

THE WIZARD OF ELECTRICITY

THOMAS EDISON

AIM AT PERFECTION IN EVERYTHING

THE life of the "Wizard of Orange" is one continuous story of striving, sacrifice and accomplishment.

Some men inherit fortunes; some accumulate riches quickly by lucky schemes, while others, as in Edison's case, advance through industry, saving, push and enterprise which prepare them for opportunities for wealth, pleasure and advancement.

Prepare Yourself Financially. Save Now.

Every dollar you waste is one little opportunity lost forever. Save them, and they will furnish the means for broader education, personal advancement and business expansion.

We offer you every facility and a life long experience to aid you in successful banking.

Mr. Hamilton C. Love and Mrs. Rose Cornyn, both of Chicago, were married recently by G. L. Taylor, Police Magistrate.

We will have a car of Michigan Rural potatoes the first of next week—the finest potatoes received in town yet. G. L. Hahn & Son.—Adv.

Mrs. E. L. Kiley spent the first of the week visiting her sister, Miss Sidney O'Malley, who is teaching in one of the public schools in Chicago.

If you varnish with Valspar, you need not worry. It is not affected by hot liquids on dishes. Use it on your furniture. Get it at Baker's.—Adv.

Wednesday and Thursday were regular Indian summer days. Quite a contrast between here and Cleveland, Ohio, where there were snowbanks twenty feet high.

Vestibule storm fronts, can be attached to any buggy in a few moments, making a weather-proof storm buggy. Call and see them. Frank Reeb & Sons.—Adv.

Mrs. Wolf and Miss Dean, who have been visiting Mrs. Joseph Baker and daughters for several weeks, returned to their home in North Madison, Ind., the first of this week.

If father had to do the Darning he would insist that every member of the family wear Holeproof Hose. 6 pairs guaranteed 6 months. Sold only by Carey & Seabert.—Adv.

Mrs. George Hornberger returned Tuesday evening after a week spent in Chicago with her son, Clarence, whom it was at first thought would have to undergo an operation for appendicitis.

If you want to please father, mother and friends at Christmas time, have some photographs made. Your portrait as you are today, will please them all. Make an appointment before the busy season at the Wright Studio.—Adv.

Mr. Fredrick Klein, of Chicago, a brother of Mr. John Klein, of Dwight, died at a hospital Wednesday in Chicago from the effects of an operation. The funeral was held Friday in that city and was attended by Mr. Norman Klein, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Schroeder, Mrs. Leonard Hoffman and Mr. Leonard Hornberger, all of Dwight, and Mr. and Mrs. Pickles, of near Gardner.

If you are at all interested in a modern kitchen cabinet, and will grant us a few minutes of your time, we will prove to you the superiority of the Hoosier cabinet over all others, regardless of price. The most critical buyers demand Hoosiers in their kitchens. It will pay you big dividends to investigate this matter of cabinets thoroughly. C. M. Baker & Son.—Adv.

P. Nomensen went to Indiana Monday.

Ceresota Flour at G. L. Hahn & Son.—Adv.

Mr. Brown was a Chicago visitor Sunday.

Now is the time to prepare for winter weather. Call at Frank Reeb & Sons' and see the newest storm buggy. Equipped with electric lights. Frank Reeb & Sons.—Adv.

Geo. Eubrick has done quite a good deal of dynamiting lately around Dwight. This week he intends to dynamite about 200 trees south of town. So far Mr. Eubrick has been quite successful.

From now until Christmas Dierks' Studio will give away free a 1914 calendar with your own photograph on it with each dozen pictures purchased. Don't forget there is a photographer in your town.—Adv.

Quality is one of our hobbies. Before making your purchases compare our goods and regular prices with the so-called discount prices of other stores. We leave it entirely to your judgment. Carey & Seabert.—Adv.

A week from next Thursday is Thanksgiving and the banks, post-office and most of the business houses will be closed—the banks all day, the postoffice from 10 a. m. and others from 12 noon for the day. This office will be closed.

If you will let a "1900 Gravity Washer" do your washing you will use no other. We can prove this assertion if you will give it a trial. There are washers cheaper, first cost, but none as good. The "1900" line are sold exclusively by C. M. Baker & Son, who sell other makes but recommend the "1900."—Adv.

Subtraction
 Addition

In our school days we learned that 100 minus 10 equaled 90.

That's just what our 10 per cent discount plan does to the prices on our Kuppenheimer Suits.

but--

As the value, the true worth, of these good clothes cannot be affected; 100 minus 10 equals 110 in point of value given and received.

Think it over before buying elsewhere with the following prices in mind.

$18.00	VALUES	$16.20
$20.00	VALUES	$18.00
$22.50	VALUES	$20.25
$25.00	VALUES	$22.50

SPECIAL

Here's the biggest value we've ever given in strictly high grade 100 per cent quality Suits.

There are just 47 of them in sizes from 34 to 44. Cashmeres, Worsted and BLUE SERGES priced so low as to make any further discount impossible.
