The Stars in Their course are scarcely more regular than the watches sold by us. They are not the cheapest on the market, to be sure, but we do say this: you will get a better value, quality considered, in the Hamilton or Howard watches, sold by us, than any other make on the market today. Ask the man who carries one. This is the best way to find out.

He Won't Save Money Either

No man will ever climb the ladder of success with his hands in his pockets.

He will not do much of anything else either; at least he will not save money. The money savers are the world's builders---the successful---the energetic. You are not among these if you are not a saver.

Now is a particularly good time to begin.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE

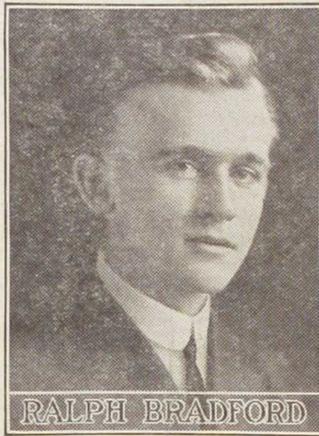

The Farmers' Institute will be held at the Dwight Opera House Wednesday and Thursday, January 7th and 8th, with sessions both in the morning and afternoon.

The program is one of the best ever arranged for any Farmers' Institute in this county.

One of the best features will be a moving picture lecture entitled "The Dawn of Plenty." This will be given

Mr. A. N. Johnson, State Highway Commissioner, will have charge of the illustrated address on good roads. This will be especially interesting in view of the new road laws recently passed affecting the entire state.

Mrs. E. F. Ford will take care of the domestic science and this will be conducted on the morning of Thursday, January 8th. All of the ladies interested are cordially invited to in the afternoon of Wednesday, January 7th.

Honorable Charles Adkins, ex-speaker of the Illinois House, who is himself a practical farmer, living near Bement, Illinois, will also address the Institute. Mr. Adkins is considered one of the best speakers in the state, is thoroughly familiar with every phase of modern farming and no one interested in progressive agriculture should fail to hear Mr. Adkins' address.

hear Mrs. Ford and the domestic science class of the high school is urged to be present.

A portrait of Mr. Bradford, who will deliver the lecture on "The Dawn of Plenty" is herewith produced.

It is hoped that every farmer either active or retired and every other citizen will be present not only for their own good but to encourage an Institution that is making for better farming and thus making for better living conditions for the entire world.

AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION SCHOOL.

School to be Held from January 12 to 16 in Keeley Lecture Hall.

An Agricultural Extension School will be held in Dwight from Monday, January 12, to Friday, January 16. The lectures which will be given by experienced men, will be full of interest and very instructive, and will be given in the Keeley Lecture Hall.

The complete program appears in this issue and it is hoped the farmers and townsmen as well will attend this school which will be of benefit to all.

WHITE-PINNEGAN.

Wedding Solemnized at Catholic Church at Wenona.

On Tuesday morning, December 30 at the Catholic Church at Wenona, occurred a very pretty wedding, the contracting parties being Miss Jane White, of Wenona, and John M. Pinnegan, of this city.

The ceremony took place at 6:30 o'clock at High Mass by the Rev. Father O'Devier. The bride was attended by Miss Louisa Hopper, Frank J. Steger, nephew of the groom, acted as best man.

After the ceremony the bridal party were driven by automobile to the home of Mr. and Mrs. William White, brother of the bride, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served after which the bride and groom left for a short wedding trip. On their return they will reside on the farm of the groom's father, east of town.

Public Sale.

Having purchased the interest of Nicholas J. Wolf, of the firm of Gulshen & Wolf, in the grain and coal business, I will sell at public auction at my residence 1 mile south and 1 mile west of Odell and 1 mile west of Kline's crossing on the B., P. & J. electric railway, on Thursday, Jan. 8, 1914, the following property: 9 head of horses, 9 head of cattle, 24 head of Poland China hogs, 9 head of thoroughbred Shropshire sheep, hay, poultry, farming implements and many other articles. Usual terms. W. B. Grimes, auctioneer; J. B. Cleary, clerk. —E. F. Gordon.—Adv.

Children's Party.

The Children's Matinee given by Mrs. Oughton at the Opera House on New Year's afternoon was attended by a large and appreciative audience. The old, old story of Cinderella, never old to the children, was beautifully portrayed in three lengthy reels. Two other reels of a more humorous strain completed the program and everyone went home happy and satisfied.

REVIVAL SERVICES.

Meetings to be Conducted for Two Weeks by Rev. McClung at M. E. Church.

Commencing tomorrow morning Rev. G. H. McClung, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church will begin a series of revival meetings, which it is hoped will be largely attended. The meetings will continue for two weeks, and during that time Rev. McClung has requested that no social affairs take place that will keep anyone from attending these services.

Following is the list of subjects for the coming week:

Sunday morning, The Philosophy of the First Revival.
Sunday evening, The Great Preparation.
Monday evening, The Logic of Life.
Tuesday evening, Obstructing Heaven's Highway.
Wednesday evening, Churchianity vs. Christianity.
Thursday evening, Conditions of Discipleship.
Friday evening, The Unpardonable Sin.
Saturday evening, Christian Development.

The Hoosier and Santa Claus.

We can imagine how great your disappointment was, busy housewife, when you learned Christmas morning that Santa Claus had failed to leave you a Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet; he was a trifle partial this year due to the limited supply of Hoosiers allotted to this territory. We have since Christmas received four Ivory Finished Hoosiers, three of which have already been sold; with more ordered, we are planning to supply you promptly. Start the New Year right as far as your kitchen is concerned by installing a Hoosier. You save time, material and labor if you use a Hoosier, and are using the best the market affords.—C. M. Baker Son. We sell them on convenient terms.—Adv.

Double Wedding.

On New Year's Day at 7 o'clock in the morning at the M. E. Church parsonage, marriage ceremonies uniting Miss Lucy Chappel to Mr. Amos Johnson, and Miss Pearl Stacy to Mr. Albert Relcke, were performed by Rev. Geo. H. McClung.

The contracting parties are well known young people from near Campus and have many friends who extend them best wishes.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couples left on the Accommodation for Chicago, where they will spend their honeymoon.

The brides wore pretty white gowns, and the grooms the conventional black.
