

MITCHEL CHOSEN NEW YORK MAYOR

Fusionists Utterly Rout Forces of Tammany Hall.

DEMOCRATS WIN MANY STATES

David I. Walsh Is Elected Governor of Massachusetts by Large Margin—James F. Fielder Carries New Jersey for Governor.

New York, Nov. 6.—John Purroy Mitchel was elected mayor of New York Tuesday, and Tammany hall suffered the most crushing defeat it has known in many years.

The fusionists, besides electing their candidate for mayor by more than 121,000 plurality, also were generally victorious in the county and borough elections, and the rule of Charles F. Murphy was put in great peril. It seems certain that a movement will be started, with national approval and encouragement, for the upbuilding of a new Democratic organization in New York city and state.

John Purroy Mitchel.

To add to Murphy's plight, returns from upstate showed that at next assembly will be Republican by a majority of 30 over both Democrats and Progressives.

Sulzer Is Elected.
One of the spectacular features of the state election was the triumph of former Governor Sulzer, who, running on the Progressive ticket in the sixth district, was sent back to Albany to sit in the assembly which impeached him.

George McAneny was elected president of the board of aldermen, and with the prospect of becoming mayor should anything happen to take Mr. Mitchel away. He won by 50,000 plurality over Joseph A. Goulden, Tammany's candidate.

William A. Prendergast was elected comptroller over Herman A. Metz by about 25,000, due undoubtedly to the attacks directed especially against his candidacy.

Marcus M. Marks was chosen borough president of Manhattan over Dr. Thomas Darlington (Tammany) by 14,000. Tammany even lost its county ticket in New York county. It had lost the board of aldermen.

Fusion candidates will fill all the chairs in the important board of estimate meetings except that of Queens, where Borough President Connolly, Independent Democrat, whom fusion did not endorse, was elected. Nobody, however, expects Tammany to get any benefit from his vote.

In Other New York Cities.
Schenectady ousted her Socialist mayor, George R. Lunn, and elected J. Teller Schoolcraft, Citizens' candidate.

The Progressives gained their most striking victory in Syracuse. Louis Will, their candidate, defeated James E. Donlan, Democrat, and Eugene J. Mack, Republican, in a race so close that only a few hundred votes separated all three candidates. Johnstown also elected a Progressive mayor by a plurality of 11 votes.

Other upstate municipal elections resulted in the victory of the following candidates for mayor:

Albany—Joseph G. Stevens (Rep.).
Buffalo—Louis P. Fuhrmann (Dem.).
Utica—James Smith (Dem.).
Troy—Cornelius F. Burns (Dem.).
Poughkeepsie—Daniel W. Wilbur (Rep.).

Rochester—Hiram R. Egerton (Rep.).
Auburn—Charles W. Brister (Rep. and Prog.).

Amsterdam—James N. Gline (Rep. and Prog.).
Rome—H. C. Midlam (Dem.).

Watertown—Isaac R. Breen (Rep.).
Elmira—Harry N. Hoffman (Fus.).

Massachusetts Democratic.
Boston, Nov. 6.—In what can be no better described than a landslide David I. Walsh, Democrat, was elected governor of Massachusetts Tuesday. His plurality was 57,815. Boston gave him a plurality of 28,000, a record never beaten by a gubernatorial candidate.

Edward P. Barry, Democrat, was elected lieutenant governor by about 20,000, and the result is hardly less surprising than Walsh's great plurality, for the election of Augustus G. Goding, Republican, to the second place had been conceded by even the Democrats.

The contest between Charles S. Bird, Progressive, and Congressman Augustus P. Gardner, Republican, which has developed nation-wide interest because it was the only really good fight between Progressives and the old guard anywhere in the country went in favor of the followers of Roosevelt.

The joke of the campaign proves to have been Governor Foss, running as an Independent.

Calvin D. Paige of South Bridge, Republican, was chosen to succeed the late William H. Wilder, Republican, in the special election in the third congressional district.

New Jersey Elects Fielder.
Trenton, N. J., Nov. 6.—Fielder, Democratic candidate for governor, was elected Tuesday by over 25,000 plurality.

Apparently nothing was left undone by the leaders to hold the Fielder vote in check, for all sorts of concessions to the Republicans were made, according to rumors flying about Newark, especially in the strong organization wards. Stokes received the bulk of flopped Democratic votes, a small percentage going to Everett Colby, Progressive, the third candidate for the post in the field.

James F. Fielder became acting governor when President Wilson retired from the office to go to Washington. He was the declared choice of President Wilson for nomination by the Democratic party, and Secretary Bryan and other notables took part in the campaign in his behalf.

Blair Lee Maryland Senator.
Baltimore, Nov. 6.—Blair Lee, Democrat, was elected to the United States senate Tuesday to succeed William P. Jackson, Republican, appointed by Governor Goldsborough to fill the unexpired term of the late Isador Rayner, and Charles T. Coady, Democrat, was elected to the house of representatives from the Third district to fill the unexpired term of the late Representative Koenig, Democrat.

The Democrats were victorious all along the line, electing Emerson C. Harrington state comptroller and Caleb C. Magruder clerk of the court of appeals.

Stuart Governor of Virginia.
Richmond, Va., Nov. 6.—The entire state Democratic ticket, headed by Henry Carter Stuart for governor, was elected Tuesday without Republican opposition.

Many Towns Go "Dry."
Springfield, Ill., Nov. 6.—With the aid of women's votes, which for the first time figured in local option elections in Illinois, the "drys" Tuesday won sweeping victories in downstate cities and villages.

Twelve towns which now have saloons were captured by the "drys." In ten other places which already were "dry" the anti-saloon forces routed the "wets."

The "wets" won in only five towns, all of which already have saloons.

Returns in Ohio.
Returns from the elections in various cities of Ohio show the following results:

In Cincinnati Frederick S. Spiegel (Rep.) was elected mayor over Henry T. Hunt (Dem.), incumbent, by about 3,000 plurality. Cleveland re-elected

Charles F. Murphy.

Newton D. Baker (Dem.) mayor by a reduced plurality. At Toledo Carl Keller (Rep.) was chosen mayor by a plurality of 7,000. Columbus re-elected George J. Karb (Dem.) mayor.

How Indiana Went.
Returns from Tuesday's elections in the various towns in Indiana show the following results:

In Indianapolis Joseph E. Bell (Dem.) for mayor was successful by a plurality of approximately 5,000. The Republican and Progressive candidates for mayor ran about an even race. Of the large cities in Indiana, Evansville, Terre Haute, Fort Wayne, Muncie, Logansport and Anderson will have Democratic administrations, while at South Bend and Lafayette the citizens' tickets were successful. For the first time in the history of Vincennes, the oldest town in Indiana, the Republicans were successful, electing mayor and other city officials. Riots and bloodshed marked the city election in Gary. R. O. Johnson, fusion candidate for mayor, was elected over Thomas E. Knotts, the present incumbent.

FELIX DIAZ FLEES TO UNITED STATES

ICEBERG CRASH TOLD

STEAMER REACHES PORT SAFELY AFTER TERRIFIC STRUGGLE.

Crew of Ship Struggle at the Pumps to Hold Boat Afloat After Collision in the Dark.

St. Johns, N. F., Nov. 6.—The freighter Manchester Commerce of the Furness line dragged her way into the harbor here on Tuesday, her bow a mass of crumpled wreckage and her pumps working madly to defeat the flood of water which poured in through the shattered hull.

The steamer, which carries no wireless apparatus, crashed head on into a giant iceberg at two o'clock Sunday morning while about 100 miles east of Belle Isle.

The night was very dark and the berg loomed out of the blackness so suddenly there was no time to change the course of the steamer, which swept at full speed into the mountain of ice. The force of the impact was terrible. The steel prow of the liner was crumpled like a piece of tin as far aft as the collision bulkhead. The decks were covered with huge fragments of broken ice and wreckage.

Captain Couch made a hasty survey of the damage and headed his ship for St. Johns. He succeeded in notifying his agents at Montreal by means of flag signals.

The sea was swept by a heavy storm and the steamer had a hard time making port. Torrents of water poured into the hold through the shattered bow. The pumps, although constantly in operation, could scarcely hold their own. The ship reached here in a sinking condition.

She was the worst wreck that ever entered the harbor. Repairs will require about two months. The steamer carried 6,000 tons of general cargo. Her lower hold, about which the water did not come, was filled with timber, while grain, flour and foodstuffs were on the deck above.

DENIES HAVING GIRL KILLED

Woman Implicated in Slayer's Confession Declares He Is Seeking Revenge.

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 5.—Mrs. Ellie M. Lake, held as an accessory to the murder of Miss Florence Brown on the strength of assertions made by Meade Barr, who had confessed to the killing, in a statement denied that she had any part in or knowledge of the killing of the young woman, and attributed Barr's attempt to implicate her as an endeavor to be revenged for her refusal to accept his advances. These were made, she declared, before the death a month ago of her husband. At the time Lake and his wife and Barr and his sister had apartments in the same house. "It was introduced to Barr about five months ago," Mrs. Lake said. "Afterward Barr claimed he loved me. I resented his professions and warned him not to enter my apartments unless my husband was there. He said then he would get even with me some day. That is the only reason I can give for his attempt to connect me with the killing of Miss Brown."

Man Kills Wife and Himself.

Laramie, Wyo., Nov. 6.—John Evans, former Burlington railroad employe, killed his wife from whom he had separated, and then blew out his own brains. Mrs. Evans was preparing to sue her husband for divorce.

One Killed in Auto Wreck.

St. Louis, Nov. 5.—George Boland was killed and Mrs. Boland, his wife; Mrs. Giles Boland, his mother, and Miss Anna Boland, his sister, were injured in an automobile wreck. Their car upset in a ditch.

POLITICS IN STRIKE

EDITOR CHARGES SHERIFF WANTED BUSINESS MEN AS DEPUTIES TO AID PARTY.

HEADS OF COMPANY STONED

President Todd, J. J. Mahoney and Police Chief Hyland Stoned by a Mob in Indianapolis—Mounted Officers Rescue Men.

Indianapolis, Nov. 5.—Numerous riots, partisan politics and a suit for forfeiture of franchise entered into the street car strike situation Monday.

In the riots Thomas Carlton, a chauffeur, was shot and perhaps fatally wounded while watching strike sympathizers attack the Louisiana cars where strike-breakers were housed.

Candidates charged that the police were not trying to give the traction company protection. Sheriff Porteous was accused of playing politics in seeking to make 200 business and professional men deputy sheriffs for strike service, thus keeping them out of activities at the polls.

The day closed without any effort being made to provide street car service.

The suit for annulment and forfeiture of the traction company's franchise and the appointment of a receiver was filed in the circuit court by Albert C. Pearson, a lawyer, acting as a taxpayer. It alleged that the company, through its failure to operate cars for the last three days, violated its franchise contract with the city. The summons in the suit was made returnable November 13.

Twelve arrests were made during the day.

Robert I. Todd, president of the traction company; John J. Mahoney, superintendent, and Martin Hyland, superintendent of police, were bruised and forced to run for the terminal station while mounted police forced back the crowds. Both Todd and Mahoney were attacked again while passing the statehouse building.

The mounted police rushed to the statehouse lawn and made it possible for Todd and Mahoney to reach their offices.

Charges of politics entered after Sheriff Porteous had issued summonses for 200 business and professional men for the purpose of making them deputies. Not more than 50 of the men answered the summonses.

After the sheriff had explained his purpose Leo K. Fesler, editor of the Marion County Mall and former president of the Indiana Republican Editorial association, charged him with issuing the summonses to keep active Republicans from working at the polls in the election. He asserted that of the 200 summonses not more than ten were of the sheriff's political complexion, Democrats.

Many Hurt in Wreck.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—Scores of people were seriously injured here when a Wabash railroad train crashed into a Halsted street car at West Seventy-fifth street. The piling of the elevation hid the railroad tracks from the motorists.

Surglers Secure $3,000.

New York, Nov. 6.—Taking advantage of the absence of the police on election duty, burglars smashed a window in a jewelry store and escaped unmolested with close to $3,000 worth of diamonds and jewelry.

Montevideans Welcome T. R.

Montevideo, Uruguay, Nov. 6.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt arrived here and was met by the Uruguayan minister of foreign affairs and representatives of the leading educational bodies and clubs of Montevideo.

DEMAND WAS MADE

PRESIDENT WILSON'S NOTE SEEN AS VEILED ORDER THAT HUERTA RESIGN.

MUST GIVE UP ALL POWER

American Executive Warns Refusal Will Mean Consideration of Sterner Measures—Plan to Recognize Carranza.

New York, Nov. 6.—A telegram from Washington to the New York Herald says: "An avalanche of denial leaves unchanged the essentials of President Wilson's latest move for the solution of the Mexican problem. The president has made peremptory demand on General Huerta to eliminate himself from the Mexican equation, and without further waste of time Huerta must surrender into other hands the provisional presidency and all that goes with it. Should Huerta, in a desperate effort to make himself a hero in the eyes of Mexicans, declare war on the United States, his challenge would be promptly met."

Washington, Nov. 6.—The most drastic action President Wilson has in mind for solution of the Mexican problem is the raising of the embargo on arms and ammunition, thus letting the Mexican rebels equip all their fighting men.

It is not denied, however, that a note much stronger in tone than the one originally conveyed through John Lind, special envoy, has been laid before the dictator. In fact, it is positively known that Huerta has been advised that his own and his country's best interests depend on his speedy retirement.

City of Mexico, Nov. 6.—Conversation at the national palace carried rumors regarding President Huerta's attitude in the face of Washington's demand that he retire, but the president himself preserved an enigmatical reserve.

Huerta's intimates are familiar with the terms of the communication, which they regard as practically mandatory.

Vera Cruz, Nov. 6.—The Third division of the United States Atlantic fleet, consisting of the battleships Rhode Island, Virginia, Nebraska and New Jersey, arrived. All anchored outside the breakwater.

TRAIN CRASH FATAL TO 15

Three Coaches Burn, But Americans Are Believed to Be Safe in French Wreck.

Paris, Nov. 6.—A railway accident on Tuesday on the Paris-Lyons-Mediterranean railway at Melun, twenty-seven miles from Paris, is the worst in France in years, although only fifteen persons were killed.

The night mail, made up entirely of post office wagons and containing sixty sorters, who deal with the mail between Paris and the frontier, crashed into an express train from Marseilles to Paris, causing the injury of many persons in addition to the deaths.

The express train is popular with Anglo-American travelers. The collision took place owing to the driver of the mail train overrunning the stopping point at the Melun station. Three cars were destroyed and took fire.

So far as can be ascertained no Americans were injured.

LAW CONFUSES THE BANKERS

Income Tax a Puzzle to Wall Street Financiers and Lawyers—Ignorance Admitted.

New York, Nov. 3.—That part of New York which is referred to vaguely as Wall street was in a state of confusion Friday. For once in its career Wall street did not know which way to turn. The new income tax law became effective that day and some of the highest priced lawyers, bankers and corporation officials in the world confessed that they were completely at sea as to its meaning.

It is practically a foregone conclusion that payment of a large part of $80,000,000 November interest payments due in New York will be deferred pending a solution of the riddle.

GATES BODY PUT IN VAULT

Services for Late Millionaire at New York—Laid to Rest Beside Father.

New York, Nov. 4.—Funeral services of Charles G. Gates, the young millionaire whose hunting trip in the west was terminated by his sudden death at Cody, Wyo., were held on Sunday in the Madison Avenue Methodist church. The body was taken to Woodlawn cemetery where it will rest in one of the vaults until the family mausoleum designed to receive the body of the late John W. Gates as well as that of the son is completed.

Execute Spanish Officer.

Madrid, Spain, Nov. 5.—A firing squad of Spanish troops executed Capt. Manuel Sanchez, a Spanish army officer found guilty by a court-martial of the murder of Don Garcia Jalon, a wealthy land owner, last May.

Set Date for Labor Cases.

Washington, Nov. 5.—On the request of Samuel Gompers, Frank Morrison and John Mitchell, the Supreme court of the United States set January 1 as the date for hearing arguments in the labor contempt cases.

MAD KING DEPOSED

OTTO OF BAVARIA OUSTED AND SUCCEEDED BY THE PRINCE REGENT.

TWO BROTHERS DEMENTED

Ousted Monarch Ordered Troops to Charge Stone Wall When Germans Were Before Gates of Paris in 1870.

Munich, Nov. 7.—Otto, insane king of Bavaria, was deposed on Wednesday from the throne which he has occupied for 27 years.

Prince Regent Ludwig proclaimed himself king in pursuance of the provisions of a law just enacted by the two houses of the Bavarian diet.

The new king is to be known as Ludwig III. He will take the constitutional oath probably on November 8.

A royal proclamation which was posted throughout the kingdom declares incurable the insanity which has incapacitated Otto from ruling and states that in consequence of this Prince Regent Ludwig has brought his regency to an end, has ascended the throne and nominated himself king.

The deposed King Otto was born April 27, 1848, and succeeded his brother Ludwig II., who drowned himself in Starnberg lake (Starnbergersee), June 13, 1886.

Two members of the Bavarian diet were sent as a delegation to Fuerstentriede palace to visit the mad king. They found him in a pathetic condition. When he saw them he stammered some inarticulate words. While they were out of the room they heard a crash and found that Otto had dashed to the floor a tea tray which had been set for the deputies.

The last act of Otto as king, when he upset a tea tray which had been set for the reception of two members of the chamber of deputies, who had come to see him, was in its futility a fitting climax to dementia, which had first become pronounced when the Germans were before the gates of Paris in 1870. Otto, then a prince, ordered his regiment to charge a stone wall, in the belief that the wall was a detachment of the enemy. The king of Prussia called Prince Otto to his headquarters, decorated him with the Order of the Iron Cross for past valor and placed him under surveillance.

Such was Prince Otto of Bavaria, who 27 years ago was proclaimed king by Prince Luitpold, then regent. Ludwig II., also a mad king, and elder brother of Otto, had been deposed and a regency established.

POLICE FOILED BY MILITANT

Sylvia Pankhurst Addresses Crowd While Men Ordered to Watch Her Chase Another Woman in Taxi.

London, Nov. 7.—While the police were chasing another woman, who was riding about in a taxi and whom they believed to be Sylvia Pankhurst, Miss Pankhurst spoke on Wednesday at a meeting at Bow Baths. There she announced the formation by Capt. Sir Francis Vane, a Boer war veteran, of a corps for the protection of suffragettes and persons engaged in labor disputes. She said the plan was based on the action of the unionists of Ulster, led by Sir Edward Carson, in preparing to oppose home rule by force.

Miss Zelle Emerson of Jackson, Mich., presided over the gathering. Later in a row with the police she was knocked down.

MORE TROOPS TO BORDER

U. S. Transport Sails for New York From Galveston—Tenth Cavalry Will Be Taken Aboard.

Galveston, Tex., Nov. 7.—United States transport Kilpatrick sailed for New York where it will receive on board the Tenth cavalry, coming from Port Ethan Allen, Vt., returning to the port where the troops will enter for Fort Bliss, Tex. Four troops of Fifteenth cavalry now at Washington; four troops of same regiment at Chicago; and four stationed at Fort Leavenworth, will move simultaneously for the Mexican border in Arizona.

McReynolds Ends Argument.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 7.—Attorney General McReynolds concluded his argument in the harvester case here on Wednesday. He asked the court to enter an interlocutory decree, declaring the International Harvester company a monopoly. He then asked that when such decree had been entered the defendants be given reasonable time to submit a plan of reorganization. The court took the case under advisement.

To Wire Condition of Crops.

Washington, Nov. 7.—November crop reports will be transmitted to newspapers by telegraph. Summaries of conditions will be telegraphed to the central weather bureau station in each state for further distribution.

Woman Pleads in Supreme Court.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Mrs. S. H. Sorin of Arizona appeared as the representative of a mining corporation in a big mining suit before the U. S. Supreme court. Only on a few occasions have women addressed the court.

Re-Elect Mrs. McDowell.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 7.—All general officers of the general executive committee of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church, headed by Mrs. W. F. McDowell as president, were re-elected.
