet High School team last Saturday by a score of 18 to 6. The visitors put up a hard battle but were unable to hold the Morris team. Lamson, of Morris, was the star of the game and made several long runs and scored two of the touch downs. Line-up: Joliet—Doubleday, L. H. B.; Johnson, R. H. B.; Guthrie, F. B.; Comerford, Q. B.; Hartony, C.; Hacker, L. G.; Loughran, R. G.; Cowling, L. T.; Moriarity, R. T.; Quigley, L. E.; Donin, R. E. Morris—Lamson, L. H. B.; Fletcher, R. H. B.; Woods, F. B.; Hoge, Q. B.; Hoge, C.; Fletcher-Ferguson, L. G.; Harrison, R. G.; Kay, L. T.; Walsh-Fletcher, R. T.; Peacock, L. E.; Osborn, R. E. Touchdowns—Hoge, Lamson (2), Quigley. Linesmen—Mack, Dudgeon. Timekeeper—Hull. Referee—Hamilton. Umpire—McCallister, of Joliet.

The business men of Morris were a busy crowd Tuesday when the train on the new railroad, the Fox and Illinois Union, pulled in from Yorkville. The train brought to town thirty-three representative citizens of Aurora who were the guests of Col. Evans, the builder of the new road and who brought them all to Morris for the purpose of seeing the city and getting acquainted with the Morris merchants. The road is now electrified all the way from Yorkville and is doing a fine business for a new road. The visiting delegation was met at the terminus by the local men in autos and were driven all over the city to the different factories, the tannery, etc., and were shown the principal residences and the fine new pavements that have been made recently. The trip ended at the Commercial Hotel where the proprietor, A. Mallory, had prepared a fine dinner at the request of Col. Evans.

Morris people are much interested in the report that John Williams has been pardoned from the state prison by Governor Dunne. Williams is a negro who killed George Decker, of Morris, with a stick or club and then beat Mrs. Decker into insensibility on June 26th, 1890. He was convicted of the crime and sentenced to life imprisonment in Joliet. The deed was committed at the instigation of James Maxwell who kept the negro under the influence of liquor until he was willing to do the bidding of Maxwell. The object of the deed was robbery and the folks were awakened by the robbers who killed them to prevent detection. The officers made a thorough search for the guilty parties and Maxwell and the negro were captured. Maxwell was found guilty and was hung on October 17th, 1890, the first legal hanging in the county. Williams has been a model prisoner for twenty years and has won the confidence of his jailors by his exemplary conduct. He has been the means of frustrating several jail deliveries and has also aided in maintaining good order and obedience among the prisoners and it is on that account that he has now been given his liberty.

Two of Morris' most popular people were happily joined in marriage Thursday forenoon at the Catholic Church. Miss Anna Carney, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Carney, was married to Frederick Gable, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Gable. The ceremony was performed by Father Darcy. The wedding march was played by the organist from St. Angelas and mass was sung by the choir. Misses Stanford and New were the soloists. The bride was accompanied by her sister, Miss Elizabeth Carney, and the groom by his brother, Charles of Joliet. The bride wore a splendid gown of white crepe meteor and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Her going away gown was dark blue with hat to match. The bridesmaid wore pink crepe de chine and carried pink roses. The ceremony was attended by a large number of the friends of the young couple and after the ceremony about thirty members of the family and other close friends repaired to the home of the bride's parents and partook of a splendid wedding breakfast which was served by Mesdames Murray and Kelly. The servers were classmates of the bride, Misses Etta Glasse, Blanche Kelly, Mary Walsh and Eva Feehan. Mr. and Mrs. Gable boarded the train in a shower of rice and good wishes and went on a wedding trip to Peoria and other points and will be at home after October 10th at 624 East Illinois Ave.

Good Coffee Costs Less

It's the poor coffee that's expensive. High grade coffee yields more cups to the pound than low grade—there is more strength in the high grade berries. And there's little satisfaction in coffee that lacks a full, rich flavor.

You are choosing a high grade coffee, but an inexpensive one, when you tell the grocer to send Mex-O-Ja.

From every pound you can make 40 cups of delicious coffee—more if you like it mild. The cost is less than a penny a cup.

Mex-O-Ja Coffee is packed in a specially constructed bag, enclosed in a protective carton with broad green and red stripes.

The Price May Change—The Quality Never
