GARDNER.

the rest of the week in celebration of Jewish customs. The Gardner and South Wilmington stores have been closed until Saturday.

Word comes from the Gardner and South Wilmington boys attending college in Hanover, Ind., that they like the college, the people and the scenery and that things are so new and pleasant that they have not been the least bit homesick.

Rev. Holt, of Chicago, preached at the Presbyterian Church last Sabbath and seemed to please the congregation immensely. He is a plain straightforward speaker that fills every listener with the idea that he is absolutely in earnest and wholly alert to the business of christianity, and that he wants everyone else to be the same.

A great deal of excitement was caused when Deputy Sheriff Robt. Shurson went to Bloomington Monday to try and find something of the whereabouts of Miss Pansy Hart. He evidently did not find her, for Tuesday evening she and her husband, Mr. Wm. McComb, returned to Gardner. This is Gardner's latest romance.

ACT QUICKLY.

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Dwight.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in time of danger. In time of kidney danger Doan's Kidney Pills are most effective. Plenty of evidence of their worth.

Mrs. J. A. Ackerman, 819 W. Jefferson St., Ottawa, Ill., says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, for I have used them for kidney trouble and backache with good results. My kidneys were bothering me and I had a lame and aching back. I couldn't rest well. I got Doan's Kidney Pills and they did me a world of good."

The above is not an isolated case. Mrs. Ackerman is only one of many in this vicinity who have gratefully endorsed Doan's. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Ackerman had. 50c all stores. But the Point is Important.

CUPIID STILL BUSY HERE.

Bagnell-Donovan Wedding.

Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock at the Catholic Church occurred the marriage of Miss Anna Bagnell of this city, to Mr. E. L. Donovan, of Chicago, Rev. Father Power performing the ceremony.

The wedding was a very quiet affair, only the immediate relatives being present.

The bride was attired in white crepe meteor and was attended by her sister, Miss Nellie Bagnell, who wore a blue silk dress. The groom was attended by Mr. Mike Bagnell, brother of the bride.

Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party were taken to the home of the bride's parents, where a delicious breakfast was served. The dining room was beautifully decorated with smilax and carnations, the color scheme being green and white.

Mr. and Mrs. Donovan left on the afternoon train for Chicago and from there will leave for a trip through Wisconsin, Michigan and New York and will be at home in this city to their many friends after November 1.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Bagnell, of this city, and has been employed at the telephone office here for the past few years. She is a woman of many pleasing and charming ways and has a host of friends who wish her success in her new life.

The groom is employed in the signal department of the Alton road and has made many friends here during the past few years.

Those from out of town who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Snell and children, of Pontiac; Miss Sadie Burns, of Nevada; Mr. Con Dillon, of Harvard, and Mrs. Goodrich, of Austin.

Former Dwight Boy Weds Girl from Blackstone.

The following was clipped from the Streator Independent Times:

"At the Presbyterian manse Wednesday occurred the marriage of Miss Viva Heller and Dr. E. D. Seymour, both of Blackstone. Dr. W. C. Miles tied the nuptial knot securely, using the ring ceremony. The young couple was unattended and immediately after the ceremony they departed for a three weeks' trip through the northwest.

"The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Nona Corbin, of Blackstone, her father being the late John Heller of this city. She is a very bright and attractive young lady and is well and favorably known here, and deservedly popular. Dr. Seymour, during his residence in Blackstone, has built up a wide practice and earned an enviable reputation in business and professional circles of Streator and vicinity. Upon their return from their honeymoon they will be at home to their many friends in Blackstone."

Dr. Seymour is a former Dwight boy having resided here until a few years ago, when he left for Blackstone where he has since practiced his profession. He is a brother of Roy Seymour, who conducts a drug store in this city and has a host of friends here who will be pleasantly surprised in the news of his marriage.

Housewife in the Making.

Miss Emery had given little Tim a simple problem in addition that he failed to work out. "Numbers are dry," she reasoned with herself, and determined to make the lesson more interesting.

"Suppose," she began, engagingly, "your mamma sent you to the store to buy three pounds of lamb, two pounds of potatoes, half a pound each of carrots and turnips, and one pound of tomatoes—what would you have then?"

Tim shook his head, but Marybell, only a year older, raised an eager hand.

"Well, Marybell?" said the teacher, with a sorrowful glance at little Tim.

"Stew!" said Marybell, sweetly, "Youth's Companion."

Inexpensive Monotony.

"When I got the order to design a big wholesale house for a firm that has stores in five cities besides New York, naturally I was elated," said an architect. "I'll plan a building that is bound to be satisfactory. I said to myself, 'and then they will give me the commission for those new stores they expect to put up in those other five cities.'"

"Well, I did turn out a splendid store—a store that was admired by everybody in the wholesale trade. My patrons were pleased, too, but instead of giving me an order for those other buildings they simply used the same plans over again and built all their houses alike. That's what I call playing a low-down trick on a fellow."

Bygone Chivalry.

"It is no use deceiving ourselves," she thought. "There's precious little chivalry now! Men don't idealize women as they used. They're grown far more suspicious—and harder. Perhaps because women have grown so critical of them! Anyway, something's gone—what is it? Poetry? Illusion? And yet!—Why is it that men still put us off our balance—even now—that they matter so much less, now that we live our own lives, and can do without them?"—Mrs. Humphry Ward in "The Mating of Lydia."

EISELE-BOYER.

Popular Young Man from Here Takes Graymont Girl as Bride.

Wednesday noon, October 1st, the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Eisele, who reside two miles north-west of Graymont, was the scene of one of the most beautiful fall weddings which ever happened in that vicinity, when their daughter, Miss Florence Myron, was united in marriage to Mr. Clarence Edward Boyer, of this city, Rev. Oberhan, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of Flanagan, officiating, the ring ceremony being used.

Promptly at 12 o'clock noon Mr. Orville Pample sang a solo entitled "Because," after which to the strains of Album's wedding march, played by Miss Lottie Werkley, of Peoria, the bridal couple took their places under an arch in one corner of the room which was banked by palms and ferns and beautifully decorated with pink and white streamers, the color scheme which was carried throughout the entire house. The bride was attired in white crepe meteor with shadow lace and carried a beautiful bouquet of bridal roses. Her traveling suit was blue serge with a white push hat.

After the ceremony a duet entitled "To the End of the World with You" was sung by Misses Iva and Elda Pample and several selections were rendered by the Rusty Hinge Quartette, of which Mr. Boyer is a member. The wedding party were then served a three-course dinner after which Mr. and Mrs. Boyer left amid a shower of rice, old shoes, etc., for Pontiac, where they took the 4:15 train for a two weeks' honeymoon trip through the south. They will be at home on East South street in this city to their many friends about the middle of October.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Eisele, of near Graymont, and is one of the most popular young women in that vicinity, having spent her entire life there. Her charming individuality has won for her a host of friends who wish her a happy and prosperous married life.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Boyer of this city, and is the junior member of the firm of Brumbach & Boyer Bros., who are now erecting a new garage building on the corner of Franklin and Delaware streets. He has lived in this city practically all his life, having grown from boyhood up and is one of Dwight's most popular and enterprising business men. He has a host of friends and is well liked by all who know him.

About one hundred guests were present at the wedding.

The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents.

One Method.

Mrs. Grimly—Is there no way you can break yourself of that habit of talking in your sleep? Mr. Grimly (tremulously but hopefully)—Do you think it would help any, my dear, if you'd let me talk more when I'm awake?—Puck.
