boats for the accommodation of the passengers and over 100 lives were lost on that account.

Monday was "Columbus" Day, a state holiday, and schools were closed throughout the state...

Mrs. Panhurst, the fierce suffragette of England, believes in burning and destroying the property of others to get what she thinks are her rights.

Senator L. Y. Sherman is surely right when he says "Republican elections should not dictate Republican nominations for the presidency when they come from states which do not furnish any electoral votes."

It looks to an outsider that the baseball commission is composed of about the cheapest lot of skates which could be picked up.

There is a disposition in Illinois to "get together." Some of the Republicans and third party men held a meeting in Springfield toward that end.

The recent rounding up of political parties at the state fair, was very much over-estimated.

rices, fancy articles, machinery, stock of all kinds, watch the jays, the gingerbread brigade, the fakers and other things and tire themselves out and go home and tell about it.

We haven't heard anything about those charges against Dr. Marshall, of Pontiac, the able medical director of the Illinois State Reformatory...

The Panama canal in a short time will have vessels passing from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and thus the greatest engineering feat of the world will become practical.

It is quite evident that the professional suffragette is to be used by the third party through such men as Medill McCormick.

Peoria is to have a big Child Welfare Exhibition in its Coliseum from October 27th to November 4th, and is the only city in the state outside of Chicago which has planned for such an exhibition.

of directors from their New York office,—Miss Mary B. Swain, Miss Annie B. Murray and Mr. Walter Storey.

A special report submitted to the Department of the Interior by the Superintendent of the Hot Springs Reservation shows that the recent fire at Hot Springs has not interfered in any way with the administration of the baths.

At the state fair the Hon. Roger Sullivan, of Chicago, was "mentioned" for Democratic United States senator to succeed Senator Sherman.

THEN AND NOW. The Indianapolis Star has taken the trouble to delve into the past in search of Secretary Bryan's expressions of the adequacy of salaries of public officials.

"If you pay a judge $5,000 a year he will live in accordance with the habits of plain people. He will rent a modest house in a quiet quarter of the town, and will live on a simple scale.

And yet Secretary Bryan, by his own admission, must be placed in the $20,000 class.—Peoria Star.

BRUSH THE DIFFERENCES AWAY. The differences between the Republican and Progressive wings should be brushed away. Both sides can see that it is nothing but narrow personal feeling that influences the separation.

THAT REMINDS US. That "The Good Indian's Prayer" by Robt. Frothingham, is worth preserving and remembering: Powers that be make me sufficient to my own occasions, Teach me to know and to observe the rules of the Game,

That the following pretty little poem written, we don't know by whom, is also worth preserving. The title is "When I Dream of Old Erin:"

When I dream of my old home far over the sea By the lakes of Killarney where I long to be And I see you it seems waiting there on the shore

For Sale. A good, clean stock of groceries, hardware and Queensware, located in one of the best little business cities in Central Illinois, (population 2700).
