DEATH OF ELY MILLER.

Former Dwight Resident Passes Away in California.

Ely T. Miller, who for many years conducted a dry goods store in this town, passed away at his home in Pasadena, Cal., Friday morning, Nov. 21, at 7 o'clock. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Miller, old time residents of Dwight, and his boyhood and young manhood was spent in this city.

Mr. Miller had been in poor health for some time prior to his death.

The remains were cremated and the ashes will be sent here for burial beside his father and mother in Oak Lawn cemetery.

The deceased left a wife, Mrs. Mable Miller, who resides in Pasadena, Cal.

ODD FELLOWS ENTERTAIN.

Enjoyable Evening Spent by the Lodge Members, Their Families and Invited Guests.

A very pleasant entertainment and social was given last week Friday evening by the members of the local lodge of Odd Fellows for their members and families, the Rebekahs, and a few invited guests.

By eight o'clock the hall was filled to its utmost capacity, and shortly after that hour Mr. Ives Graves, in a few appropriate words, welcomed the guests and members, in behalf of Lodge No. 513, I. O. O. F.

He then announced the following program:

Music Long's Orchestra
Vocal Solo..... Mr. Frank Carter
Recitation..... Miss Margaret Brown
Recitation..... Miss Edna Seibert
Vocal Solo..... Mr. Hans Smith
Recitation..... Master Ralph Eyer
Music Long's Orchestra

This program was much enjoyed by the audience, who showed their appreciation by hearty applause.

The members and guests were then invited to attend the moving pictures in the opera house below, and while they were enjoying them, long tables were set for the supper, which was later served, members of the Rebekahs acting as waiters. The supper was a delicious one and was prepared by a committee from the Odd Fellows.

Later dancing was enjoyed in the opera house, and talking it altogether it was an evening long to be remembered by the invited guests.

Public Please Notice.

On next Saturday, December 6th, (and on that date only) we will offer a pound of Stag tobacco in a beautiful glass humidor together with a pound box of Greenfield's celebrated DeLaton chocolates at only 90 cents. To those who do know the value of this tobacco we give a guarantee on every humidor that is sold on this date; that you will receive not only the most beautiful humidor on the market but a pound of the highest grade tobacco that is sold and the regular retail price of same is 90 cents a pound. The candy that is given free with each pound of tobacco retails at 65 cents per pound. Those who wish may leave their orders at the News Stand or call us over phone 98 and we will accept your order but no tobacco will leave the store until Saturday, December 6th. Send in your order now if you cannot be here to take advantage of it on that date. All orders received will be given our prompt attention and saved for you. Don't forget the date, one week from today.—Adv. ADAMS & ORR.

Don't wait a day longer. Call up 47 today and order a Hoosier Cabinet delivered to your home. When you want the best, call on C. M. Baker & Son.—Adv.

TANGO PARTY.

Last Dance of Series Given Monday Night in Mazon Hall.

Monday evening Colonel and Mrs. Frank Leslie Smith entertained their friends in Mazon Hall at a tango party, it being the most brilliant ball ever given in Dwight. The host and hostess have been giving complimentary dancing lessons to a number of their friends, and as the series had ended, this event came as a climax. During the evening souvenirs were presented, the gentlemen's taking the form of silk flags of all nations, tied through the center with tiny bits of red, white and blue ribbon, indicative of the recent trip of Colonel and Mrs. Smith circling the globe. The ladies' favors were Bulgarian hats of various hues, which sat most bewitchingly on the fair wearers' heads. In behalf of the dancing class Mr. Boston presented Mrs. Smith with a huge bunch of roses and spoke in appreciation of the kindnesses which had been received by the donors at the hands of their entertainers. At this time the guests learned that this was a birthday affair given by Mrs. Smith in honor of her husband. Miss Packard, of Chicago, led the tango. Many pretty figures were danced, among them the bag and ball, choosing of partners by the hands thrust above a sheet and others equally unique. The festivities fittingly closed with a supper at the Livingston, covers being laid for sixty. A birthday cake with candles—never mind the number—was cut and passed during supper. Sweet's orchestra, of Joliet, furnished delightful music. All of the out of town guests were from Pontiac, being: Mr. and Mrs. Erastus Hoobler, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis McGregor, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Pearre, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Fox, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Bradford and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hoobler—Pontiac Leader.

NOTICE TAOINN

The Sons of Veterans and their Auxiliary will enjoy a social and entertainment in Odd Fellows Hall Friday evening, Dec. 12. The Grand Army Post and their wives are invited.

AGED RESIDENT PASSES AWAY.

Mrs. Rearick Dies After Paralytic Stroke.

Mrs. Rearick, for over fifty years a resident of Dwight, passed away at the residence of her son, Mr. Bruce Rearick, on Seminole street, last Sunday afternoon. Her death resulted from a paralytic stroke with which she was taken a few days before her demise.

She was 91 years of age and was a pioneer resident of Dwight, coming here when the town was very small.

Mrs. Michael Rearick was born April 9, 1822, at Poughquay, Dutchess Co., N. Y., and died at Dwight, Ill., Nov. 23, 1913. She was married to Mr. James H. Cornwell Dec. 30, 1843, and removed to Grand Island, western New York. She remained there several years and moved to Dwight, Ill., in 1854. To this union two children were given them, Edgar R. and James H. Cornwell, both now being dead.

From Dwight she and her husband moved to Pontiac, Ill., where Mr. Cornwell joined the 129th Illinois Volunteers. Mr. Cornwell died at Gallitan Hospital, Tenn., July 1, 1863.

Mrs. Cornwell returned to Dwight soon after her husband's death and was united in marriage to Mr. Michael Rearick Dec. 6, 1864. To this union one child, Mr. Brewster S. Rearick, was given them, who survives his mother, and with whom the mother made her home. Mr. Rearick died many years ago.

She was brought up as a Quaker and lived according to their simple teaching. She was a good mother, a kind friend and neighbor and was well thought of by all who knew her.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon at her late home, Rev. F. F. Farrington officiating. Mrs. Hazor Smith and Mrs. J. C. Nelson sang two appropriate hymns. The body was then taken to Oaklawn cemetery for burial.
