FROM PONTIAC

JOLIET HIGH DEFEATS PONTIAC FOOT BALL SQUAD—REFORMATORY NEWS—SHOE CUTTERS' STRIKE AT AN END—MCDONNELL STATEMENT REGARDING THE REFORMATORY.

Joliet High school football team defeated the home team by 26 to 3. John W. Moritz, of near Chatsworth died Tuesday. He was one of our enterprising Danish farmers. C. R. Waters, of Chicago, formerly of Pontiac, died quite suddenly last Friday. He was a former grain buyer here. Mrs. Elizabeth Blackmore, prominent in the state and local work of the W. R. C., was in Bloomington last week. Hallowe'en was duly celebrated and no arrests were made. The boys will be boys and the girls will be almost boys also sometimes. A porter on the C. & A., was arrested in Odell the other day for disorderly conduct and brought here and was in jail for a few days. The new time card goes into effect tomorrow. The principal changes are the Red train and Prairie State north. They change time but the latter is not due in Chicago until 8:30. The death of Mrs. Wm. H. Stewart occurred Wednesday at the family residence from typhoid fever, after a week's illness. She left a husband, two sons and five daughters. The cutters in the shoe factory went to work the 5th and the strike is ended and everybody is glad of it, and the men will be paid each week and receive from $16.50 to $18 per week. Frank Chiolero, of Dwight, was brought to this city last evening by Detective Daily of the Alton and given a hearing before Police Magistrate C. N. Palty on the charge of disorderly conduct. He was fined $100 and costs which he paid. The south bound C. & A. train leaving here at 4:19 Thursday evening carried three special cars bound for Peoria containing suffragettes en route to attend the state meeting of the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association. Each car carried a large banner declaring their mission. Price McDonnell, a resident of Pontiac and a former guard at the reformatory, says that the recent investigation there is "a rotten political affair," and that there is no truth about the stories of punishment, etc., going on there. It is safe to say that he was not one of the witnesses called before the board. The reformatory troubles are growing worse instead of better. The trouble is naturally causing disorder inside of the institution as well as out. Two of the members of the board Messrs. Robinson and May have requested their names taken from the report, and have been requested to resign but refuse to do so, and may be removed. The whole thing was engineered by a bunch of bungling friends of Governor Dunne to get the offices.

Physicians in Session.
The twenty-sixth semi-annual meeting of the Livingston County Medical Society was held Thursday in the Elks' clubrooms in the Rathbun building. The attendance was exceedingly good and all of the members present showed a deep interest in the addresses delivered and the discussions which followed.

Dr. Brown, of Chicago, spoke on "Exophthalmic Goiter," the paper being an exceedingly interesting one. The discussion of this subject was led by Dr. James A. Marshall, of this city, and was participated in also by Dr. Middleton, of this city, and Dr. Fischkin, of Chicago.

"Syphilis in General Practice" was handled by Dr. E. A. Fischkin, of Chicago, who held the attention of the physicians present as he very ably discussed this subject. The discussion was led by Dr. O. P. Hamilton, of Forrest, and was also participated in by Dr. Frank Bawden, of this city, and Dr. Elfrink, of Chenoa.

Those who were present were: Dr. Pressler, of Cullom; Dr. Brown, of Dwight; Dr. Law, of Weston; Dr. Welch, of Odell; Dr. Elfrink, of Chenoa; Dr. Sloan and Dr. Lamb, Chatsworth; Dr. C. Brewer, Dr. D. Brewer, Dr. Otis, of Fairbury; Dr. Kistinger, and Dr. Jones, Cornell; Dr. Robinson, Cullom; Dr. Hamilton, Dwight, and Dr. Marshall, Middleton, Bawden, Fitzpatrick, Meeks, Ross and Young, of this city.

The officers of this organization are:
President, P. F. Elfrink.
Vice president, F. C. Bawden.
Secretary-treasurer, John Ross.
Board of censors, J. M. Mitchell, C. H. Barr and O. P. Hamilton.

Better Let the Women Tat.
Tatting is the least expensive sort of fancy work a woman can do. Many girls admit that they could crochet three balls of cotton while they are tatting one. Men, it will be easier on your pocketbooks if you let this harmless task go blithely on, for those gay sofa cushions are soon done and then thread and linen must be bought for a new one. For a woman's fingers must be employed.—Kansas Industrialist.

Sure Loss.

The A. B. C. Power Washer and Wringer

THE A. B. C. WASHDAY SONG.
The farm wife sang as she stood in the door
And watched her husband running the mower;
She knew she wasn't a Jenny Lind,
And that her voice with age had thinned,
That her dress was faded and so was her hair,
Yet her voice rose high on the summer air,
As she sang a hymn with all her might,
That all should know her heart was light.
And the farmer grinned as he whacked the mare,
With a "Giddup Moll, git a move on thar,"
And he grinned again as he thought: "By jing!"
"That A. B. C. Washer's made the old gal sing."
For a gasoline engine stood in the shed,
With a washing machine geared overhead—
And while the wife sang a gladsome song,
The engine was hustling the wash along.
For many a year had the poor wife bent
Her back o'er the tub 'till her strength was spent,

And never a carol nor ever a song
Had burst from her lips as she plugged along
Through the wearisome years o'er her tub of suds,
While she rubbed off the spots and wrung out the duds,
But now she would stand in the open door,
With the backache gone for evermore.
No longer must she at the wringer tug
As long as the engine kept up its chug,
What if her dress was faded and old?
What if her hair had lost its gold?
These were the things she could easily bear
Now that the load of wash-day care
Could be left to the engine out in the shed,
And the A. B. C. Washer geared overhead.
And that was why she sang that day,
While watching her husband cut the hay,
And that's why he, with another "By jing!"
Said: "I'm doggone glad I bought that thing."
