EDISON PHONOGRAPHS

By use of an ingenious attachment a Victor or Columbia record can now be played on the Edison machine, and the reproduction of these other records on this machine gives as good a rendition of these records as can be gotten from their own machine. The only change necessary is the placing of a needle in the reproducer to use instead of the diamond point which is used exclusively on the Edison machine. A thumb screw modifies the tone so that either a loud or soft effect can be given.

You must hear this machine to appreciate it.

Obituary of Mrs. Harriet Crandall.

The funeral services of Mrs. Harriet Crandall, who died last week Thursday, were held Sunday afternoon, at the Congregational Church. Rev. P. F. Farrington, pastor of the church, officiated, and a quartette, composed of Mrs. Hazor Smith, Mrs. J. C. Nelson, and Messrs. L. A. Welcker and I. H. Baker sang several selections. The body was laid to rest in Oak Lawn cemetery.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Harriet Avery Crandall was born in Kent, England, May 1, 1825, and died Oct. 30, 1913.

Coming to America she resided with her parents in Cleveland, Ohio. She was married to Mr. Wm. W. Crandall in 1846. She came to Dwight, Ill., in 1871.

Six children were given her, Emma, Josephine and Lillian, William, James and George Crandall. Miss Emma, and Mr. Wm. Crandall survive her.

She joined the Baptist Church when a young woman and united with the First Congregational Church of Dwight shortly after her arrival in this city.

She was a true, Christian woman, and was well thought of by her neighbors and friends. For several years past the condition of her health did not permit her attending church, or even leaving her home.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to express my sincere thanks to all those who assisted by their sympathy and aid during the illness and death of my mother.

MISS EMMA CRANDALL.

Piano Men Dine.

The following from the Peoria Star tells of one of our former townsmen: C. C. Adams, of the C. C. Adams Music hall, was host last evening at a dinner party given at the Creve Coeur club to the representatives of the firm and a few personal friends. L. S. Jones acted as toastmaster of the evening and called on several present for short talks. After the feast the party sojourned to the Orpheum theater for the second show. The guests presented Mr. Adams with a handsome set of gold cuff buttons and C. C. Adams, Jr., with a napkin ring in which was inserted the words, "Our Next Piano Man."

Dwight Schools Closed.

There will be no school in Dwight November 10 to 14 inclusive, on account of the Teachers Institute, which is held at the High School building, in Pontiac. A very good faculty has been secured by Mr. Herbert, the County Superintendent, to give instruction in the different departments. School again opens Monday Nov. 17.

Parent-Teacher Club.

The second meeting of the Parent-Teacher Club of Dwight schools was held in the High School building Tuesday afternoon. After a few remarks by the President, Mr. Brothers gave a talk on the value of seat work in the grades. He explained how it sharpens a child's powers of observation, develops his muscles and gives him an opportunity of expressing himself in a way that the other studies do not permit.

Miss Humberd then spoke of discipline and the various methods of enforcing it. A simple talk at first, then if the child cannot be made to understand that certain rules must be obeyed other methods must be resorted to. Miss Wagley followed Miss Humberd's talk and told of an experiment that was tried last week. The children were allowed to go to the basement whenever they wished and as a result the privilege was abused and the classes disorganized. Next came a general discussion of the discipline problem after which the meeting was adjourned. The next meeting will be held December 2, at the High School.

HELD UP.

Three Robbers Hold Up Man from Chicago.

John Stasiak, of Chicago, was held up at 9 o'clock Tuesday evening by three men, near G. L. Hahn & Son's grocery store. Mr. Stasiak was sent down to Dwight to work on the section and at the time of the robbery was on his way down to the section sleeping cars along the C. & A. track. No one was around to go to his assistance and he was relieved of $6 and a gold watch.

He at once notified the police and later two of the men were arrested, one escaping, and after a hearing were taken to Pontiac to await the action of the grand jury.

Hallowe'en Party.

The ladies of the Tuesday club entertained their husbands and a few invited guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Mills, last Friday evening.

The company arrived at the Mills home at about five-forty-five and at six o'clock were asked to find their places at the various lunch tables, by place cards which looked quite batty, but none the less inviting. When all were seated a delicious two-course dinner was served, by the committee having that part of the evening's entertainment in charge. After the serving was finished, a program was given, the first number of which was a chorus by the club entitled, "Go Tell Aunt Rhoda Her Old Gray Goose is Dead," this was sung to frighten away the Witches and Hob-goblins. Miss Vickery and Miss Bartholic then played a duet. Following this a play was given entitled, "Our Aunt from California," the troupe was composed of Miss Vickery, Miss Bartholic and Miss Capitola Emple as leading ladies, with Mrs. G. B. Hager, Mrs. L. Tanner and Mrs. Winnie Emple all stars in this particular performance. Another piano duet followed by a reading, "The Man of Sorrows," from Winston Churchill's book "The Crisis," by Miss Vickery which was loudly applauded and to which she responded with an amusing Latin selection, concluded the evening's entertainment.

The decorations in the house were beautiful and all in keeping with the spirit of Hallowe'en.

Large Real Estate Deal—40,130 Acres.

Probably the largest successful real estate deal by anyone in Dwight was recently made by our enterprising townsman, Col. Frank L. Smith. Indeed there have not been many larger in the state.

The transfer was in Florida land and consisted of 40,130 acres, and was made to St. Louis and Michigan parties.

We congratulate the Colonel on his success and business enterprise.
